THE ASSEMBLY'S MINUTES

The selling price of the Minutes to parties outside of our bounds, commercial houses, etc., is $1.00; to officers and others in our Church, 50 cents; to Presbyterial clubs buying a copy for each Church in the Presbytery, to clubs of the General Assembly, and also to members of Committees of Presbytery, Synod or Assembly, 25 cents. A copy free of charge is sent to each minister on the roll of the Church, as shown by the Presbyterial reports, but delivery is not guaranteed. So that if the copy mailed fails to reach the party, another free copy must not be claimed. A charge of 50 cents will be made for extra copies sent to replace copies lost in the mail or to correct wrong addresses given by Clerks of Presbyteries.

Orders should be sent to the Committee of Publication, Richmond, Va., and not to the Stated Clerk.

MINUTES

DURANT, OKLAHOMA, Thursday, May 16, 1918.

The Fifty-eighth General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States met in the First Presbyterian Church at 11:00 a. m., and was opened with a sermon by the Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., the Moderator of the last Assembly, from Philippians 4:19, "But my God shall supply all your need, according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus."

The Lord's Supper was then celebrated, Rev. H. G. Hill, D. D., and Rev. Erskine Brantly, D. D., conducting the service.

The Stated Clerk read the names of the Commissioners who had been enrolled, which showed a quorum present.

EVENING SESSION

8:15 P. M.

The Assembly met, the Moderator presiding. After devotional exercises Rev. Warner H. Dubose of the Army Y. M. C. A. made a short address.

The report of the Select Committee on Army Work was then read. Pending action upon this report, addresses were delivered by Rev. Arthur G. Jones, D. D., Rev. Trigg A. M. Thomas and Rev. E. T. Wellford, D. D. The report was then adopted and is as follows:

Your Committee on War Work begs leave to submit the following report:

We have carefully examined the report of the War Work Council and have noted these facts concerning the results that have been accomplished: The sum of $49,278 has been contributed to this cause; fifteen camp pastors are now actively employed by the Council; nine men have been furnished cars to aid them in their work in the camps; the work of pastors and churches in cities contiguous to the camps has been organized and stimulated with splendid results; thousands of soldiers have been drawn into closer fellowship with the Church, while hundreds have been led to a confession of the Saviour.

The camp pastor, in his ministry to our soldiers, is filling a very definite place and is working along well defined lines. His work does not conflict with, nor overlap, that of the army chaplain or of the Y. M. C. A. By suggesting the activities of the local church in its work for the men, by ministering to them in their sickness, loneliness and need, by bringing the repentant into the communion of the Church, he is rendering a service in the name of the mother Church which no other agency can so well perform. He is to the soldiers of his denomination i[illegible] ease the local pastor is to his people.

Never before in her history has the Church faced an opportunity like this. I[illegible] the pr[illegible] of God there have been gathered into the various training camps the young men who will soon become the leaders in the thought and activity of our country. They are thinking as they have never thought before of the great realities of life; they eagerly respond to the appeals of the gospel, and it is largely within the power of the Church to determine at this time whether these men shall be won for Christ and the Church or shall drift into indifference, worldliness and skepticism. Moreover, these men are from our own homes and churches. Many of them have been baptized and have thus come into covenant relations with the Church and the Church has thereby assumed a definite responsibility for their spiritual welfare. If the Church fails in her duty to these men now, can she expect them to rally to her call in the years to come?

In view of such an opportunity and responsibility your Committee makes the following recommendations:

1. That the Assembly express its hearty approval and its deep appreciation of the splendid work of the War Work Council.

2. That each church in our bounds be urged to assume its share of the responsibility for this work.

3. That the Assembly continue the War Work Council as the proper agency through which to minister to the soldiers, and that this Council shall be expected to meet not oftener than twice a year, and that the administration in the interim be left in the hands of an Executive Committee that can be gotten together quickly and without large expense. That the Council shall be composed of the following members: Rev. Jas. I. Vance, Rev. A. S. Johnson, Rev. Homer McMillan, Rev. R. O. Flinn, Rev. Thornton Whaling, Rev. R. H. McCaslin, Rev. A. G. Jones, Rev. E. T. Wellford, Rev. W. R. Dobyns, Rev. A. A. McGeachy, Rev. S. E. Hodges, Rev. S. L. McCarty, Rev. Geo. Summey, Rev. Wm. Crowe and Elder T. S. McCallie.

4. That the sum of one hundred thousand dollars be raised for this work during the next year, and that the fourth Sunday in October be set apart for the offering for this cause.

5. That pastors of local churches be urged to strengthen the ties between the Church and the men who enter the service by the use of service flags, correspondence, and such other means as may be in their power, and that our people be much in prayer for the men in the service.

S. L. McCarty, Chairman.

That the Assembly record its grateful appreciation of the untiring effort and splendid leadership of Rev. James I. Vance, D. D., in behalf of our Church's work for the Presbyterian boys in the cantonments and training camps. As Chairman of the War Work Council, in addition to the burdens of a large pastorate, Dr. Vance has given much of his time to this work since October 15, 1917, without any compensation whatever, save the satisfaction of serving his Church and country.

Also that the thanks of the Assembly be given to the session and members of the First Presbyterian Church, Nashville, for so generously allowing Dr. Vance to devote so much of his time to this work, and for providing without cost office room and stenographic help for the work of the Council.

It is the unanimous judgment of the War Work Council that it is largely due to the deep interest and ceaseless labors of the Chairman that the Council is able to make this encouraging report to the Assembly.

It was made the first order of the day for Monday afternoon to hear the report of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions and at 8:15 P. M., Monday to have a popular meeting in the interest of Foreign Missions.

Season of Special Prayer

The Select Committee to whom was referred the Overture of Rev. Erskine Brantly, D. D., asking for a day of prayer and fasting, made the following report which was adopted:

C[illegible]mend that the first hour Saturday afternoon be set apart and observed by the Assembly as a time of confession and prayer to God, supplicating His grace and pardon for sin, and the manifestation of His power in bringing about a righteous peace. We suggest that the Rev. R. G. McLees be appointed to lead this service.

"W. R. Dobyns, Chairman."

It was made the order of the day for Tuesday 8:15 P. M. to hear the report of the Standing Committee on Home Missions and to have a popular meeting in the interest of this cause.

The following Commissioners were enrolled:

Rev. W. A. Hall, Presbytery of Meridian.

Rev. J. C. Stewart, Presbytery of Central Mississippi. Ruling Elder T. J. James, Presbytery of North and South Carolina.

The Standing Committee on Foreign Correspondence made a report recommending that the following telegrams be sent, which was adopted.

W. M. B. Hobbs.....West Virginia

It was made the order of the day for 10:00 A. M., Monday to hear the report of this Select Committee.

Rev. R. C. Anderson was heard for ten minutes in the interest of Montreat.

Recess was then taken until 11:30 A. M.

At 11:30 A. M. the Assembly met and engaged in devotional exercises conducted by Rev. J. E. Thacker, D. D.

Rev. A. M. Fraser, D. D., was made Chairman of the Select Committee on the report of the Ad Interim Committee on the matter of licensing and ordaining candidates, in place of Rev. D. H. Ogden, D. D., the request for the change being made by Dr. Ogden.

It was ordered that there be no session of the Assembly this evening.

The Assembly then took recess until 2:30 P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION

2:30 P. M.

The Assembly met and engaged in the special service of prayer and confession arranged for this time, Rev. R. G. McLees presiding and making the address.

Rev. L. E. McNair telegraphed his resignation as a member of the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions. This telegram was referred to the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions.

Amendment Fails

The Select Committee appointed to tabulate the answers to the overture in regard to the change of the Book of Church Order made a report showing that the overture had failed of adoption. The report is as follows:

The Select Committee appointed to tabulate the answers of the Presbyteries to the overture of the General Assembly of 1917, touching paragraph 235, recommending their advice and consent, reports:

1. Forty-six (46) Presbyteries made answer out of eighty-seven (87).

2. Twenty-four (24) Presbyteries voted in the affirmative, twenty-one (21) in the negative, and one (1) declined to vote.

3. As the Book of Church Order requires a majority of all the Presbyteries to consent to the proposed change (paragraph 142), and as a majority have not answered in the affirmative, no further action by this Assembly is required.

J. M. Holladay, Chairman.

The Records of the Synods of Kentucky, Mississippi, Louisiana, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Missouri and Texas were approved.

The third item in the report of the Select Committee of which Rev. W. R. Dobyns, D. D., is Chairman, relating to the appointment of a day of prayer, was referred to the Committee on Foreign Correspondence.

It was made the second order of the day for Tuesday afternoon to hear the report of the Standing Committee on the Bible Cause and in this connection to hear Rev. W. M. Anderson, D. D., special representative of the Bible Society.

The Select Committee on the report of the Board of Managers of the Assembly's Training School for Lay Workers made a report which was docketed.

Rev. W. R. Dobyns, D. D., was requested to furnish the address delivered yesterday at the devotional services to the Committee of Publication for publication.

Rev. W. W. Moore, D. D., and Rev. Russell Cecil, D. D., were appointed a Committee to suggest the topic for Reformation Day.

The Invitation of the Durant Commercial Association to those attending the Assembly, to take a drive over the county next Wednesday at 4:00 P. M. was accepted.

Snedecor Memorial Synod

The Standing Committee on the Minutes of the Snedecor Memorial Synod made the following report which was adopted:

Because of the recent meeting of the Snedecor Memorial Synod and inability to prepare the minutes by this time, the Stated Clerk of the Synod asks that it be allowed to defer their presentation until the next meeting of the Assembly, and that this be the permanent practice of this Synod

Respectfully submitted,
C. W. McDanald,
T. J. James,
Committee.

The Committee appointed by the last Assembly to confer with and advise the Snedecor Memorial Synod presented the following report, which was placed on record.

Your Committee appointed by the last Assembly "To Confer and Advise with the Snedecor Memorial Synod" begs to report:

The Synod met in Salem Presbyterian Church, Tuscaloosa, Ala., on Tuesday evening, May 7, 1918. The sittings were continued through Wednesday and Thursday following. Drs. S. L. Morris and Dunbar H. Ogden, of your Committee, were unable to attend. The third member, Rev. Chas. M. Boyd, attended all the sittings of the Synod.

The Synod was conducted in a reverent and orderly manner. A spirit of consecration to and enthusiasm for the work was quite manifest. On various occasions the counsel of the Assembly's committeeman was sought, and in every instance his advice was cheerfully accepted and followed.

Respectfully submitted,
Chas. M. Boyd.

The Assembly heard brief addresses from the Commissioners of the Presbyteries constituting the Snedecor Memorial Synod. The Assembly placed on record its interest in this work among the colored people.

Mr. Chas. G. McFerrin of Durant was given the privileges of the floor to present the Red Cross work and to call for speakers from the Commissioners who will help in the great drive.

The Assembly then adjourned with prayer until 9:00 A. M. Monday.

Message from the General Assembly, U. S. A.

The following telegram was received from the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.:

Columbus, O.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in Session at Durant, Okla.:

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, in session at Columbus, O., asks you to unite with us in this supreme crisis in world history in prayer to the God of our fathers that He may make us one in spirit and in life and crown with victory both nation and Church. Our motto is: "The World for Christ and Humanity."

J. Frank Smith, Moderator,
Wm. H. Roberts, Stated Clerk.

The request of the Moderator that the Assembly make a decision as to the basis on which soldiers in the army camps are to be received into the Church, was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

The minutes of the Synods of North Carolina, Arkansas, Florida and West Virginia were approved.

The Committee on the Minutes of Synod of Appalachia reported that a copy of the minutes had not come into their hands.

The Stated Clerk of the Assembly was directed to omit from the Minutes of the Assembly the list of Chairmen of Presbyterial Home Missions.

A request that a column for contributions for War Work be made was referred to the Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath School Work.

The report of the Select Committee on the Training School for Lay Workers was taken from the docket and discussed. Pending the final disposition of this report it was docketed in order to take up the order of the day, viz.: the hearing of the report of the Select Committee on the report of the Ad Interim Committee on Union and Federation.

The report was taken up and the Chairman, Rev. D. H. Ogden, D. D., read the majority report signed by sixteen members. Rev. George Summey, D. D., read a minority report signed by himself.

Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., offered a substitute for the majority and minority reports.

Pending discussion the Assembly took recess for a few minutes before the hour for devotional exercises.

At 11:30 A. M. the Assembly engaged in devotional exercises conducted by Rev. S. L. Morris, D. D.

Recess was then taken until 2:00 P. M.

EVENING SESSION

8:00 P. M.

The Assembly met.

A telegram from the Hon. Herbert Hoover, U. S. Food Commissioner on Food Conservation was read and referred to the Committee on Foreign Correspondence.

Foreign Missions

The Assembly then took up the order of the day, the popular meeting in the interest of Foreign Missions, Rev. W. R. Dobyns, D. D., presiding. The report of the Standing Committee on Foreign Missions was read and pending a motion to adopt, the Assembly heard addresses from Rev. Egbert W. Smith, D. D., Executive Secretary, Rev. C. F. Hancock of China, and Rev. L. B. Tate of Korea.

The report was adopted and is as follows:

Your Standing Committee to whom was referred the report of the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions, hereby makes the following report:

1. We note with gratitude the increased contributions which, in this year of stress and strain, we consider significant of our people's abiding interest in the preaching of the gospel of Christ to all nations "to make out of them a people for His name."

2. We observe with commendation the evident ability with which the work is managed by the Committee, and we especially commend the clear and comprehensive statement by the treasurer of the financial standing of the work.

3. We ask attention to the increasing difficulty, caused by war conditions, of the conduct of our work in foreign fields, and desire to lay on the conscience of the Church the sore need of the fullest and most effective co-operation of all pastors and churches, lest our all too small force at the front be crippled unto death.

4. We should not overlook the part taken by the women in this great task. Their contributions during the last year have increased over $13,000.00 over the year previous. The more should we note this when we remember that in spite of the fact that men constitute our armies, yet the anxieties, the sacrifice, and the heaviest burdens of the war always fall upon the women. We should commend their great liberality, in the face of the Red Cross and other causes to which also they have so sacrificially given.

5. We devoutly acknowledge the blessing of God upon our missionaries' work in the gathering of 5,972 souls out of darkness into the light and salvation of the Son of God. Unto Him be the glory.

6. After careful consideration we offer the following recommendations:

First. That classes be organized in all the churches to study either "Working Women of the Orient," by Margaret E. Burton, or "Ancient Workers at a New Task," by Willard Price, the two adult text books recommended for the current year; and that the Executive Committee be instructed to select or prepare a special text book or books adapted to the use of the men of the Church.

Second. That the Seven-Year Plan of Missionary Education in the Sunday schools be again approved, and that pastors and sessions be urged to secure missionary education in Sunday schools according to this plan, and especially toward lining up every Sunday school in the China campaign this year.

Third. That the Assembly again urge individuals, churches, societies, Sunday schools and Sunday-school classes to assume an obligation for some definite part of our Foreign Mission work, giving preference to the support of work already undertaken and of missionaries already on the field.

Fourth. That the Assembly appoint the days of February 16th to 23rd, inclusive, as a season of special prayer, preaching and self-denial in the interest of its Foreign Mission work, and the Executive Committee prepare special programs or suggestive outlines for use at that time in the Sunday schools, young people's societies and prayer meetings.

Fifth. That the Assembly call the attention of the whole Church to the greatly increased difficulty and cost, due to war conditions, of carrying on the Foreign Mission work, and the consequent necessity at this time of special prayer and sacrificial giving, and that we call upon the Church for $1,100,000.00 for this year, being 55½ per cent. of the total amount for Benevolences.

Sixth. That the Assembly authorize the Executive Committee to make such disposition of the matter touching the work of our Church in Cuba as the Committee shall deem wisest and most for the advancement of the whole work.

Seventh. That the Assembly heartily commend the Committee for the publication of the recent pamphlets of "Missionary Ammunition" and express its appreciation of their value.

Eighth. That Reverends A. B. Curry, S. H. Chester and Jas. I. Vance, and Messrs. M. G. Buckner and W. H. Raymond be elected members of the Executive Committee for a period of three years.

Ninth. That the resignation of Rev. L. E. McNair as a member of the Executive Committee be accepted and Rev. D. H. Scanlon be elected to fill the unexpired term.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM RAY DOBYNS, Chairman.

The Assembly then adjourned until 9:00 A. M. to-morrow, closing with prayer.

FIFTH DAY.

TUESDAY, May 21, 1918.

The Assembly met at 9:00 A. M. and was opened by prayer by Rev. D. Iverson.

It was ordered that after the hearing of communications the regular morning call be suspended in order to take up the unfinished business, viz.: the report of the Select Committee of the report of the Ad Interim Committee on Union and Federation.

Rev. T. B. Wesley presented a plan of Federation which was referred to the Select Committee on Union and Federation.

A telegram was received suggesting a plan for the increasing of the benevolences of the Church, and was referred to the Standing Committee on Systematic Beneficence.

A telegram from Geo. R. Rust of Athens, Ga., sending greetings from the Christian Endeavor Society and asking for the aid of the Assembly in placing the Bible in the Public Schools, was presented and referred to the Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath School Work.

The following telegram from the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., approving of the continuation of the Committee on Union and Federation was read and referred to the Select Committee on Union and Federation.

COLUMBUS, O.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, Durant, Okla.:

The General Assembly, in session at Columbus, O., approved to-day of the continuance of the negotiations between our respective Churches on the subject of federation and union. The sentiment is unanimous for the continuance.

J. FRANK SMITH, Moderator,
WM. H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

The amended report of Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., is as follows:

DR. WELLS' AMENDED SUBSTITUTE REPORT

The Assembly approves the report of our Ad Interim Committee on Conference, and continues a Committee as requested by the Committee on Conference of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

The Assembly goes on record as opposing Organic Union at this time, but as approving the idea of a Federal Union of all the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in the United States.

That the Committee be enlarged, so as to include one member from each Synod.

That these Committeemen be selected by the Commissioners present from the Presbyteries constituting their respective Synods.

That this Committee select its own Chairman.

The majority and minority reports of the Select Committee on the report of the Ad Interim Committee report on Union and Federation are as follows:

Majority Report

Your Committee has considered with the greatest care the able report of the Conference Committee on Union and Federation, and we recommend that said report be received and the Committee commended for its diligence and for its careful presentation of a most important and difficult subject.

The idea of a Federative Union of all the Presbyterian and Reformed churches in America commends itself to us, and we trust that the time may soon come when this shall be realized.

We find that the plan of organic union proposed by the Committee of the U. S. A. Church meets in apparently unequivocal language every objection to union expressed by our Committee and in addition contains a provision for the safeguarding of local self-government by the granting of the largest constitutional authority of the Synods. If this statement made by the U. S. A. Committee is an expression not only of the judgment of the members of that Committee, but of the heart of the Church they represent, we believe that it constitutes a basis for further and definite conference concerning the union of our two bodies. Because of our historic oneness and because of the proximity of our work we believe that the outstanding and immediate object of our consideration should be the proper relationship between these two Assemblies, rather than the possible Federative Union, much as that is to be desired, of all the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches of America.

We believe that in the consideration of this important subject every safeguard should be used to prevent misunderstanding and division in our own midst and that we should deal with the problem in such a spirit and method as to make impossible a rupture in our own Church.

We therefore recommend:

1. That the present Committee of Conference be continued and enlarged by the appointment of such additional number as to give one representative to each of our Synods, and in addition that the Moderator of this Assembly be made a member of the Committee, and that as Moderator he be appointed Chairman.

2. That a personal representative be sent at once to the General Assembly U. S. A., now in session at Columbus, O., to state most frankly to that body our mind in this matter and to request that Assembly, in the event it approves the plan proposed by its Conference Committee, to submit to its Presbyteries said plan, asking them to express at their fall meetings their judgment as to the use of this plan as a basis for definite Conference on Union.

3. That this Assembly now send the aforesaid Plan of Union to our Presbyteries, asking them to express at their fall meetings their judgment as to whether this plan, provided it be approved by a majority of the Presbyteries of the U. S. A. Church, be in their judgment a basis for entrance upon definite conference looking to union, and to report at once their action to the Stated Clerk of this Assembly.

4. That in the event a majority of the Presbyteries in each church express a favorable judgment, our Committee be instructed to enter at once into conference with the U. S. A. Committee with a view to working out a definite plan of union, based upon the principles laid down in the aforesaid proposed plan, and that this Committee report its conclusions to our Assembly of 1919.

5. That in the event a majority of our Presbyteries disapprove the plan submitted to them, our Committee be instructed to continue its conferences with the U. S. A. Committee looking to the Federative Union of all the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in America.

Respectfully submitted,

Dunbar H. Ogden, Chairman,	Wm. P. Neilson,
Melton Clark, Secretary,	Martin Williams,
David H. Scanlon,	W. C. Tate,
Thomas Cummins,	J. I. Norris,
W. M. B. Hobbs,	W. S. Jacobs,
F. Y. Smith,	A. J. McQueen,
Job Going,	A. H. Ferguson,
Edwin F. Willis,	S. Strudwick.

Dr. George Summey, of New Orleans, did not concur with the majority of this Committee and desires to present a Minority Report.

Minority Report

The undersigned, finding himself unable to concur in the report of the Special Committee on the report of the Conference Committee on Union and Federatioh, reluctantly but with none the less a sense of duty and of loyalty to our Church, submits the following minority report:

1. That the Assembly approve of the report of the Committee of Conference with the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.; that it thank the Committee for its masterly and clear report, for its diligence and faithfulness in its labors, and for its intelligent and painstaking devotion to the task assigned it; that it commend it for the care with which it held itself within the terms of its commission, in the resolution under which it was appointed, and that it congratulate the Committee upon the heartiness and unanimity of its action.

2. That the Assembly concur in the unanimous judgment of the Committee of Conference with the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., that neither organic union nor federal union at present can be effected.

3. That the Assembly adopt the recommendations of the Committee of Conference with the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., that this Committee of Conference be continued another year to receive any added light that may be had, and to make final report to the Assembly of 1919. This the Assembly does that it may show the world its willingness to follow God's leading as to our Church's relations to all who believe in the Lord Jesus Christ.

4. That in its further actions the Committee of Conference shall follow the directions of the last Assembly and of this Assembly, and especially the expressed will of the Assembly touching the consideration of the federation of all the Presbyterian churches of our country upon some practical and effective basis.

George Summey.

The Stated Clerk of the Assembly was directed to name the representative from each Synod who shall call together the Commissioners present from the Synods to select the member of the Ad Interim Committee on Federation.

Rev. T. S. Clyce, D. D., an Ex-Moderator of the Assembly, was presented and introduced to the Assembly.

Training School for Lay Workers

The unfinished business, the report of the Select Committee on the Assembly's Training School for Lay Workers was taken from the docket, amended and adopted and is as follows:

Your Committee to which was referred the report of the Board of Managers of the Assembly's Training School for Lay Workers would report as follows:

The work of the Training School during the four years of its existence has amply demonstrated the usefulness of the school and it bids fair to become indispensable to our Church.

It is not only giving our prospective foreign missionary ladies the training they could formerly receive only by going outside our boundaries, put it is also furnishing our young women education and equipment for positions as home and city mission teachers and workers, as pastors' assistants and for similar positions, and it offers similar opportunities to laymen.

The demand for such trained workers, now already far exceeding the supply, will rapidly increase under the conditions which will confront us in the immediate future. The school has been fortunate in having the services of such a corps of skilled instructors, all giving their services without financial compensation. We feel, however, that the Church is doing itself an injustice in giving no return for these valuable services. The school having passed with increasing success through its first quadrennium, the time has come for the Assembly to place it upon a more established basis of support.

Your Committee would make the following recommendations:

1. That the General Assembly's Training School for Lay Workers continue to work under its present charter and plan of government which have been fully approved by previous Assemblies.

2. Inasmuch as the large majority of the students of the Training School will always be women, we recommend that women be elected to fill three places out of the twelve on the Board of Managers of the Training School.

3. In order to provide for the needs of the present year, we recommend that the General Assembly place the Training School on its list of Benevolent Causes and ask the Church to raise at least $8,000.00 for its running expenses, and that the treasurer of the Board of Managers of the Training School be placed in the Assembly's Minutes along with the names of the treasurers of the Assembly's Benevolent Causes.

(Recommendation No. 4, asking for 1% in the Benevolent Budget was referred to the Permanent Committee on Systematic Beneficence.)

4. We would recommend the following as the Board of Managers for the coming year: Rev. F. T. McFaden, D. D., Mr. R. E. Magill, Mr. Robert E. Friend, Rev. H. H. Sweets, D. D., Rev. S. H. Chester, D. D., Rev. Homer McMillan, D. D., Rev. S. Nye Hutchison, D. D., Rev. Walter L. Lingle, D. D., Mr. Owsley Sanders, Miss Katherine Hawes (Richmond), Mrs. H. M. Price (Baltimore), Mrs. A. W. McAllister (Greensboro).

5. We would recommend the approval of the following faculty: Rev. Walter L. Lingle, D., D., Rev. Walter W. Moore, D. D., Rev. Edward Mack, D. D., Rev. W. B. McIlwaine, B. D., Rev. Eugene Caldwell, D. D., Rev. M. Ryerson Turnbull, B. D., Rev. Charles L. King, B. D., Rev. O. E. Buchholz, B. D., Mr. Wade C. Smith, Dr. W. B. Lorraine, Miss Anna Branch Binford, Miss Elizabeth McE. Shields, Miss Pauline Williamson Grant, Mr. Owsley Sanders.

6. That the report of the Board of Managers be published in the Appendix of the Assembly Minutes.

Respectfully submitted,

Jas. Lewis Howe, Chairman.

The recommendation that the support of the School be placed on the Assembly's budget for benevolence was referred to the Permanent Committee on Systematic Beneficence.

Theological Seminaries

The Standing Committee on the Theological Seminaries made the following report which was adopted:

Your Committee on Theological Seminaries would report that there have come into our hands reports from the Board of Trustees of the following Seminaries: Union, Columbia, Kentucky and Austin and we have carefully considered the same.

Austin Theological Seminary reports thirty-two students for the past year, twenty-one of whom were special students in the English Bible courses. The seminary reports three graduates with the degree of Bachelor of Divinity. The Assembly expresses its sympathy with the institution in its financial stress and hopes the way may soon be open by which this school of the prophets may go forward in its career of usefulness in the wide field open to it.

Columbia Theological Seminary reports an enrollment of sixty-four students during the past year. This is the largest enrollment in the history of this institution. Total endowment $261,444.00, which is nearly $8,000.00 more than the amount reported last year. We note with pleasure that the expenditures of the Seminary are less than its income. The Seminary reports fifteen graduates, seven of whom received the degree of Bachelor of Divinity.

Union Theological Seminary reports students enrolled 101, twenty-seven of whom were graduated this year. Twenty-one of the graduates received the degree of Bachelor of Divinity. The net increase of endowment is about $143,000.00 and the Seminary reports that the effort to complete the funds for the modern Sunday-school building has been successful.

The Seminary is to be congratulated upon this effort, as this equipment will help to advance the purpose of the Assembly in the establishment of a Training School for Christian Workers.

We note the effort to found five additional fellowships of post graduate study and commend this to the generous consideration of the wealthy members of our Church.

Kentucky Seminary reports a total enrollment of fifty-nine students, thirteen of whom received the degree of Bachelor of Divinity. Several students had to discontinue their work on account of the war. We note the following items of interest: The Appalachian Synod has become a part of the territory supporting the Seminary, with Gen. John H. Brooks and Rev. J. V. Logan representing that Synod on the Board of Directors. Mr. J. Ross Todd resigned and Mr. K. Belknap was elected in his place. Rev. French W. Thompson, who has been laboring as field worker, has severed his relations with the Seminary to do war work. Additions have been made to the library from the libraries of the late Hon. E. W. C. Humphrey and Mrs. W. T. McElroy, bringing the number of volumes in the library up to 20,000. The expenses of the Seminary exceeded by a considerable amount the income, but plans are on foot for meeting the deficiency. The twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the institution was celebrated at the commencement of the Seminary, which occasion also marked the twenty-fifth anniversary of the services of Dr. C. R. Hemphill and Dr. T. M. Hawes.

We recommend:

1. That we express our gratitude to God for the successful operation of our Seminaries under such difficulties.

2. That we commend all of these institutions to the generous consideration of our churches in consideration of the increased cost of operation.

3. That we urge, in accordance with the recommendation of our President and those that are best acquainted with the needs of the times, both in the Church and State, the young men in our colleges and seminaries to complete their courses of study, in order that they may render to their country and to the Church the most efficient service possible, remembering that the statute still holds "that they that tarry by the stuff" are worthy of equal honor with those who go to the front.

Respectfully submitted,
Jno. G. Anderson, Chairman.

The Judicial Committee reported that no business had come into their hands. The Committee was discharged.

The Narrative

The Standing Committee on the Narrative made the following report together with a supplemental report on overtures. These reports were adopted and are as follows:

An address to the churches within its bounds on the state of religion among them by the Southern General Assembly in the United States, meeting at Durant, Okla., May 16, 1918.

A careful examination of the reports from our Presbyteries reveals facts both encouraging and sad as to piety among our people. They call for suggestion and counsel from our highest judicatory.

The attendance upon the worship of the sanctuary by our members is reported as generally good, especially the morning service. This is encouraging when we remember that the Scriptures affirm, "The Lord loveth the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob," and that "Those that be planted in the house of the Lord shall flourish in the courts of our God."

Those who seek Jesus often find him in the sanctuary and in the camp of Israel. "The Shekinah of Jehovah's presence rested upon the tabernacle of the congregation."

The reports show much neglect of family worship. In some cases the sessions do not know whether it is held or not. Some Presbyteries affirm that not more than ten per cent. of their families hold worship, and none claim that more than fifty per cent. perform this duty. This is discouraging when we consider that it is almost impossible to rear a godly seed where there is no family devotion, and in the Scriptures we find this admonition, "Pour out thy fury upon them that know thee not, and upon the families that call not upon thy name." It would be far better for parents to recite the Lord's Prayer daily with their children, or to send to the Presbyterian Committee of Publication for a prayer book and read prayers than to have no family worship. The impression made on children where no devotion is practiced is, as it once was expressed by a little girl unused to family worship, "We have no God at our house."

The observance of the Sabbath as a holy day, free from worldly cares and avocations and devoted to religious instruction and divine worship, is manifested by many in our congregations. But to some extent pleasure seeking in social visiting and unnecessary riding prevails. Our Saviour declares, "The sabbath was made for man," and keeping it holy as God directs is essential to the welfare of every part of his nature.

Its proper observance is made a condition of temporal and spiritual prosperity. Jehovah declares, "If thou turn away thy foot from the Sabbath, from doing thy pleasure on my holy day and call the Sabbath a delight, holy to the Lord and honorable, and shalt honor him, not doing thine own way, nor seeking thine own pleasure, then I will make thee to ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob, thy father, for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it."

The training of the children and youth in the knowledge of the Scriptures and catechisms, both in families and Sabbath schools, has made gratifying progress. But the catechisms are not universally taught in our homes and are somewhat neglected in the Sabbath schools. An intimate acquaintance with the word of God and the catechisms of the Church is needful to make intelligent Presbyterians.

The fidelity of God's people in worshipping the Lord with their substance, and in giving to the support and extension of the Gospel, according to the reports received, shows substantial increase. This fact not only meets Church needs, but fulfils a condition of securing the divine blessing.

Our churches, with few exceptions, have paid fully and promptly ministers' salaries and in many cases have increased stipends to meet the growing cost of living.

While there have been no widespread manifestations of the Holy Spirit's power in numerous conversions and in the growth of Church members, yet there is gratifying evidence that in many of our churches there have been some brought to Christ, and that believers are growing in grace.

Worldly conformity to the ungodly in principles and practices does not mark the conduct of our Church members to any great extent, and yet in business relations and in pleasure seeking some may be tempted to imitate the example of those who have no fear of God before their eyes.

Many churches do evangelistic work by maintaining Mission Sabbath schools on the extremes of their bounds or in regions adjacent to their territory, but we fear that in most of our congregations zeal for extending Christ's kingdom and making converts to him is not sufficiently cherished and manifested.

It does not appear from the reports that adequate efforts are made by pastors and sessions to secure recruits for the ministry. Some pastors preach an occasional sermon on the subject, but there does not seem to be that systematic effort which its importance deserves.

Two overtures relating to recruits for the ministry referred to your Committee may be noticed here. One is from the Presbytery of Louisville; the other from the Alumni of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary of Kentucky. They are much alike in sentiment and suggestions, and should be approved. They suggest prayer to the "Lord of the Harvest to send forth laborers into his harvest." But as God works by means, oftentimes they urge that young men now in the army, if they return, be persuaded to enter the ministry; that youths now under age for draft have their attention directed to the preaching of the gospel; that older men now in other callings who may have thought of becoming ministers of the gospel be incited to reconsider the subject, and that this matter of increasing the number of ministers of the gospel be constantly kept before the minds of our people in our own and sister Churches.

In addition, we would mention as one of the most approved and efficient means of securing ministers, "Let Christian parents dedicate their sons to the Lord's ministry, as Hannah did Samuel," and lead them in the way to that goal.

From Potosi Presbytery we have referred to your Committee an Overture requesting that "Worldly Conformity" be defined. We recommend that "Worldly Conformity" be defined: "That conformity to a sinful world, which puts self-indulgence above the will of God in such principles and practices as mar Christian character and influence."

The Presbytery of Paris sends an Overture, referred to us, asking for changes in the form of the narrative blank, that may secure more complete and satisfactory reports. We recommend, in answer to this Overture, that sessions in considering the topics mentioned in the blank, do not reply merely "Yes" or "No"; but use words briefly expressing the facts in each case.

In some Presbyteries the churches are fairly well supplied with preaching, but in others there are sad destitutions, which emphasize the great need of having an enlarged ministry of the gospel.

May the God of heaven, as well as individuals, help our people to put far from them those national sins which provoke divine judgments and to cherish that righteousness which safeguards and exalts a nationality.

Respectfully submitted,

H. G. Hill, Chairman.

Supplemental Report

* * * On two other Overtures referred to your Committee but having only an indirect and remote connection with the state of religion we make a separate report.

1. An Overture from Rev. John S. Shaw, urging similar action to that taken by the Presbytery of Louisiana, in appealing to the President of the United States to use his authority and influence in preventing "the waste of food and fuel" in the manufacture of alcoholic liquors by distilleries and breweries during the war.

2. An Overture from the Presbytery of Lafayette, desiring an appeal to the President to discourage all bands of music and speechmaking on the Sabbath day for the purpose of selling bonds or raising funds for war work, as inconsistent with the sanctity of the Sabbath day and the worship of Jehovah.

In answer to both of these overtures we would recommend:

First. That the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States respectfully and earnestly request President Woodrow Wilson to use his authority and influence to prohibit the waste of food and fuel now so much needed in the manufacture of malt and alcoholic liquors by distilleries and breweries, and furthermore that he employ his influence in discouraging the use of secular means such as bands of music, speechmaking and needless traveling on the Sabbath, in selling bonds or raising funds for war purposes, because they mar the sanctity of the Sabbath and hinder the worship of Jehovah.

Second. That our Stated Clerk be authorized at his earliest convenience to inform the President of this action.

Respectfully presented,

H. G. Hill, Chairman.

The Select Committee on Trustees of the General Assembly made the following report which was adopted:

Report of the Assembly's Trustees

The Special Committee on the Report of the Trustees of the General Assembly recommends that Mr. George M. Rose, a deacon of the First Church, Charlotte, N. C., be elected as Trustee to complete the term of Captain A. G. Brenizer, lately deceased, and that Messrs, R. A. Dunn, J. H. Wearn and P. S. Gilchrist, whose terms now expire, be re-elected as Trustees.

The Assembly expresses its sorrow in the death of Captain Brenizer, who served it so faithfully and so long.

The Assembly notes that the officers of the Board are Mr. Geo. E. Wilson, President; Mr. Robt. A. Dunn, Vice-President; and Mr. John R. Pharr, Secretary and Treasurer.

George Summey, Chairman.

The Records of the Synods of Georgia and Alabama were approved.

Christian Education and Ministerial Relief

The Standing Committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief made the following report which was adopted:

Your Standing Committee on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief begs leave to submit the following report:

1. We have examined the minutes of the Committee, together with their annual report which have been placed in our hands, and find the first neatly and accurately kept, while the second gives a comprehensive view of the work which has been done, in addition to some very wise suggestions as to what may best be done in the days to come. Two overtures have been placed n our hands. The first, No. 20. "The Presbytery of Concord respectfully overtures the General Assembly in session at Durant, Okla., May 16, 1918: That the Assembly return to the old method of assisting candidates for the ministry." We recommend that this be answered in the negative, and for the following reasons: First, the old plan, or plan of direct gift, having been given a long trial, was found unsatisfactory; second, the new plan, or plan of making loans, having been adopted and tried for a number of years, has been found superior in every way because, first, it places a premium upon the self-reliant and independent spirit of candidates and young ministers; second, it enables the Church to use money given for this purpose at least twice, and frequently oftener; third, it enhances, or at least makes more attractive, our Home Mission fields in the service of which such obligations are easily met by the Committee's plans; fourth, because this plan is meeting with the well-nigh universal approbation of those most intimately affected thereby. The second overture from Mr. Rutherford Lapsley, "Whereas the salaries of our ministers are, as a rule, inadequate for their support, on account of the great increase in the costs of the necessaries of life, bringing on a condition which threatens the increased efficiency and future supply of ministers, we recommend that all of the Presbyteries be directed to consider at once practical means of increasing the salaries of the ministers; that the Presbyterial Committees of Ministerial Education and Relief arrange before the next meeting of Presbytery, if possible, for deputations of laymen to visit the churches in the Presbytery, and confer with, advice and assist the church officers in the matter of increase of salaries. That the Executive Committee of Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, which has already done so much in this direction, be directed to supervise and further the adoption and putting into operation plans in all the Presbyteries, to remedy the acute situation facing the whole Church relative to the adequate support of the ministry." This overture we answer in the affirmative.

In addition to the overtures, there has come into our hands a communication from the Mountain Retreat Association, which, because of the Association's connection with the several Synods, is received only as information, with the assurance that the Assembly is deeply appreciative of the splendid work which the Association is doing for the Church.

We recommend:

First. The approval of the minutes of this Committee.

Second. That the Assembly approve the three-year program as outlined by our Committee.

A Three Years' Program

The Executive Secretary, desiring to further the interests committed to it by the General Assembly in the most thorough and systematic way, suggests that the following program for the next three years be approved:

1. That the Executive Committee, through carefully planned and sustained efforts, see that all the youth of the Church are brought face to face with the problem of their life's work, so that they may be able more clearly to discern God's plan for their lives. In order to accomplish this much desired end the Executive Committee is permitted to call into co-operation other agencies of the General Assembly, Synods, Presbyteries and the churches. To this end larger use shall be made of sermons, addresses and literature in churches, Sunday schools, high schools, colleges and universities.

2. That the Student Loan Fund of the Church be increased during this period to at least $250,000. As the purpose of this fund is twofold: to assist our Presbyterian Colleges and to enable the boys and girls from poor homes of our Church to secure a higher education, the fullest co-operation of these institutions should be secured. No investment will yield larger returns than these in the lives of our boys and girls of approved character as they are being prepared for Christian leadership in the coming age.

3. That within this period the Endowment Fund of Ministerial Relief be increased to at least $1,000,000. That the Executive Committee during this time secure from the ministers of the Church and their families data that will furnish the basis for the future statesman-like handling of this sacred and binding obligation of the Church.

4. That within this period the Executive Committee put forth its utmost endeavor to assist the various Synods to perfect their educational policies and to equip and endow the educational institutions under control of the Synods.

5. That the Executive Committee assist the Synods to arouse the members within their bounds to a full appreciation of the responsibility of the Church for the boys and girls who are attending the State institutions of learning. That the Committee labor together with the Synods to the end that a well equipped church, with an efficient pastor, may be sustained by the side of each of the State institutions of higher learning.

Third. That our Executive Committee be directed to undertake among our soldiers in cantonments, a campaign of education, seeking to enlist students for the gospel ministry, in order that their minds may be turned definitely to this work during their service and upon their discharge. That our Executive Committee invite the co-operation of the Army Y. M. C. A .and the Churches of the Reformed faith in America in such a campaign.

Fourth. That so far as practicable, our Committee's arrangement of the Christmas program be used in our Sabbath schools.

Fifth. That pastors, elders, Sunday schools, societies and families be urged to give the fullest and most active co-operation in this work.

Sixth. That our Executive Committee be directed to secure actuarial information of ministers and their families in order that the cost of a Pension System may be ascertained.

Seventh. Rejoicing in the progress of our educational work, the Committee be urged to give the largest possible help to Presbyteries and Synods in meeting the urgent need of institutions for equipment and endowment. In doing this the Assembly would again call the attention of its constituency to the critical condition of many of our educational institutions, especially our colleges.

Eighth. Because of this we recommend that a day of prayer for schools and colleges and the youth gathered within them be observed on the last Sabbath in February, together with the preceding week.

Ninth. That the women's societies of the Church be especially asked to lend the full measure of their co-operation in setting forth the claims of the gospel ministry and mission service before our boys and girls.

Tenth. We further recommend that Reverend H. H. Sweets, D. D., be re-elected Executive Secretary for a term of three years.

2. That Messrs. Brainard Lemon and Jas. Quarles be re-elected to succeed themselves on the Executive Committee.

3. That the sum of $280,000.00 be apportioned to this cause for the year 1919 and 1920.

Eleventh. That the Permanent Advisory Committee on Education be composed of the following: Henry H. Sweets, R. H. McCaslin, W. S. Lacy, Tilden Scherer, J. G. Venable, J. S. Lyons, W. McF. Alexander, M. E. Melvin, D. S. Gage, W. J. Martin, S. C. Byrd, Wm. Dinwiddie, T. S. Clyce, W. W. Moore, D. P. McGeachy, W. B. Morrison.

Alternates—E. E. Smith, David Park, John VanLear, J. R. Dobyns, L. Ross Lynn, E. L. Hill, D. F. Wilkinson, T. W. Raymond, John J. Rice, C. G. Vardell, D. M. Douglas, C. E. Diehl, A. L. Randall, P. C. Clark, H. B. Moore, Herman Jones.

Twelfth. That in commemoration of the centennial of the organized work of education the first evening of the next General Assembly be set apart for addresses on this department of the Church's work.

Respectfully submitted,

RUTHERFORD E. DOUGLAS, Chairman.

BIBLE CAUSE

The Standing Committee on Bible Cause made the following report, which was adopted:

Your Committee on Bible Cause beg leave to submit the following report:

We realize that no cause of the entire Church is of more vital importance than that of the Bible itself, since it is that instrument of the Holy Spirit by which alone souls can be regenerated and saved.

After carefully considering the report of the Ad-Interim Committee appointed by the Assembly of 1917, it was unanimously decided to approve said report, which is found in the Appendix to the Minutes.

At the request of Dr. W. L. Lingle we recommend the substitution of the name of Dr. Russell Cecil as Chairman of the Permanent Committee on Bible Cause, otherwise the same committee be reappointed.

Respectfully submitted,

A. S. Allen, Chairman.

A paper offered by Rev. Thos. D. Wesley was taken from the Select Committee on Union and Fderation and placed in the hands of the Ad Interim Commitee on Federation to be selected.

Foreign Correspondence

The Standing Committee on Foreign Correspondence made the following report which was adopted:

Your Committee has read with care and with pleasure the report of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America. We feel honored that the important office of the Chairman of the Executive Committee is occupied by a man of our own Assembly, one whom we ourselves have chosen as Moderator. We note with gratification that the Council is aiding effectively in the great work of ministering to the bleeding body of a suffering world and is also holding clearly before it the peculiar task of the Church, namely, the redeeming of the souls of men.

A communication from the United Committee on Christian Service for Relief in France and Belgium, and a letter from the Reformed Church of France have been placed in our hands, in which the request is made that our Assembly appoint a Committee to take up with our churches the matter of this relief work and to co-operate with the United Committee.

We recommend that such a Committee be appointed and that it be instructed to render similar service in reference to the other war-stricken peoples. We nominate the following Committee: Rev. W. W. Moore, D. D., Chairman; Rev. R. C. Reed, D. D., and Rev. W. S. Jacobs, D. D.

We have received an overture from Harmony Presbytery asking our Assembly "to discharge the Committee on Conference with the Presbyterian Church U. S. A., and to cease agitation of the question of organic union." In answer, we would refer Harmony Presbytery to the action of this Assembly, by which it has continued and enlarged the Committee of Conference on Federation.

We have received a communication from Auburn Theological Seminary, asking our Assembly to appoint a delegate to attend the exercises in celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of the founding of that institution. We recommend that this invitation be accepted and that Rev. Harris E. Kirk, D. D., of Baltimore, Md., be appointed.

Respectfully submitted,

Dunbar H. Ogden, Chairman.

Message to the United States of America Assembly

The following message to the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., in session at Columbus, Ohio, was adopted:

Resolved, That the Assembly send to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America the following telegram:

"Our Assembly has this day adopted the following:

" 'The Assembly approves the report of our Ad-Interim Committee on Conference and continues a Committee as requested by the Committee on Conferences of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

" 'The Assembly goes on record as opposing organic union at this time, but as approving the idea of a federal union of all the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches of the United States.'

"That the Committee be enlarged so as to include one member from each Synod.

"That these committeemen be selected by the Commissioners present from the Presbyteries constituting their respective Synods.

"That this Committee select its own Chairman."

JAMES I. VANCE, Moderator,
THOS. H. LAW, Stated Clerk.

Recess was then taken until 8:15 P. M.

EVENING SESSION

8:15 P. M.

The Assembly met and engaged in a popular meeting in the interest of Home Missions, Rev. Geo. Summey, D. D., presiding.

The Standing Committee on Home Missions made a report. Pending a motion to adopt the report, the Assembly heard brief addresses from Rev. S. L. Morris, D. D., and Mr. W. F. Semple of Durant. A special feature of the meeting was the presence of students from the Goodland Indian School and the Indian ministers and a number of members of the churches in Indian Presbytery.

The Assembly then adjourned, closing with prayer until 9:00 A. M. to-morrow.

SIXTH DAY.

WEDNESDAY, May 22, 1918.

The Assembly met at 9:00 A. M. and was opened with prayer by Rev. A. E. Spencer.

The minutes of yesterday's sessions were approved.

The Assembly ordered that the yea and nay vote taken on the adoption of Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., substitute for the majority and minority reports be recorded in the minutes in connection with that vote.

PUBLISHING BOOKS BY OUR OWN AUTHORS

An overture offered by Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., touching the publication by the Executive Committee of Publication of a book each year and appropriating $500 for this purpose was adopted. It is as follows:

OVERTURE

I hereby overture the Assembly to authorize its Committee of Publication to use each year $500.00 or so much thereof as shall be necessary in this way to guarantee the publication of those books of a religious or theological nature that in the judgment of a carefully selected committee shall be most worthy of publication.

The purpose of this shall be to encourage the writing of such books by the people of our Church.

The terms of the competition and all details connected with the matter to be left in the hands of our Publication Committee.

The book to be published each year shall be the work of a minister or member of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

J. M. WELLS.

DR. H. G. HILL'S EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

Rev. H. G. Hill, D. D., was granted permission to place in the minutes a statement explaining his vote yesterday on the matter of Union and Federation. It is as follows:

Resolved, That I not only approve but heartily commend the report of our Ad-Interim Committee in their conference with that of the General Assembly of the U. S. A. Church, deem them diligent and faithful to duty, and regard their report as an illuminating and historic document that we gladly preserve in the Appendix to our Minutes, and I will take steps to have it circulated among our people that they may have clear conceptions of the points of differences between the Northern Presbyterian Church and our own.

(Signed) H. G. Hill.

Audits

The Standing Committee on Audits made the following report which was adopted:

Your Committee on Audits begs leave to submit the following report:

Audit No. 1—We have examined the report of Edwin F. Willis, Treasurer of the Executive Committee of Foreign Missions for the year ending March 31, 1918. We find that the Treasurer's books have been audited by Allen B. Fisher, certified public accountant, who certifies that the financial statement as rendered is correct.

Audit No. 2—We have examined the statement of receipts and disbursements of A. N. Sharp, Treasurer of the Executive Committee of Home Missions for the same period, as prepared and certified to by Alonzo Richardson & Co., certified public accountants, Atlanta, Ga., whose certificate also covers an examination of the books for the same period.

Audit No. 3—We have examined the very complete statement of receipts and disbursements and financial statement of the Executive Committee of Christian Education and Ministerial Relief for the year ending March 31, 1918, as compiled and certified to by J. C. Mahon, member American Institute of Accountants, whose certificate covers a thorough audit and verification of the books.

Audit No. 4—There has been submitted to us a certificate signed by H. Swineford, B. C. Wherry and Edwin Pleasants, auditing committee appointed by the last General Assembly, which states that they have, in conjunction with E. A. Leitch, accountant, examined the accounts of Mr. R. E. Magill, Treasurer of the Executive Committee of Publication, and attesting the correctness of the report submitted to the Assembly. Said report has not been placed in our hands.

Audit No. 5—We have examined the report of the Treasurer of the General Assembly, which is certified to by H. E. Ravenel and E. S. Tennent, examining committee appointed by the last General Assembly.

Audit No. 6—We have examined the report of John R. Pharr, Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of the General Assembly, for the year ending March 31, 1918, which is approved by J. H. Wearn and John B. Ross, auditing committee. Mr. John B. Ross has served on the committee in the place of R. A. Dunn, who was recommended by the last General Assembly, which substitution, we assume, will meet with the approval of the General Assembly.

All of the reports above enumerated seem to be in order.

Relief Fund

There has been submitted to us a statement of the Relief Fund as of December 31, 1917, signed by Perry S. Allen, President of the Presbyterian Ministers' Fund for Life Insurance, which we presume is forwarded for information.

Communication from Orange Presbytery

We have given most careful consideration to this matter and assume the adjustment of expenses of commissioners suggested therein is due to a misunderstanding of the methods in force. We can see no reason why the rule of the Assembly regulating expense accounts of commissioners should be waived or departed from in this instance, and we therefore recommend:

First. That the two commissioners in attendance from Orange Presbytery file with the Mileage Committee their expense statements on the regular form.

Second. That the aggregate of these two expense accounts be credited to the assessments of Orange Presbytery.

Third. That the Orange Presbytery be requested to remit to the Treasurer the balance of their assessment, as shown by his records.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. We recommend that all examining committees appointed by the last General Assembly be reappointed for the ensuing year.

2. We cordially approve the plan adopted by some of the committees of having the books of treasurers audited by and their reports submitted to the Assembly certified to by practicing accountants and we suggest that this be adopted as the policy of the General Assembly, to be adhered to whenever it is feasible, and we recommend that this method be required of the four important committees, viz.: Executive Committee of Foreign Missions, Executive Committee of Home Missions, Executive Committee of Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, and Executive Committee of Publication.

3. We further recommend that the $25.00 remitted by the Texas-Mexican Presbytery be accepted as payment in full for their assessment for the year ending March 31, 1918, and that they be advised that a tentative assessment of $35.00 will be made for the ensuing year, which amount they are at liberty to increase should their financial condition so warrant.

4. Owing to the wartime conditions and the action of this Assembly in adding to the membership of at least one Ad-Interim Committee, we do not anticipate any decrease in the expense account of the Assembly during the ensuing year and would suggest that the assessment per capita remain six cents.

J. E. HUTCHINSON, Chairman.

COUNCIL OF REFORMED CHURCHES IN AMERICA

The Standing Committee on the Minutes of the Council of the Reformed Churches made the following report which was adopted:

Your Committee on the Minutes of the Council of the Reformed Churches in America holding the Presbyterian System would respectfully report that the copy of the Minutes of the meeting held in Philadelphia, Pa., March 19-20, 1918, has been examined and the various requests and recommendations carefully considered.

In accordance with the action of previous Assemblies concerning closer co-operation in the work and the administrative agencies of the Churches of the Council, your Committee would recommend:

1. That the suggested Conferences of the Secretaries of Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Christian Education and work among colored people, to consider how the agencies of the constituent Churches can best co-operate in their work, be referred to the respective Committees for consideration and action.

2. That the Assembly view with favor the suggestion of the Council under the head of Ministerial Relief concerning "the reciprocal recognition by each of the boards of the constituent Churches of full credit in each for the years of service rendered in any one of them where a minister is transferred from one Church to another," and that this matter be referred to the Executive Committee of Ministerial Relief for its investigation and such action as in its judgment is considered wise.

3. That the special attention of the Assembly be directed to the statement in the report of the Council concerning the great shortage of ministers and of ministerial candidates, due to so many ministers being engaged in some form of war work and the enlistment of so many students in the army and navy, and to the suggestion of the Council that consecrated laymen be more largely used in the conduct of religious services and in the supply of vacant churches.

4. That the plan of Federal Union for all the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in America submitted by the Council for the consideration of this Assembly be referred to the Conference Committee on Federation with the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

5. That the following persons be elected to membership on the Council for a term of three years:

Principals

Rev. J. S. Lyons, D. D. ..... Atlanta, Ga.
Rev. J. F. Cannon, D. D. ..... St. Louis, Mo.
Hon. T. C. McRae ..... Prescott, Ark.
Mr. R. A. Brand ..... Wilmington, N. C.

Alternates

Rev. R. H. McCaslin, D. D. ..... Montgomery, Ala.
Rev. R. E. Douglas, D. D. ..... Macon, Ga.
Mr. W. R. McDaniel ..... Milford, Texas
Mr. G. W. Taylor ..... Greenville, S. C.

6. That the Treasurer of the Assembly be directed to pay seventy-five dollars ($75.00), the amount apportioned to our Church, for the expenses of the Council.

Respectfully submitted,

Homer McMillan, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on the Sabbath and Family Religion made a report. This report was recommitted and Rev. Melton Clark, D. D., and Rev. W. R. Dobyns, D. D., were added to the Committee.

Church Societies

The Standing Committee on Church Societies made the following report which was adopted:

Your Committee has reviewed with much interest and gratification the report of the Superintendent of the Woman's Auxiliary, which has been placed in your hands. Continued development, increased gifts, and a deepening of the spiritual life of the women engaged in this work are notable from this report. Mrs. Winsborough, the able and untiring Superintendent of the Auxiliary, deserves our fullest commendation for her leadership of this department of our work, which is under the direction of the Supervisory Committee, selected from the four Executive Committees.

This year's report is the best financially, spiritually, and in all its activities, of the six years' existence of the Auxiliary. The times have challenged our women to the highest consecration of all their resources, and they have made a noble response. They have rendered efficient service in Red Cross and other patriotic work, and have not allowed this work to diminish their interest and activity in spiritual things. A deeper spirit of prayer has seized our women, and all their work is pervaded by a seriousness never known before. We note with pleasure the success of the conferences held under the direction of the Auxiliary, especially the conference for colored women at Tuscaloosa, Alabama. In this connection, we express our sorrow and deep sense of loss in the death of Mrs. John Little, who rendered such valuable aid here. We pray that her devotion to bettering the home life of our colored people may be shed abroad in all our hearts.

Your Committee finds gratification in the educational work of the Auxiliary, through its literature, which is equalled by no other Church for spiritual power and fresh information.

We are pleased to see an awakening of interest in the work of Young People's Societies, and the Auxiliary's activities in that direction.

Your Committee recommends:

1. The organization of the Auxiliary in the local church, and the co-ordination of other societies thereto, using as a model, the constitution furnished by the central office. The results, as have been proven, are: More women interested in missions, a widening of interest to include all the causes, a definite financial responsibility, a more equitable distribution of the church work devolving upon the women, and placing at the disposal of the pastor a well-organized body of workers, pledged to activity in all lines of church work.

2. That all encouragement be given the conferences for women and young people, and that we extend our hearty co-operation, in securing the best possible attendance.

3. We would renew the approval of the Christian Endeavor, Senior, Intermediate and Junior, as well as The Westminster League and Covenanters. We would recommend that you stress the importance of the Junior Missionary Societies; that all of these societies be under the control of the sessions of the local churches. We would further recommend that the literature and programs prepared by the Woman's Auxiliary, be used as a course of study for the Junior Missionary Societies. The present and future have unusual opportunities and responsibilities for our youth, and we believe that unusual effort should be made for their best religious training.

4. That specially careful observance this year be made of Foreign Missions and Home Mission Week and of the Day of Prayer for the Youth in our schools and colleges, by our Women's Societies.

5. That while we commend most heartily the patriotic service rendered by our women and young people, we urge a thorough continuance of Mission Study Classes to help sustain and advance our work of evangelizing the world and of thrusting out laborers into the world's whitened harvest field.

FOREIGN CORRESPONDENCE

The Standing Committee on Foreign Correspondence made a supplemental report which was adopted and is as follows:

There have been placed in the hands of your Committee, certain papers bearing upon the observance of a day of prayer and supplication in behalf of our Nation, that our people may turn with contrite heart to God, seeking His guidance and blessing in this hour.

We recommend that this Assembly call upon its Churches and individual members to thus observe May 30th, 1918, the day set apart by the President of the United States, as a season of "public humiliation, prayer and fasting—with the offering of fervent supplication to Almighty God for the safety and welfare of our cause, His blessing on our arms, and a speedy restoration of an honorable and lasting peace to the nations of the earth."

There has also been placed in our hands a telegram from Mr. Herbert Hoover, Director of the Food Administration, asking our Assembly to endorse the special appeal which is to be issued on May 26th, requesting all of our people so far as circumstances permit, to abstain from the use of wheat and wheat products in any form until the next harvest.

We recommend that this Assembly hereby call upon all of its members to fulfil to the very utmost their solemn duty as citizens of the United States, and that we urge our people to observe most conscientiously the request of the Food Administration.

Respectfully submitted,

DUNBAR H. OGDEN, Chairman.

The Overture from the Presbytery of Washburn which was carried over from the last Assembly was placed in the hands of the Standing Committee on Bills and Overtures to make answer at this Assembly.

Home Missions

The unfinished business, the report of the Standing Committee on Home Missions, was taken up and considered seriatim and amended, and adopted as a whole, and is as follows:

The Committee has had before it the Minutes of the Executive Committee of Home Missions, the Annual Report of the Executive Committee, Overtures from the Executive Committee and the Presbyteries of Atlanta, Concord, Ebenezer, Louisville and Mecklenburg, and certain historical statements concerning Oklahoma Presbyterian College at Durant. It has also called in consultation Secretaries Morris and McMillan, and Drs. D. H. Ogden and W. H. Miley.

It is noted with satisfaction that during the year just closed the total receipts of the Executive Committee amounted to $233,990.73, or $40,627.25 more than last year, breaking all records, and the increase coming from every source, churches, Sabbath schools, societies, individuals and legacies; that all indebtedness has been wiped out; that in connection with the Home Mission work 5,351 persons were received into the Church on profession of faith, and 2,485 by certificate, far surpassing the record of any previous year; that while in the past seventeen years the growth of the entire Church has been 66 per cent., the growth in the Home Mission Synods of Arkansas, Florida, Louisiana, Oklahoma and Texas has been 164 per cent.

The Home Mission work has been administered in eight departments, as follows:

1. Eveangelism; 2. Sustentation; 3. The Frontier; 4. Mountain Work; 5. Foreign Speaking People; 6. Colored Evangelization; 7. Mission Schools; 8. Church Erection.

In Evangelism, there have been three Synodical Evangelists, twelve Presbyterial Evangelists, and about fifty others whose work was of a similar nature, and in Special Evangelism a Superintendent and three General Evangelists. The Committee notes and records with pleasure the faithfulness and abundance in labors of Dr. J. E. Thacker, Rev. G. W. Belk, Rev. G. F. Robertson, and Dr. W. H. Miley, the General Evangelists, as well as the devotion and success of all the other workers in Home Missions.

In Sustentation, the Committee's aid has nourished into life or sustained many infant or feeble churches which, but for this, would have disappeared.

In the Frontier Synods like Arkansas, Florida, Louisiana, Oklahoma and Texas, have been helped. Many points have become either self-sustaining or approximately so. It is noteworthy that Oklahoma Synod has recently led all the Synods in the Church's great drive for benevolence.

In Mountain Work, the largest single sum has been appropriated, 55 Mission points have been manned, and the Gospel preached to more than 65,000 people, while the schools and Sunday schools have been full of pupils.

In work among Foreign Speaking People, Bohemians, Chinese, Cubans, Hungarians, Indians, Italians, Mexicans and Syrians have been reached and taught and evangelized.

In Colored Evangelization, churches and missions and schools have been maintained, and a special Evangelist employed.

In Mission Schools, 31 in all have been supported in whole or in part. In this connection, your Committee calls special attention to the Oklahoma Presbyterian College, at Durant. It notes with pride and profound gratitude to God, the great work that has been done, and is being done by this institution. It feels that President Morrison and the Board of Trustees deserve the commendation and encouragement of this Assembly and of the whole Church, in their notable Home Mission enterprise. The College is greatly hampered and embarrassed by the lack of adequate equipment and by a debt of $18,000.00. To liquidate this debt and to add a new dormitory and auditorium which are sorely needed, the sum of $60,000.00 is most urgently necessary. The generous people of Durant and of the Synod of Oklahoma are willing to undertake to raise $30,000.00 of this amount, in payments distributed over a period of three years. This Assembly should give them every encouragement in this enterprise, and on its part call upon the friends of Christian Education throughout the Church to contribute the sum of $30,000.00, in payments distributed over a similar period.

In Church Erection, by donation, loans, and equipment, less has been done, owing to past indebtedness and the demands for living salaries, than could have been wished. The permanent equipment of Home Missions now embrace property valued at $402,660.00.

There are many unmet needs. The conditions now prevailing make imperative larger salaries for the workers, fuller equipment, and the clearing away of such obligations as that of Oklahoma Presbyterian College. The attention of the Church is called to the fact that special gifts not included in the budget sometimes interfere with the regular work. The Executive Committee's great need is for the full 27 per cent. of all the Assembly's benevolent collections. With this amount in hand it would be able to do all its work upon a better basis.

The Executive Committee's economy of administration is to be commended. All salaries and expenses are given in detail in the Annual Report. The problem of the salaries of General Evangelists is presented below, in the recommendations as to replies to Overtures.

The Church should be advised to get itself ready for the conditions which will prevail after the war. The present status must be fully sustained. More must be provided for in the early future.

The Executive Committee is to be commended for the part which it has taken, and especially is its Treasurer, Mr. A. N. Sharp, to be commended for the part which he has taken in the Church's war work, and the Committee is urged to continue this, so far as asked for by the War Work Council.

The Standing Committee makes the following recommendations, based upon the foregoing facts, information, report of Permanent Committee of Systematic Beneficence, and Overtures before it:

1. That the Assembly approve the Minutes of the Executive Committee and express its appreciation of the diligence and faithfulness of the Committee's members and Secretaries.

2. That the Committee's part in the promotion of the recent Three Million Dollar Campaign be approved; that its action in connection with War Work be approved; and that it be authorized to co-operate in every way practicable, so far as it may be asked to do so, in the further pressing of these great enterprises.

3. That the Assembly call to the Church to advance, to meet the great needs of the country, the demands for new undertakings, and the opportunities that increasingly challenge its devotion; and that in the presence of these great needs and of the conditions which are likely to follow the war, the largest possible use be made of qualified laymen for such phases of the Home Mission Work as they may be able to compass.

4. That the observance of Home Mission Week, November 17-24, be urged upon all the Congregations, and that the attention of all our people be specially called at that time to the need for a larger equipment for Home Mission Work, and that the time be used as an opportunity for voluntary offerings for such equipment, and that such churches as do not use the Every-Member-Canvass be urged to present the claims of the Assembly's Home Missions in June and November.

5. That all our ministers be requested to preach to their people on the cause and work of Home Missions, during Home Mission Week, in November, or as near thereto as possible, and also in the month of June.

6. That the Assembly urge upon pastors and sessions the duty and privilege of intercession in behalf of the Assembly's Home Missions, that the cause may be more thoroughly wrought into the prayer life of the Church, in order to receive more sympathetic and substantial support; and that the formation and conduct of Mission Study Classes be given special attention.

7. That the Assembly accept the recommendation of the Systematic Beneficence Committee, and that it apportion the sum of $570,000.00 from the hoped-for receipts of this year; that the Assembly emphasize the necessity of better pay for our Home Mission workers, and call upon our people to furnish the funds needed, urging that the claims of the Home Mission Work be not overlooked nor confused with the many appeals of the day for relief and patriotic purposes.

8. That the Assembly reiterate the distinctive claim of the Assembly's Home Missions as distinguished from other Home Mission responsibility, and emphasize the necessity of pastors and sessions recognizing the obligation to meet their proportionate share of the support of this work by according it the full 27 per cent. recommended by the Committee on Systematic Beneficence, and repeatedly approved by the General Assembly.

9. That a vigorous effort be made to raise the $12,000.00 needed for a new dormitory, and the $18,000.00 needed to wipe out the remaining bonded indebtedness of Oklahoma Presbyterian College, making a total of $30,000.00 to be contributed by the entire Presbyterian Church in the United States, and that the Assembly earnestly appeal to churches, Sabbath Schools, societies, and the friends of Christian education throughout its entire territory, for an adequate equipment and support of this great missionary institution.

10. That the following nominations of the Systematic Beneficence Committee be approved: J. H. Patton, E. L. Hill, A. A. Little, J. S. Lyons, and Homer McMillan, be elected as members of the Executive Committee, as successors to themselves, for a term of three years; and John S. Foster, to fill out the unexpired term of John J. Eagan, resigned; and Rev. S. L. Morris, D. D., be elected Executive Secretary for three years.

11. That to the Overture of Augusta Presbytery, as to whether gifts to Nacoochee Institute, an institution owned and controlled by the Synod of Georgia, but aided by the Assembly's Committee of Home Missions, are to be counted as contributions to Assembly Home Missions, or as contributions to Synodical Home Missions, the following reply be given: Only such funds as are sent directly to the Executive Committee of Home Missions shall be counted as contributions to Assembly's Home Missions; and all funds sent directly to Nacoochee Institute shall be counted as contributions to Synodical Home Missions. In giving this reply the Assembly adds the following:

That 27 per cent. of contributions of Assembly's benevolences by provision of the General Assembly have been assigned to Assembly's Home Missions and should be sent to A. N. Sharp, Treasurer. If churches and societies desire to contribute extra amounts to Nacoochee they should be sent direct to that Institution, but should not be deducted from funds assigned to Assembly's Home Missions.

12. That to the Overtures of the Assembly's Executive Committee of Home Missions and the Presbyteries of Atlanta, Concord, Ebenezer, Louisville, and Mecklenburg, touching the Department of Evangelism, the Superintendency of Evangelism, the Committee that shall have charge of Evangelism, the appointment of Evangelists, and arrangement of places of labor of Evangelists, and the means and methods of providing for the maintenance of Special Evangelism in its Superintendency and in its field work, the following reply be made: The Assembly hereby directs that the Department of Evangelism be continued under the Executive Committee of Home Missions, being recognized and administered as one of the regular Departments of the Committee's work on an equal footing with the other Departments; that the Executive Committee stress the Department and its work as far as possible; that the Committee be given entire charge of this Department and its work, as to its methods, supervision, superintendents, appointments, selection of workers for field or office, payment of the same, and method of securing the funds for the support of the superintendence or field work; and that the Executive Committee be instructed by the Assembly to adequately finance the work of Evangelism.

GEORGE SUMMEY, Chairman.

It was made the first order for this afternoon to hear the report of the Standing Committee on Systematic Beneficence.

Recess was then taken for five minutes when the Assembly engaged in devotional exercises conducted by Rev. W. S. Jacobs, D. D.

Recess was then taken until 2:00 P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION

2:00 P. M.

The Assembly met and took up the order of the day, hearing the report of the Standing Committee on Systematic Beneficence.

The report was considered seriatim and pending final adoption was recommitted.

An Overture was presented by Rev. LeRoy Gresham, D. D., asking for information as to the crediting of gifts to mission schools. It was referred to the Standing Committee on Systematic Beneficence.

West Virginia	Ernest Thompson, D. D.

The Assembly approved these members and appointed Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., to call the Committee together.

Publication and Sabbath School Work

The Standing Committee on Publication and Sabbath School Work made the following report which was amended and adopted:

A review of the annual report of the Executive Committee of Publication shows that the year just closed has been one of the most fruitful in the entire history of this agency, and this in the face of adverse conditions due to the world war.

The sales department shows a substantial gain in distribution of both books and periodicals, and the significant fact is noted that there has been a marked increase in the demand for religious books and publications.

The Committee has issued during the year a number of books and tracts which form a distinct addition to the religious literature of the day, and valuable co-operation was rendered in promoting many enterprises in which our Church is vitally interested.

A great service has been rendered the Church in the compilation and publication of the new Hymn Book, "Life and Service Hymns," a collection of sacred music presenting a happy combination of the old classics and an attractive list of bright new music which make the book available for the Sunday School, the Young People's meetings, and the general services of the Church.

The Sunday School Extension was prosecuted under many difficulties, but the reports from the forty-two field workers who were employed for whole or part time indicate that their labors were richly blessed of God.

A summary of the visible results of the fifteen years activity of the Sunday School Extension Department of the Committee is most encouraging, and should persuade the Church to make a yet larger investment in this most fruitful field of effort which lies at the very foundation of our growth as a Church organization.

The donation of periodicals, books, Bibles, tracts and leaflets reached the large total of $31,340, or more than double that of any previous year. More than one thousand of our ministers and about fifteen hundred Missionary Societies received gifts of valuable books for their libraries; and about sixteen thousand children are in the Mission Sunday Schools which received donations of literature and other supplies.

The receipts for Sunday School Extension Work show a gain of about $7,400 over the previous year, but this fund must be largely increased if we meet our responsibility as a Church to the spiritually destitute young people within our territory.

The statistical summaries concerning Sunday Schools and Young People's Societies sent up by the Presbyteries are very incomplete this year, and reports from five Presbyteries are entirely missing. From the reports in hand the following data is compiled:

Sunday School Statistics for 1917-1918

Number Schools reported	2,843
Officers and Teachers	28,840
Pupils enrolled	217,169
Cradle Roll members	23,460
Home Department members	27,118
Total enrollment	300,076
Pupils added to Communion	8,783

Benevolent Contributions and Current Expenses

Foreign Missions	$ 38,821
Assembly's Home Missions	9,253
Synod's Home Missions	2,780
Presbytery's Home Missions	5,077
Congregational Home Missions	10,062
Christian Education and Ministerial Relief	10,496
Sunday School Extension	24,937
Schools and Colleges	5,004
Bible Cause	1,540
Orphans' Homes	55,309
Miscellaneous Benevolences	37,653
Total to Benevolent Causes	$200,932
Current Expenses of Schools	189,049
Total	$389,981

Statistics of Young People's Societies for 1917-1918

Number of Societies reported	1,273
Total membership	31,959

To Foreign Missions	$ 12,239
To Assembly's Home Missions	2,867
To Synod's Home Missions	1,485
To Presbytery's Home Missions	1,684
To Congregational Home Missions	1,501
To Christian Education and Ministerial Relief	826
To Sunday School Extension	844
To Bible Cause	295
To Orphans' Homes	3,157
To Miscellaneous Benevolences	8,076
To Current Expenses (including support of local Churches)	8,734
Total to all causes	$ 42,562

Although the data are incomplete, it appears that the Sunday Schools gave last year $200,932 for Benevolences, while they spent for their own expenses $189,049, showing that they have reached and exceeded the goal, "As much for others as for ourselves." The Schools have gone up from $26,000 in benevolent gifts in 1902 to the splendid total of $200,000 last year, and their example should inspire the Church to undertake to make a similar advance.

The reports indicate that in forty-six Presbyteries literature other than our own is used in the Sunday Schools, while only twenty-four Presbyteries report the exclusive use of our own Sunday School publications.

The training of our young people for efficient Christian service should have a larger place in the plans of the Church, and we note with pleasure the marked increase in the number of Christian Endeavor and other Societies reported in our Churches; and these forms of organization and activity are again commended to our sessions as providing an effective method for developing the spiritual life of our young people.

Recommendations

(1) That $75,000.00 be raised during 1919-20 for the work of Sunday School Extension, and that Presbyteries, Church Sessions and Pastors make a sustained effort to educate our people as to the importance of this work and secure from every Church, Sunday School and Society an offering for this cause.

(2) That our people give the depositories at Richmond, Va., and Texarkana, Ark.-Tex., a more liberal patronage, and that pastors be urged to call the attention of their congregations to the facilities of the Committee to furnish wholesome and helpful literature and to explain that the profits of the business are devoted to the extension work of the Church.

(3) That the sessions and pastors again be enjoined to see that the splendid course of Uniform Lesson Helps published by our Committee and edited by approved writers of our own Church be used in our schools to the exclusion of periodicals of a doubtful or harmful character.

(4) That our own course of Departmental Graded Lesson helps, which will on October 1st be complete for all grades and departments be adopted in all our schools which prefer to use a separate lesson for each department; and the Assembly would again warn our sessions against the danger of putting into the hands of our young people publications not edited by writers of our own selection.

(5) That the Presbyterial Committees of Sunday School work be requested to arrange for Sunday School Institutes and Conferences where our workers may be instructed in modern methods of organization and activities, and where possible delegates should be sent to our Summer Conferences at Montreat, N. C., Kerrville, Texas, Jackson, Miss., and Lewisburg, W. Va.

(6) That our teachers and officers may become more efficient, they are urged to take the training provided in the new Teacher Training Course, "Trained Workers," and where study classes cannot be organized, individual workers should take the correspondence course provided by our Committee.

(7) That our churches be urged to establish outpost Mission Sunday Schools, using members who need definite duties to develop their Christian life and thus meet the duty of giving the gospel to neglected people at our very doors.

(8) That the records of the Committee, which are full and carefully kept, be approved as written.

Overtures

There have been placed in our hands six overtures, to which the following answers are made:

(No. 21). From the Presbytery of Atlanta, asking that the Committee of Publication at Richmond, Va., be authorized to establish a distributing station in Atlanta, Ga. After careful consideration and consultation, it has been discovered that this venture would prove very expensive, with little hope of any increase in income and an actual loss of time in delivery of literature; and therefore the Committee recommends that the overture be answered in the negative.

(No. 22). In answer to an overture from the Synod of Appalachia, requesting a change in the caption "Christian Education and Ministerial Relief" to "Ministerial Education and Relief," because of the confusion with "Schools and Colleges," the Committee recommends that it be answered in the negative.

(No. 23). In answer to an overture from the Presbytery of Ouachita, asking that the blanks for the sessional reports be made of such mechanical form as to be used in a standard typewriter without folding, and that the grade of paper used be such as to allow for erasures and corrections, the Committee recommends that the overture be referred to the Committee of Publication for their information and with instruction to conform to the request as far as practicable.

(No. 24). In answer to an overture from the Presbytery of Paris, asking that Rally Day be changed to the last Sabbath in September, the Assembly answers that the first Sunday in October was established in 1900 as the most suitable date for Rally Day in the schools of our Assembly, and various attempts to change the date have proven unsatisfactory to our schools and detrimental to the cause of Sunday School Extension. We therefore answer this overture in the negative and direct that the first Sunday in October remain as our Rally Day date.

(Nos. 25 and 26). In answer to overtures 25 and 26 from the Presbyteries of Mecklenburg and East Hanover, asking the General Assembly to instruct the Committee on Publication to include in its standards of efficiency for the Sunday School a definite and ample credit for a systematic plan of memorizing the Bible, catechisms and hymns, the Committee recommends that the overture be answered in the affirmative.

(No. 27). That the overture of Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., and others, asking that the Committee of Publication be authorized to expend $500.00 or less each year in publishing approved books of a theological or religious nature written by members of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, be answered in the affirmative.

(No. 28). In answer to the overture asking that a column be added to statistical reports for offerings to War Work, we recommend that the Committee of Publication be requested to provide a special space in sessional report blanks for gifts for our own War Work Committee, and that clerks of Presbyteries be directed to add as a footnote on the Presbyterial Summary blank the total of such gifts, and that the grand total be printed in the Assembly Minutes Summary.

It is ordered that all contributions for Red Cross and Y. M. C. A. work which pass through the hands of the Treasurer of a Church shall be included in the column for miscellaneous.

WM. STATES JACOBS, Chairman.

SYSTEMATIC BENEFICENCE

The report of the Standing Committee on Systematic Beneficence as amended was adopted as a whole and is as follows:

Your Standing Committee on Systematic Beneficence would respectfully report as follows:

The following papers came into our hands, namely, the Annual Report of the Permanent Committee on Systematic Beneficence, the Annual Report of the Stewardship Committee, Report of the Superintendent of the Woman's Auxiliary, the Statistical Report of the Systematic Beneficence from all the Presbyteries, together with overture hereinafter dealt with.

THE PERMANENT COMMITTEE ON SYSTEMATIC BENEFICENCE

The Eighth Annual Report of the Systematic Beneficence Committee shows earnest and diligent effort on their part to promote the interests of the Kingdom committed to them.

The summary of gifts to the Assembly's causes for the year of 1917 and 1918, as reported by the Presbyteries, is as follows:

Foreign Missions	$ 587,670 00
Assembly's Home Missions	166,174 00
Synods' Home Missions	84,840 00
Presbyterial Home Missions	263,504 00
Congregational Home Missions	129,787 00
Christian Education and Ministerial Relief	123,608 00
Sunday School Extension	49,934 00
Schools and Colleges	259,177 00
Bible Cause	20,797 00
Orphans' Homes	150,707 00
Miscellaneous Benevolences	402,533 00
Total Benevolences	$ 2,238,731 00

Your Committee begs to recommend the following:

First. That the Permanent Committee be thanked for their labor of love and the service which they have rendered the Church.

Second. That the Assembly decline to appoint the Ad-Interim Committee looking toward the purchase of a building to house all the Executive Committees and looking toward the appointment of a central Executive Committee to have full charge of all branches of the Assembly's work.

Third. That the following amounts be apportioned for the Assembly's causes for 1919-1920:

Foreign Missions	$1,140,000
Home Missions	570,000
Christian Education and Ministerial Relief	290,000
Publication and Sunday School Extension	78,000
Bible Cause	22,000
Total	$2,100,000

Fourth. That the following percentages apply to any undesignated gifts:

Foreign Missions	55½%
Home Missions	27 %
Christian Education and Ministerial Relief	12½%
Publication and Sunday School	4 %
Bible Cause	1 %

Fifth. That the Assembly approve the plan for the raising of $12,000,000 for Beneficence during the next three years.

Sixth. We recommend that the Permanent Committee on Systematic Beneficence be instructed to have a special and thorough efficiency survey made by an experienced firm of auditors who shall examine carefully and thoroughly the books and business methods of all the Executive Committees and their accounting systems.

Said auditors should report fully and in detail in reference to all the business transactions of the Committee showing efficiency of employes in the various departments, items of expense properly chargeable to each department, make recommendations which would insure greater efficiency, promptness and accuracy in the conduct of the business, and suggest changes that may seem desirable.

The report of said auditors should be presented to the Permanent Committee on Systematic Beneficence at its mid-winter meeting.

Seventh. That the Assembly appropriate the sum of $250.00, or so much as may be needed thereof, for such expenses of the Permanent Committee of Systematic Beneficence over and above the expenses of members attending the meeting of the Committee.

We recommend that the following be appointed members of the Executive Committee of Publication: Rev. F. T. McFaden, D. D., and Rev. W. L. Lingle, D. D., be elected to succeed themselves for a period of three years, and that Rev. E. C. Caldwell and Rev. O. E. Buchholz be added to the Committee, the class to be determined by the Executive Committee.

Eighth. That the following persons be appointed to fill vacancies of Synods where same have occurred on the Permanent Committee:

Synod	Principal	Alternate
Alabama	Rev. David Park	Rev. Samuel E. Hodges, D. D.
Georgia	W. M. Everett	J. R. McCain
Kentucky	Rev. T. M. Hawes	Rev. W. H. Hopper
Louisiana	Rev. Jasper K. Smith, D. D.	Rev. U. D. Mooney, D. D.
North Carolina	Rev. E. R. Leyburn, D. D.	Rev. C. F. Myers
Tennessee	W. H. Raymond	J. P. McCallie
Virginia	Rev. F. T. McFaden, D. D.	Rev. H. J. Williams
West Virginia	J. E. Allen	E. L. Bell
Missouri	Rev. C. R. Nisbet, D. D.	Rev. A. A. Wallace, D. D.

Stewardship Committee

The excellent service rendered by this Committee deserves the hearty thanks of this Assembly. The success of the three million dollar drive was in no small measure due to the faithful and efficient work of this Committee.

We recommend:

First. The Rev. R. L. Walkup, Secretary of the Committee, be commended for his splendid service and leadership in this important department of our Church's life and activity.

Second. That the Assembly express its thanks to Mr. J. B. Spillman, of Columbia, S. C., for the vision he has brought our Church in the matter of Christian Stewardship and for his liberal investments of time and means for the promotion of the business interests of the Kingdom.

Third. (a) That the Church's goal for the present year be Three Million Dollars for the benevolent work of the Assembly, Synod and Presbytery, and that the immediate task be the bringing of every local congregation, Presbytery and Synod up to this standard.

(b) That such assistance as may be necessary be employed for the carrying out and completion of this program.

(c) That each Synod, Presbytery and church be asked to maintain the organization which has so successfully carried forward the recent campaign, and that this splendid force of workers be used in completing the Three Million Dollar task.

(d) That Uniform Report Blanks of funds pledged, paid and remitted be prepared to be used by the local churches in making reports at least quarterly to Synod's Manager, through the Manager of the Presbytery, all reports to be finally sent to the office of the Stewardship Committee, Montreat, N. C.

(e) The General Assembly, recognizing the place of free will offering and thank offering in the economy of God, urge that, at suitable seasons, all sessions give opportunity for those who have not been reached by the Every-Member Canvass, and those who have been especially prospered of God, to exercise this privilege.

(f) That the Stewardship Committee be urged to continue its emphasis on the cultivation of Christian Stewardship Ideals throughout the Church, and seek ways and means to lead our people to a clearer recognition and a fuller practice of the Christian's obligation of stewardship toward God in possessions, personality and prayer.

(g) That through conferences and institutes and every other proper means the Church be urged to study efficiency in all lines of service, that she may show herself approved unto God.

(h) That during January, February and March, 1919, a campaign similar to the one of the past year be conducted and that all congregations be urged to participate in both the preparation and the actual carrying out of two by two, house to house, personal visitation canvass for pledges both for congregational and beneficent causes.

(i) That our program be the raising of Twelve Million Dollars for benevolences in a period of three years, beginning April 1, 1919, and that this part of the task be committed to the Assembly's Stewardship Committee.

(j) While the program is to embrace a number of years, there shall be an annual goal prepared and endorsed by the Courts of the Church one year in advance, as now.

Fourth. That the following amounts be the goal for each Synod of the Assembly causes for the year of 1919-1920; that forty per cent. more or less, be added to the same, by the Synods, for other causes within their bounds.

Alabama	$ 70,000 00
Appalachia	110,000 00
Arkansas	60,000 00
Florida	60,000 00
Georgia	160,000 00
Kentucky	100,000 00
Louisiana	77,000 00
Mississippi	70,000 00
Missouri	90,000 00
North Carolina	425,000 00

Oklahoma	15,000 00
Snedecor Memorial	3,000 00
South Carolina	175,000 00
Tennessee	100,000 00
Texas	175,900 00
Virginia	350,000 00
West Virginia	60,000 00
Total	$ 2,100,000 00

That the Secretary of the Stewardship Committee be instructed to apportion these amounts to the Presbyteries of each Synod, acting with the Systematic Beneficent Committee in each Synod.

Fifth. The following persons constitute the Stewardship Committee for the ensuing year:

Rev. E. W. Smith, Rev. H. H. Sweets, Rev. Homer McMillan, Mr. R. E. Magill, Dr. Jas. Lewis Howe, Mr. J. B. Spillman, Mr. R. A. Brand, Dr. A. E. Spencer, Dr. J. R. Dobyns.

Sixth. That the expenses incident to the meetings of this committee be paid from the Assembly's treasury in cases not provided for otherwise.

Seventh. We recommend that there be added to the sessional statistical report, blanks for the report of the Every Member Canvass. These blanks are to show the number of resident members, the number of members pledging to current expenses, the amount of current expenses, also the number of members pledging to benevolences, and amount to each benevolent cause. These figures are to be tabulated and printed in the spring minutes of the Presbyteries.

Woman's Auxiliary

The Sixth Annual Report of the Superintendent of the Woman's Auxiliary for 1917-18, which was placed in our hands, is an excellent summary of the splendid work done by our efficient superintendent, Mrs. W. C. Winsborough, and the noble body of women who are laborers with her and with us in the common task for our Lord.

1. It is worthy of note and commendation that seventeen thousand year books were used in the Women's Societies of our Church last year.

2. We believe the leaflets prepared by the Auxiliary for our Women on the many phases of Women's work and distributed during the year to be of great educational value, and they should be used freely throughout our Church.

3. It is gratifying to know that more than ten thousand women were enrolled in mission study classes during the past year, and it is hoped that one or more of these classes may be organized in every church in our Assembly where possible.

4. We commend the Auxiliary for its helpful co-operation with out War Work Council, and believe it can render a large and an important service in this connection.

5. The conference for negro women held at Tuscaloosa, Ala., annually is worthy of our support, as it is bringing to those less fortunate than ourselves the blessings of the gospel in a most practical way.

6. This Assembly approves our Auxiliary's holding membership in the interdenominational organization of the Woman's Missionary Work, viz.: "The Council of Women for Home Missions" and "The Federation of Women's Board of Foreign Missions."

7. It is with profound gratitude that this Assembly learns of the large number of Bible study classes formed among our women under the auspices of the Auxiliary, and the many prayer bands organized in this time of world turmoil and strife.

8. We recommend that this Assembly express its high appreciation of the splendid services our efficient Superintendent of the Auxiliary is rendering the Church at large, and assure her our hearty support and co-operation in the work committed to her.

Overtures

Your committee recommends the following action:

1. Overtures from Ebenezer Presbytery asking for an expert accountant for all Executive Committees, and one system of accounting, has been answered in the recommendations above.

2. Overture from Charleston Presbytery, asking for one treasurer for all Assembly's Causes; answered in the negative.

3. Overtures from Congaree Presbytery, asking Executive Committees to keep expenses within the limits of amounts subscribed in the campaign for benevolences, be answered in the Negative, but Committees are urged to keep within apportionments as far as possible.

4. Overture from Congaree Presbytery, asking that Synod's and not the Assembly's Systematic Beneficence Committee, fix the percentage of gifts to benevolences when Synod's and Presbytery's Causes are involved; answered in the negative.

5. Overture from Winchester Presbytery, regarding the financial methods of our Executive Committee; answered in the negative.

6. Overture from Ebenezer Presbytery regarding ad interim committee relative to consolidation of the advertising of our Executive Committees, and a bi-monthly publication of same, answered in the negative.

7. Overture from the Presbytery of Wilmington, asking the Assembly to inaugurate a special campaign through its Stewardship Committee, looking to the increase of pastors' salaries in small towns and country churches. We recommend the Assembly instruct the Presbyteries to take suitable action in this matter.

8. Overture from Transylvania Presbytery, asking that apportionments be made on the basis of resident membership rather than the whole membership. We recommend it be answered in the negative.

9. Overtures from Lexington Presbytery, asking that the per capita basis be discontinued. We recommend that these apportionments be left in the hands of the Stewardship Committee in consultation with the Systematic Beneficence Committees of the Synods.

10. Overture from Nashville Presbytery, asking the removal of all restrictions as to special times for presentation of the benevolent causes and to allow the representatives of the Executive Committees to use all the year for promoting interest and securing funds.

Answer. It is the judgment of this Assembly that the causes of the Assembly may be brought before the churches by our Secretaries at any time of the year, but that the months for general collections be continued as heretofore. This does not prevent sessions from permitting the presentation of the causes or collections being taken at any time they may elect.

11. Overture from Abingdon Presbytery, asking attention to the omission of the publication of the salaries of various superintendents and secretaries in the Assembly's Minutes.

Answer. The attention of the Stated Clerk is hereby called to this omission.

12. Overtures from the Presbytery of Lexington, asking a statement in reference to the tithe as a minimum offering acceptable unto God.

Answer. We refer the Presbytery to former actions of the General Assembly on the tithe, particularly its deliverance of 1916.

13. Overture from Rev. LeRoy Gresham, D. D. The undersigned would respectfully overture the General Assembly to make a deliverance on the following point: Where a mission school is under the control of a Board of Trustees appointed by a Presbytery, but not specifically under the Home Missions Committee of that Presbytery, should contributions to said school be classified under Presbyterial Home Missions or under Schools and Colleges?

LeRoy Gresham.

We recommend that it be classified under Schools and Colleges.

Respectfully submitted,

D. H. Scanlon, Chairman.

The Assembly then took recess until 8:00 P. M.

EVENING SESSION

The Assembly met.

The paper on Woman's Position in the Church, docketed by the last Assembly for consideration by this Assembly, was taken from the docket and laid on the table.

Y. M. C. A. Work

The following resolution offered by Rev. W. R. Dobyns, D. D. was adopted:

Resolved, That the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States puts on record their cordial endorsement of the great work being done in our Army and Navy by the Young Men's Christian Association, and commends it to the generous support of our people.

W. R. Dobyns.

Bills and Overtures

The Committee on Bills and Overtures completed its report which was adopted as a whole and is as follows:

Your Committee on Bills and Overtures would make the following report:

1. In answer to the overture from East Hanover Presbytery, asking the Assembly to "take steps to meet the crisis with which the coming of peace will confront the Church." we recommend:

First. That our Campaign Committee on Stewardship, whose province it is to "enlarge the resources of our Church, both in men and money," shall be charged with the duty of meeting any crisis that may arise, calling for more money and for the enlistment of more young men and women in the work of Christ at home and abroad.

Second. That the same committee be empowered to confer with our executive agencies as to methods of carrying on these great ends; and also to confer with like committees of other Christian bodies looking to the same end.

2. In answer to the overture from Lexington Presbytery, asking for the appointment of committees of co-operation in our Synods and Presbyteries for conferences with other Churches, we would recommend that a negative answer be given, in view of the fact that the Committees on Comity already authorized by a previous Assembly, cover the same ground and are to meet the same end.

3. In answer to the overture from East Hanover Presbytery, asking for the appointment of an Ad-Interim Committee, "To study the whole subject of non-resident membership in our churches," we recommend that the request be granted; and that the committee shall consist of Rev. W. L. Lingle, D. D., Rev. Russell Cecil, D. D., and Ruling Elder R. E. Magill; and we further recommend that the committee consider and suggest some plan by which the value and work, not only of our non-resident members, but also our non-attending members, may be conserved to the Church.

4. In answer to the Overture from Pee Dee Presbytery, asking whether it is right to ordain a Licentiate who purposes to enter the United States Army as a private, and hopes to do better work in the ranks because of his ordination, we would make the following answer: Such ordination is not in accordance with our law. (See Book of Church Order, par. 101; Alexander's Digest, Pars. 96 and 97.)

5. We would recommend the following answer to the overture from Rev. J. M. Holladay, asking whether it is right to ordain a Licentiate, in order to qualify him to apply for appointment as a Chaplain in the United States Army or Navy: "As every ecclesiastical office, according to the Scriptures, is a special charge, no man should be ordained unless it be to the performance of a definite work." Applying for an appointment is not the performance of a definite work. It is not right to so ordain. (Par. 101, Book of Church Order; Alexander's Digest, Pars. 96 and 97).

6. In answer to the overture from Lexington Presbytery, asking as to whether "a minister received from the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., is to be recorded as having been received from "another denomination," we recommend the following answer: Ministers received from any other evangelical ecclesiastical bodies, except the Presbyteries of our own Church, are to be so recorded. (Book of Church Order, par. 75; Alexander's Digest, pars. 75 and 61).

7. We would recommend that the overture of Mecklenburg Presbytery, asking for the amendment of paragraph 87, Book of Church Order, be answered in the negative.

8. We would recommend that the overtures from the Presbyteries of Tuscaloosa and Cherokee, asking the Assembly to change the method of defraying the expenses of commissioners to the Assembly, be answered in the negative.

9. We recommend that the overture from the Presbytery of Mecklenburg, touching woman's work in the Church, shall receive this answer: In view of the fact that the question mentioned is on the docket of this Assembly, your committee feels that the opening or reopening of the question is a matter for the Assembly itself to decide.

10. As to the protest from the Presbytery of Red River against the appointment of ad-interim committees, your Committee would recommend that no answer seems necessary to this protest.

11. We would recommend this answer to the overture from the Presbytery at Muhlenburg, asking whether "it is the prerogative of a Church Session to decline to grant a certificate upon request of a communicant of that church who is in good and regular standing, dismissing him to another church of our communion into whose bounds he has removed his residence." It is not the prerogative of a Church Session to decline to grant a certificate under the conditions mentioned. (See Case of W. S. Turner vs. The Synod of Georgia, Alexander's Digest, par. 1150).

12. We would suggest that this answer be given to the overture from the Presbytery of Muhlenburg, touching the ecclesiastical relation of a candidate for the ministry:

(1) The "care of the Presbytery" does not include an original jurisdiction further than the mere oversight and direction of a candidate's education and preparation for the ministry.

(2) The Presbytery, when it takes a candidate under its care, assumes oversight over his education and preparation, but no jurisdiction over his Christian life and character. Jurisdiction over this does not pass to the Presbytery, until he receives ordination.

(3) It is not possible for the courts, Session and Presbytery, to hold original jurisdiction over a candidate for the ministry.

We would refer the Presbytery to a most illuminating report adopted by the General Assembly of 1829 on this very subject. The report is found in Moore's Digest, p. 560.

13. We recommend this answer to the overture from the Presbytery of Brazos, touching the position of an ordained minister laboring in missionary work under the care of, and sustained by a local church (1) The relation of Stated Supply is not recognized in our form of government. (Alexander's Digest, pars. 94 and 95). (2) The relation of Assistant Pastor, while not directly mentioned in our book, is not forbidden there, and is a possible relation. This relation, in view of the fact that it necessitates the session of the local church meeting in the mission fields, involving many difficulties, while legal, does not seem the most efficient. (3) The relation of Evangelist seems the more practicable and reasonable. The Evangelist receives his powers from the Presbytery, and is primarily responsible to the Presbytery.

But as the Evangelist of the Synod, when he passes into the different bounds of the Presbyteries, passes under their immediate jurisdiction, so the Evangelist who works for a local church, in that work should be under the direction of the Session of that church.

14. In response to the communication from the Council of Adherents to the Evangelical Church Basis of Y. W. C. A., placed in our hands, we recommend the following answer:

(1) The Assembly hereby expresses its entire sympathy with the Council in its protest vs. the Change in Basis of Student Membership in the Y. W. C. A., and, believing that this basis will result in a lowering of the Standard of Confession required of a true disciple of Christ, and the impairing of the efficiency of this splendid institution in its witness for Evangelical truth, we earnestly hope that the Council may be successful in its effort to restore the former Basis of Active Membership.

(2) That the Council is at liberty to use this declaration of our intense sympathy with them in this protest in any way that may further its objects.

15. In regard to the matter referred to your Committee from the Minutes of last year, touching the overture from the Presbytery of Washburn (Minutes of General Assembly, 1917, p. 53), we recommend: In view of the fact that the action of our Assembly upon this overture was not sent to the Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., until after the adjournment of the Assembly of 1917; and that the Assembly now in session at Columbus, Ohio, is the first Assembly of that Church that could consider this matter, we feel that it is but courtesy to wait until said Assembly shall have opportunity to act, and we recommend that action be deferred until the next Assembly.

16. There has been submitted to your Committee the matter of securing for our soldiers in service away from home the privilege of uniting with their home church. We recommend this course: That any soldier desiring to make profession of faith in Christ and unite with his home church, may do so in this way: He may make profession of faith in Christ, and be baptized, if not already baptized, by any chaplain or ordained minister of any Evangelical Church. Such Minister shall certify to the session of his home church, the fact that he has so received the profession of faith and baptized the applicant. And our sessions are authorized to receive such soldiers on these certificates, just as now they receive them upon letters from other Evangelical Churches.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN M. WELLS, Chairman.

SABBATH AND FAMILY RELIGION

The Standing Committee on the Sabbath and Family Religion made the following report which was adopted:

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States:

Your Standing Committee on Sabbath and Family Religion, submits the following report:

We have examined the report made by the Permanent Committee on this cause, and find that 1,685 families have been enrolled in the Family Altar League. The committee has made earnest efforts to have the Family Altar League represented in every church, and while good progress has been made, yet there are more than 2,500 churches in which the League is not known. In answer to the qeustion in the Narrative, "Give proportion of families that observe family worship," only a small number give a favorable answer, while several hundred report none at all. Such conditions call for greater efforts than have ever yet been made. In the face of an alarming neglect of this vital issue, no pastor or church can afford to rest or stay the effort to keep sacred and holy the Christian family and the Christian Sabbath. We, therefore, make the following recommendations:

1. That the Assembly reaffirm its historic position in regard to these two fundamental institutions and that Presbyteries and pastors be urged to give increased emphasis to their observance.

2. That the present Committee be continued for the ensuing year, with instructions to press the claims of this work with all vigor.

3. That the request of the Chairman for $200.00 for printing, postage, etc. be granted.

4. That pastors see that the questions in the Narrative referring to this subject, are answered by giving definite proportion of the number observing family worship.

5. That the report of the Permanent Committee on the Sabbath and Family Religion be printed in the appendix to the Minutes of this Assembly.

Overtures from the Presbytery of Florida, the Presbytery of Brownwood, the Presbytery of Charleston, and from several members of the Presbytery of Athens, concerning the desecration of the Sabbath in certain cantonments and in cities near such training camps, were referred to this Committee.

We recommend the following as an answer:

First. Attention is called to the utterances of President Wilson, and to his noble stand for the Christian Sabbath, asking that in the Army and Navy, only works of necessity be done.

Second. The Assembly again goes on record for a strict observance of the Christian Sabbath, and protests against its desecration.

Third. That the Assembly appoint a Committee of Five, consisting of the Moderator, Dr. James I. Vance, as Chairman, and Dr. A. M. Fraser, Dr. W. R. Dobyns, Dr. Jas. H. Taylor, Dr. Melton Clark, to present to the President of the United States, its solemn protest against what we believe to be a flagrant violation of the Sabbath, in the matter of amusements in many of our army camps and cantonments, and to make humble petition to him that these evils be corrected.

Respectfully submitted,

F. E. FINCHER, Chairman.

Candidates and Licensure

The Select Committee to whom was referred the report of the Ad Interim Committee on licensure of candidates made the following report which was adopted:

The Select Committee to whom were referred matters touching the licensure and ordination of candidates for the ministry respectfully report on the several matters referred to them as follows:

I. A Report of the Ad-Interim Committee on a Change in the Book of Church Order.

This report covers three subjects:

First. A new Section which the Ad-Interim Committee recommends that the Assembly take steps to have added to the form of government, a section which, if enacted, would become Section VII of Chapter VI of the Book. We recommend that the Assembly recommend this Section to the Presbyteries as an amendment to Chapter VI of the Form of Government and send it down to the Presbyteries for their advice and consent. The proposed amendment is as follows:

Section VII—Of Candidates for the Ministry

I. A Candidate for the ministry is a member of the Church in full communion who, believing himself to be called to preach the Gospel, enters on a course of study and of practical training to prepare himself for this office.

II. It is recommended that every Candidate for the ministry should put himself under the care of a Presbytery, which should ordinarily be the Presbytery that has jurisdiction of the church of which he is a member. He should be encouraged by the session to do this; and upon his request the session should furnish him with a certificate of his membership, and with testimonials of its judgment regarding his Christian character and promise of usefulness in the ministry, to be laid before the Presbytery.

III. In making application to be taken under the care of Presbytery, the Candidate for the ministry, in addition to presenting testimonials from his church session, shall be examined by the Presbytery on experimental religion and on his motives for seeking the ministry.

Should the testimonials and the examination be satisfactory, the Presbytery should receive him under its care after the following manner:

The Moderator shall propose to the Candidate these questions:

1. Do you promise in reliance upon the grace of God to maintain a becoming Christian character, and to be diligent and faithful in making full preparation for the sacred ministry?

2. Do you promise to submit yourself to the proper supervision of the Presbytery in matters that concern your preparation for the ministry?

If these questions be answered in the affirmative, the Moderator, or someone appointed by him, shall give the Candidate a brief charge; and the proceedings shall close with prayer. The name of the Candidate is then to be recorded on the Presbytery's Roll of Candidates for the Ministry.

IV. The Candidate continues to be a private member of the church and subject to the jurisdiction of the session, but as respects his preparatory training for the ministry he is under the oversight of the Presbytery. It shall be the duty of the Presbytery to show a kindly and sympathetic interest in him, and to give him counsel and guidance in regard to his studies, his practical training, and the institutions of learning he should attend. In no case must a Candidate omit any of the subjects prescribed in the Form of Government as tests for licensure and ordination without obtaining the consent of Presbytery; and where such consent is given the Presbytery shall record the fact and its reasons.

V. For the development of his Christian character, for the service he can render, and for his more effective training, the Candidate when entering on his theological studies should be authorized and encouraged by the Presbytery to conduct public worship, to expound the Scriptures to the people, and to engage in other forms of Christian work. These forms of service should be rendered under the direction of Presbytery, and also with the sanction and under the guidance of the Candidate's instructors during the time of his being under their instruction. A Candidate should not undertake to serve statedly a church which is without a pastor unless he has the approval of the Presbytery having jurisdiction of the church.

VI. The Presbytery shall require every Candidate for the ministry under its care to make a report to it at least once a year; and it shall secure from his instructors an annual report upon his deportment, diligence, and progress in study.

VII. The Presbytery may upon the application of the Candidate give him a certificate of dismission to another Presbytery; and a Candidate may at his request be allowed to withdraw from the care of the Presbytery. The Presbytery may also for sufficient reasons remove the name of a Candidate from its roll of Candidates; but in such a case it shall report its action and the reasons therefor to the Candidate and to the session of his church.

Should the Assembly adopt the recommendation providing for the new Section, the Committee would further recommend,

(1) That the Assembly take proper steps to amend paragraph 77 of the Form of Government by inserting in the sixth line, immediately after the word "jurisdiction," the following words: "to receive under its care Candidates for the ministry"; and

(2) That the paragraphs of the new Section shall be numbered 140 A-I, 140 A-II, etc.

Second. An overture from the Synod of South Carolina which the last General Assembly had referred to the Ad-Interim Committee. This overture asks for a change in the Book of Church Order affecting licensure and ordination of candidates. The Ad-Interim Committee express the belief that so much of the end sought by this overture as it is wise to grant will be secured by the proposed new Section of the Form of Government given above. Your Committee recommends that the Assembly concur in that judgment.

Third. A resolution presented by the Rev. J. L. Mauze, D. D., to the Assembly of 1916 and placed on the docket for the consideration of the Assembly of 1917, and referred by that Assembly to the Ad-Interim Committee. The resolution of Dr. Mauze contemplates a change in the Assembly's Standing Rules, whereby a Standing Judicial Commission shall be appointed at each meeting of the General Assembly, instead of a Standing Committee on Judicial Business, and whereby certain judicial cases shall be referred for trial to this Standing Commission. Your Committee, following the recommendation of the Ad-Interim Committee, hereby recommends that the said resolution be not adopted.

II. The report of the Committee appointed by the Orlando Assembly to consider the administration of scholarship funds by the Theological Seminaries.

That Committee, composed of representatives of the several Theological Seminaries, are of the opinion that this question cannot be dealt with satisfactorily in the present disturbed conditions in which our young men, including candidates for the ministry, are placed. We therefore recommend to the Assembly that the subject be not pursued further at this time.

That Committee, however, does make certain recommendations which are here given, together with recommendations of this Committee touching the same.

"First. Should a student marry during the progress of his Seminary studies without the explicit consent of the Presbytery under whose care he has placed himself, he should not be entitled to any further aid from the Seminary."

Concerning this, we recommend that inasmuch as it treats of matters wholly within the jurisdiction of the several Seminaries, no action be taken by the Assembly beyond the approval of the policy suggested.

"Second. The General Assembly instruct the Executive Committee of Christian Education to request the Council of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in the United States of America to bring to the attention of their highest courts the value and importance of more thorough comity and co-operation among the theological institutions of the several Churches, and the desirability of eliminating any evils that may have grown up in connection with the administration of the aid to students for the ministry from Seminary scholarships or other funds of the Church."

We recommend the adoption of this by the Assembly.

"Third. The Committee recommends to the General Assembly that it earnestly exhorts the Presbyteries to a more careful and constant oversight of their Candidates for the Ministry, and to a closer and more sympathetic co-operation with the Theological Seminaries in promoting the best standards of Christian attainments, fidelity to study and economy in expenditures on the part of the young men under their care."

We recommend the adoption of this by the Assembly.

III. An overture from the Presbytery of Pee Dee, asking for a change in the Form of Government, whereby licensure of candidates may be omitted in certain cases and the candidates ordained without licensure. It seems to your Committee more important to enforce the existing law than to amend it. We therefore recommend that the overture be answered in the negative.

Respectfully submitted for the Committee,

A. M. Fraser, Chairman.

The Standing Committee on the Records of the Synod of Virginia reported that the Records had not come to their hands.

Mileage

The Standing Committee on Mileage made the following report which was adopted:

Your Committee on Mileage begs leave to make the following report:

First. We have paid expense bills to the amount of $13,852.12.

Second. We find that many of the Commissioners were unable to secure the special rates granted by the transportation companies by reason of the fact that insufficient time was given for proper instructions to reach local agents, and thereby the expenses were greatly increased.

Respectfully submitted,

S. Strudwick, Chairman.

Leave of Absence

The Standing Committee on Leave of Absence made the following report which was approved:

Your Committee on Leave of Absence respectfully reports:

That all requests for leave of absence, except one, T. S. Whited, colored, and that on account of sickness, were refused until after Sunday.

There were excused on Monday, C. H. Newton; and after the morning session, J. W. McCorkle; after the evening session, J. R. Chambers.

On Tuesday there were excused after the morning session C. W. Donnally, D. N. Yarbro, D. Iverson, B. F. Tarver; after the afternoon session, J. E. Hobson, J. A. Thompson and R. L. Frazier.

On Wednesday, after the morning session, W. W. Cunningham, W. C. Tenney, C. W. Follin, O. G. Davis and Chas. F. Strassner and T. J. Jones; after the afternoon session, R. R. Burman, R. T. Glassell, L. O. Brown, C. S. Parker, A. S. Anderson, L. D. Cort, R. W. Hardey, J. H. McMillan, C. D. Montgomery, J. E. Foley, C. T. Akers, G. T. Gillespie, J. L. Wylie, W. W. Turner, J. I. Norris, L. B. McCord and W. M. Wiseman.

J. B. Bittinger, Chairman.

Thanks to Moderator

The following resolution touching the Moderator, Rev. Jas. I. Vance, D. D., was adopted by a rising vote:

"Resolved, That we most heartily thank our Moderator, Rev. Jas. I. Vance, D. D., for the courtesy, kindness and efficiency with which he has moderated this Assembly."

Pastoral Letter Regarding Our Soldiers

The Select Committee appointed to prepare a letter to our churches regarding our soldiers made the following report which was adopted:

We recommend that the following letter be sent down by this Assembly, to be read in all our churches:

The coming of large bodies of young men into the government cantonments is thrusting on our Church a duty and privilege such as has not been witnessed in this generation.

In this crisis there are a number of considerations which are forced upon the hearts of thoughtful Christian men, namely:

First. Our duty to give to each of our soldiers all that Christianity has to offer them to satisfy the soul in definite preparation for the future life.

Second. The opportunity of our Church to square itself in the eyes of these young men as being the institution able and anxious to give them definite knowledge of a Saviour from sin.

Third. The fact that the men of our Church are not even measurably coming up to their full duty in these vital and urgent responsibilities.

Our young men are thinking seriously as never before. In all the efforts which have been made to present the claims of a Saviour from sin directly to the individual man no instance has been recorded where the offer was not appreciated, and in many cases it was eagerly received. They are hungry for that which will give them a certainty of hope and a real assurance of soul salvation; the present situation is a direct challenge to our men to give each man in the camps a chance to make an open confession; and this challenge is more urgent for the reason that much precious time is being wasted by Christian leaders in presenting ethics, patriotism and other non-essentials, and for the reason that it is sometimes stated to the men that the supreme sacrifice of patriotism will take the place of repentance and acceptance of a personal Saviour.

Many thousands of these young men are in an attitude of indifference to the Church, or even an aversion to any acknowledgment of its claims upon their personal allegiance, this crisis in their lives, and their impressionable condition of mind now presents to the men of our Church the supreme duty of redeeming the time and pressing home to each man the truths of the gospel; and for the further reason that they may come back, if it may be, under a deeper sense of allegiance to the Church, and as owing a debt of gratitude for the interest of the Church in their real welfare.

Wholly inadequate to the bigness of this task are the plans and equipment so far provided or attempted by our men, though our own men have given their money, with that of many worldly men, to provide amusements and conveniences, some of which are questionable or distinctly harmful, and yet they have not made liberal provision for reaching these men with the Gospel.

Our day of privilege is rapidly passing; thousands of our young men have passed through our midst without a word from our consecrated laymen and earnest ministry, because they are asleep to the call of the hour; will the men of our Church continue to permit this drama to pass on to tragedy?

We therefore call upon our men to rise to the occasion and with consecrated and patriotic fervor undertake big things for our boys in khaki, our brothers and sons in race and patriotism.

And in order that the efforts of men may have a definite purpose, it is suggested:

First. That the men of our Church take it upon themselves to speak to the selectmen in their own community at the time the boys are called to service, giving each one a word of encouragement and pressing the personal acceptance and confession of the Saviour.

Second. That liberal support and active co-operation be given to the work of our War Work Council, and particularly to the efforts of our camp pastors in the cantonments.

Third. That the men of our Church use their utmost personal efforts and influence against allowing to be placed in reach of our soldiers, temptations to vice and immorality, and that the promote in every way those agencies and associations producing good morals.

RUTHERFORD LAPSLEY, Chairman.

Rev. W. R. Dobyns, D. D., then addressed the Assembly concerning the Y. M. C. A. work in the Army Camps.

The Committee on Thanks made a report which was adopted by a rising vote. The report is as follows:

Your Committee would respectfully submit the following resolution of thanks:

It is difficult to express adequately our appreciation of Durant and her citizens. The kindness shown us has been so great, the favors so many that it would be a great pleasure to mention all.

We hope that all who have taken part in making our visit so pleasant, will consider that we hereby express to them our abiding esteem.

In mentioning some in this resolution, it is with sincere appreciation of everyone.

Resolved that we thank:

Our vigorous Pastor-Host, the Reverend Herman Jones, and Mrs. Jones, and the officers and members of the First Presbyterian Church of Durant for their untiring and successful efforts for our comfort, happiness and discharge of business.

Our Oklahoma Presbyterian College, Dr. W. B. and Mrs. Morrison and the girls of our School, for seeing that the hungry were bountifully fed and comfortably sheltered.

We thank all the brethren who instructed us in their inspiring addresses.

We thank the Organist, Director and Choir; the kind friends of the Southeastern Normal School the Coalgate Choir, our Commissioner, Ruling Elder Alfred D. Mason, of Memphis, and our Indians and the much appreciated choir of our colored brethren, all of these for their beautiful music.

We thank the Methodist, Christian and Baptist Churches for their houses of worship generously placed at our disposal.

We tender our appreciation to all the homes that have entertained us; for all the courtesies of the town officials, the business places, the railroads, and the exceeding kindness of the Durant National Bank, the Chamber of Commerce, for providing the delightful auto ride; to the Post-office for its many and great favors administered for us by Mr. Orvis Sauls and his assistants.

We thank our church papers, the Christian Observer and The Presbyterian of the South, for their courtesy.

And now it is a pleasant duty to thank our wonderfully efficient Committee on Mileage, Ruling Elder S. Strudwick and his able asistants for their hard work for us. It may be that this is the hardest worked Committee on Mileage in our Assembly's history, and they handled it perfectly.

We thank our veteran and peerless Stated Clerk, Dr. Thomas H. Law, and his assistants.

Our thanks are to our Moderator, Dr. James I. Vance, who amid trying, intricate and unusually important business, safely guided the Assembly, presiding with the ability, unfailing courtesy and fairness in ruling, worthy of his great renown.

We thank last of all, first of all, above all, Almighty God, our heavenly Father, for our Church, planted by Him in a region so rich in achievement, so wonderful in promise. Yea, we thank Him. Blessed be His Name.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN F. MATHESON, Chairman.

The following resolution offered by Rev. T. D. Wesley was adopted:

Resolved, That the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States most earnestly prays that God's blessing may rest upon our boys serving under the colors.

The minutes of to-day's sessions were read and approved.

The whole business of the Assembly being finished, and the vote being taken for dissolving the present Assembly, the Moderator said from the chair: "By virtue of the authority delegated to me by the Church, let this General Assembly be dissolved, and I do hereby dissolve it, and require another General Assembly, chosen in the same manner, to meet in the Napoleon Avenue Church, New Orleans, on the third Thursday, the 15th day, of May, 1919, at 11 A. M.

After this the General Assembly joined in singing "God be with you till we meet again." The Moderator led in prayer and pronounced the Apostolic Benediction.

J. D. LESLIE, Permanent Clerk.

For a detailed statement of receipts and disbursements we refer you to the itemized statement of your Treasurer, which is hereto appended and made a part of the report.

Since our last annual meeting the death angel has invaded our fold and taken from us one of our faithful and efficient members in the person of Captain A. G. Bernizer, and by order of this Board a page of our Minute Book has been set aside to commemorate his memory, and we would recommend as a suitable successor to Captain Bernizer, Mr. George E. Rose, a Deacon in the First Presbyterian Church, of which Captain Bernizer was an honored elder.

The term of the following officers expires with the meeting of the Assembly:

Mr. R. A. Dunn,
Mr. J. H. Wearn,
Mr. P. S. Gilchrist, and we would unanimously recommend the re-election of these gentlemen.

The officers now constituting the Board are:

Mr. George E. Wilson, President;
Mr. Robt. A. Dunn, Vice-President;
Mr. John R. Pharr, Secretary and Treasurer.

Respectfully submitted,
GEO. E. WILSON, President.

III. Report on Foreign Missions

(ABSTRACT)

The Executive Committee of Foreign Missions would record its grateful recognition of the goodness of God and of His abundant blessing upon the work throughout the year.

None of our missions lie within any of the zones of military operations, and there has been no disturbance of our work on account of the war other than that which is incident to the general disturbance of financial, political, social and industrial conditions throughout the world.

In the number of additions to the native churches, this has been the banner year of all our work. The total number reported from all our fields is 5,972. This is 716 more than the number reported last year, notwithstanding the fact that the number reported last year was 29 per cent greater than the largest number reported in any previous year.

AFRICA

As has been the case for several years past, our largest ingathering has been in the churches connected with our African Mission. The number of additions reported is 3,161, which is 489 more than the number reported last year.

The church at Luebo having proved too small for the ever-growing congregation, chapels have been built at three other points in the town, and these are also filled at every Sunday service.

The work among the Bakuba, the center of which is now our station at Bulape, is opening up in the most encouraging way. At Bulape and Ibanche together over 4,000 are reported as under special religious instruction, while even greater numbers attend the regular preaching services. A day of great things seems to be dawning in the work among this tribe, who held on so stubbornly and so long to their heathen ways.

The Mission is making strenuous efforts to provide a trained native ministry, and it is hoped that in the near future, in addition to the three ordained men who have done such splendid work this year, a sufficient number may become ready for ordination to furnish material for the organization of the native Presbytery.

Owing to transportation difficulties the Mission would have suffered much inconvenience in regard to its food supply but for the improvements in agriculture and horticulture developed in connection with the work of Mr. Hillhouse. The list of native food products thus made available, if they should all be served at one meal on an American table at the present time, would be considered wholly incompatible with a patriotic observance of our food conservation regulations.

A detailed statement of the work of the Mission on which the blessing of God has rested so wonderfully is given in the admirably written historical report, published herewith.

General Conditions—The tremendous changes in the relation of Africa to the countries of Europe and America produced by the war, the critical importance of immediate efforts to stem the Mohammedan advance from the North; the problem of saving Africa from the curse of intoxicating liquors imported from without; the bringing of the populations of South Africa into such close relations with Great Britain, following on the expulsion of the Germans from that section of country—all this emphasizes the importance of making the most of the present opportunity and of being ready to take advantage of the larger opportunity that will present itself when the war is closed.

It also emphasizes the importance of planning for as full co-operation as possible with all the other forces working for Africa's redemption. The Committee therefore hailed with pleasure the coming of the Mission of the M. E. Church, South, into this field a few years ago, and hopes to be able to establish co-operative relations with them on the lines of education, printing and transportation that will contribute to efficiency and economy in the work of both Missions. Some of the Missions on the lower Congo are discussing the feasibility of establishing an institution for the training of selected natives in the higher education and in theology, in which it may later become advisable for us to co-operate.

LATIN AMERICA

Missionary work in Latin America is being unified and promoted in many ways through the agency of the Committee on Co-operation, which is the Continuation Committee of the Panama Congress. Interested friends have provided this Committee with the means to employ a general secretary and several field secretaries who have given their labors to the work of arranging co-operative measures along literary and educational lines, from which substantial results in the way of economy and efficiency have already been obtained, and which promise much greater results in the future.

One very great lack heretofore in all Protestant work in Latin America has been the almost entire absence of Christian literature in Spanish and Portuguese. Two men of great ability and of special qualifications for this work, Rev. G. B. Winton, of the M. E. Church, South, and Rev. Juan Orts Gonzales, of our own Church, have been allocated by their respective churches to give their entire time to the work of providing this literature in the form of books, both original and translated, and of contributions to the press of Latin America. They have already prepared and published a bibliography of religious books in Spanish and Portuguese which is to be placed in the hands of all our native ministers to guide them in the selection of the literature they need for their own use and for the use of their people.

Under the auspices of the Committee on Co-operation plans are being made for the federation of all Protestant schools in Brazil and the organization of a Christian university representing all the Protestant denominations. Plans are also being made for the organization of three Union Theological Seminaries, one at Mexico City, one at Rio de Janeiro, and another at Montevideo, in which provision will be made for post-graduate work and the training of a native ministry prepared to reach and minister to the educated classes of the country.

BRAZIL

Northern Brazil—One of the most neglected mission fields in the world is that of Northern Brazil. Brazil itself comprises territorially about half of South America, and what is known as Northern Brazil comprises about two-thirds of this territory. In this field there are only twenty-nine foreign missionaries, representing our own Church, the Southern Baptists, and the South American Evangelical Union. In addition to these, the Young Men's Christian Association has one secretary in Pernambuco. Altogether there are about thirty Brazilian pastors. Of this number eleven have been trained in our school at Garanhuns and are working in connection with our Mission.

Two-thirds of Northern Brazil is covered with virgin forests, through which wander native tribes who have never heard the name of Christ. There are seven States which have no resident missionary. If China had the same proportion of missionaries it would have only half the number it now has. There is only one medical missionary, Dr. Butler, of our Mission, and people come from five different States to visit him. When he travels on the train they wait for him at every station.

Our force in this field has received no substantial increase for many years and a number of our men who are working there are nearing the time of life when they will be entitled to go on the retired list.

One great outstanding need of this field is a suitable building for our girls' school at Pernambuco. The character and quality of work done in this school from the beginning has secured for it the patronage and given our workers access to the homes of the best people of the city. We trust that the new and larger interest which our people are coming to take in our Latin American work will result in providing the faithful and capable women who are conducting this school with proper facilities for their work.

Southern Brazil—Concerning our educational work in Southern Brazil, we give the following quotation from the report of Dr. W. E. Browning, Educational Secretary for the Committee on Co-operation in Latin America:

"Among the many institutions that merit special notice because of their quiet, unobtrusive influence for vital Christianity is the Instituto Evangelico, located in the city of Lavras. A visit to this school and a day spent in the company of its teachers and students would convince the most skeptical of the immense value of such institutions in the formation of Christian character and the invigoration of the surrounding community."

The appreciation of this school by the government of the State of Minas is shown by a grant of $5,000 for the agricultural department of the school, secured through the influence of Dr. Alvaro, the Federal congressman from that district.

The most outstanding feature in the school has always been the strong evangelical tone which has pervaded it, in consequence of which a large proportion of its students each year have been gathered into the Church, and a number of them have gone to the Theological Seminary at Campinas.

There has been a notable increase in the friendly relations between the two branches of the native Presbyterian Church in Brazil since the meeting of the Panama Congress two years ago, and it is hoped that their much-to-be-desired reunion will be brought about in the not distant future.

CUBA

The close and friendly relations between the United States and Cuba which have recently been accentuated by their common relation to the European war give us a very great advantage in the conduct of our missionary work in that field. With an adequate program and a statesmanlike adjustment of the work between the different missionary agencies, the Protestant Church ought to become the dominant influence in the island in the not distant future. Unfortunately, up to the present time, matters of comity and co-operation have not been as satisfactorily arranged in Cuba as they have been in some other fields. Under the auspices of the Committee on Co-operation efforts will continue to be made in this direction, the successful issue of which is only a matter of time and patience.

Our own work suffered a serious loss in the withdrawal of Dr. and Mrs. Juan Orts on account of the failure of Mrs. Orts' health. Rev. J. O. Shelby, of our Mexico Mission, has been temporarily assigned to the work in Cuba while we are waiting for the opening up of our new field in Mexico.

The Cardenas Mission School, "La Progresiva," has the reputation of being the best school of the kind in the Republic. There are a number of native teachers who have been trained in the school and are rendering most efficient service, both in the school and in the church and community. Interesting details in regard to this work and to the work at the other stations will be found in the historical report.

The Mission Work of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., in Cuba is conducted under its Home Mission Board. Correspondence has been had with that board in regard to a possible readjustment between their work and ours, and the Executive Committee has been given authority by the General Assembly to make any such readjustment as might be indicated in the development of the work to be for the best interests of the cause of Christ in Cuba.

MEXICO

It has not yet been practicable for our Mission to occupy the new field assigned to it at the general Missionary Conference held in Mexico City last year in the southern part of the Republic. Guerrero and Morelos were the two States suggested as our field, but the suppression of banditry in those States has not yet been accomplished to a degree that would make it safe for our missionaries to open up their work.

Rev. W. A. Ross has recently made a tour of investigation and held some conferences with the brethren of the Northern Presbyterian Mission, the result of which may possibly be our taking up work, at least for the present, in some other part of the large unoccupied territory of Southern Mexico. Meanwhile, both the Northern Board and the Northern Mission are most cordial in their invitation to us to help in the work in their field until the question as to our own particular field has been decided. In response to this invitation Miss Alice J. McClelland, who was formerly in charge of the Girls' School at Matamoros, has been teaching in the girls' school at San Angel, and plans are being arranged for Professor R. C. Morrow, of our Mission, to introduce an industrial department in the Mexico City Presbyterian College, leaving open for the present the question as to whether this shall be a temporary or a permanent arrangement.

Rev. H. L. Ross and Miss E. V. Lee have occupied their old stations at Linares and Victoria without interruption during the year.

As the historical report will show, the throwing of the native church more upon its own resources has led to a very wholesome increase of activity and independence. It has been a year of notable growth. The number of additions to the Church is larger than ever before and, notwithstanding the high cost of living, the native contributions have been nearly double those of the preceding year.

The Rev. S. G. Inman, Secretary of the Committee on Co-operation, on returning from his recent tour of Latin America, makes this statement in regard to Mexico: "I found everywhere a cordial regard for the work of Protestant Missions. This is natural when so many of the officials have been educated in evangelical institutions. I found men everywhere I went occupying prominent positions who had been pupils in our Mission Schools.

"Concerning the restrictions on religious work in the new constitution, President Carranza and other officials stated to us clearly that they would not be allowed to affect adversely the evangelical cause. With provision for adequate training of the Mexican ministry, the production of church literature, and the division of territorial responsibilities so that the whole field shall be covered, a constructive program is outlined for the evangelical churches to take their legitimate part in the great era of reconstruction. If the union projects are supported and each board properly supplies its recognized territory with evangelistic, educational and institutional workers, encouraging the Mexican Church to assume an ever-increasing proportion of these responsibilities, we will soon find a new nation at our southern border."

CHINA

China continues to be afflicted with political unrest. An abortive attempt was made during the year to restore the Manchu dynasty, the failure of which, although it was led by the most powerful political personality that has appeared in China in modern times, the late Yuan Shi Kai, is probably a demonstration that the republic has come to stay. The republicanism of China, however, is of a somewhat questionable type and will probably have many difficulties to overcome before it will be in a position to give the country a stable and orderly government. Dissension between the conservative element in the North and the more radical element in the Southern provinces at one time reached the stage of civil war. A truce was later established between the different factions, but a solution of the differences has not yet been reached. Both factions, however, have united in a declaration of war against Germany, and it is to be hoped that this union against the common enemy may result in harmony among themselves.

Industrial troubles have also complicated the situation. Vast regions of Northern China were devastated by floods covering over 20,000 square miles of territory and rendering 3,000,000 persons homeless. The banks of the Grand Canal gave way in some places and whole villages were destroyed.

The rise in the price of silver has not only affected missionary finance, but has so increased the cost of living to the natives that many of them have almost been reduced to starvation.

In spite of political and industrial disturbances, however, China's foreign trade for the year was the highest ever recorded. One thing that contributed largely to this result is that the lands which were formerly planted in opium poppy are now given over to other crops, such as sugar cane and cotton. The cotton crop for the past year was estimated at nearly 2,000,000 bales, which is about one-seventh of that of the United States. The agricultural and mineral resources of China and her supply of cheap and efficient labor are boundless, and if the misfortunes which she has been suffering at the hands of foreign exploiters and of her own corrupt and incompetent rulers could be put an end to by a few years of honest and intelligent handling of her political and industrial affairs, a condition of national prosperity might be brought about which would greatly simplify the problems of the native church in regard to both self-support and self-propagation.

The Churches and the Missions—In administering the financial help which they give to the native churches, the Missions are obliged to require an accounting for the funds used that sometimes seems like interference with the autonomy of the Church, and this oftentimes excites resentment and jealousy. We are glad, therefore, to note the statement in the China Year Book by Rev. C. Y. Cheng, one of the leading native ministers, that the Missions and Churches are working more harmoniously than ever before. In the management of Mission and Church funds in evangelistic work, in educational activities, and in planning for the work of the future, joint committees of Chinese and foreigners are working together in a genuine spirit of brotherhood.

Church Leadership—The Union Theological Schools at Nanking, Peking and several other points are doing excellent work and are constantly improving their courses of study as their facilities are enlarged and as a better prepared supply of ministerial candidates is coming from the various mission colleges.

The Nanking Seminary graduated thirty men in January, 1917, a number of whom had taken share in the every member evangelistic campaign, in which they rendered effective service. The introduction of this practical feature in the course of ministerial education cannot fail to have good results in preparing men for effective leadership. The need of a better educated ministry is recognized by both the Church and the Missions, and emphasizes the importance of our educational missionary work everywhere.

Lay Workers—An encouraging sign of the times is the coming forward of many men of the higher classes to engage in active Christian work. Speaking on this subject in the China Year Book, Mr. Cheng says: "We are particularly happy to see so many Chinese Christian laymen helping in one way or another to spread Christian ideas among their fellow countrymen. The Nieh brothers, sons of the late governor of Chekiang, who since becoming Christians, have been serving the Church and the Young Men's Christian Association with untiring faithfulness, are notable examples of a noble host. Dr. Meng and Dr. Hsu, surgeons of the Chinwei Army, are also zealous workers for Christ. They tell the good story among army officers and soldiers and distribute much Christian literature. General Feng Yu-hsiang, of the Regular Army, invites a pastor to conduct a service with his officers once each month and never fails to send them copies of the Scriptures."

Week of Evangelism—For the first time in the history of Protestant missions in China a nation-wide "Week of Evangelism" was conducted during the first week of the Chinese New Year. Definite statistics of the result of this effort have not been published, but the effect on the non-Christian community is declared to have been profound and the reflex influence upon the Church itself is most healthful.

Conclusion—The historical reports of the two China Missions are full of interesting incidents and give the record of a year of earnest and faithful effort rewarded with encouraging results.

The day of small things for Christianity in China has passed. The present Protestant Christian community, including enrolled enquirers, numbers over half a million. The communing membership of the churches numbers about 300,000. There are 618 stations with resident missionaries, while the total number of places where Christian worship is regularly conducted is over 7,000. There are 5,517 foreign missionaries classified as follows: Presbyterians, 892; Methodists, 763; Baptists, 523; Episcopalians, 612; Congregationalists, 309; Lutherans, 452; China Inland Mission, 990; other independent missions, 976. There are 20,460 native workers in the employ of Missions and Churches. There are 151,490 pupils in Mission Schools. There are 330 mission hospitals served by 383 foreign and 118 native physicians.

The influence of the Christian Church in China is out of all proportion to its numbers. It was sufficient to defeat a strong movement led by some of the ablest men in China to have Confucianism declared to be the national religion. The movement to effect this result had a unifying effect and was itself an exhibition of the real unity of the different branches of the Church in China. The whole Church stood together as one man. One of the leading daily papers remarked that no political party had ever appeared in China that had shown such unity of purpose and such resources of strength as were shown by the churches in this movement.

JAPAN

The past year has been one of unprecedented financial prosperity in Japan, caused by the new industrial activity connected with the manufacture and sale of munitions of war. One result of this has been the growth of a materialistic and commercial spirit which has made the people less accessible to the gospel than they have been heretofore. Notwithstanding this fact the increased aggressiveness of the native church and the earnest labors of the missionaries have been rewarded by encouraging results.

National Evangelistic Campaign—The National Evangelistic Campaign closed its third year in July. It is estimated that the attendance at the meetings held reached a total of about 800,000, and the number of professed conversions was about 27,000. Other results of the campaign are that the different denominations of Christians have been brought into closer fellowship, the churches have been stirred to work with greater energy, and an impression favorable to Christianity as a religion of vitality and power has been made in many communities.

In connection with this campaign much use has been made of Christian literature. The Christian Literature Society issued 40,000,000 pages of literature during the year, an increase of 10,000,000 on the previous year. Newspaper evangelism has also been used with good effect. Several members of our Mission have adopted it, and during the campaign in Tokyo articles on Christian topics were printed in fourteen of the great daily newspapers and carried the rudiments of the gospel to hundreds of thousands of people who could not otherwise have been reached.

Advance Work—Two new stations were opened, one at Gifu, a city of 50,000 inhabitants, twenty-five miles north of Nagoya, and one at Marugame, a city of 30,000 inhabitants, fifteen miles from Takamatsu.

Theological Education—The Kobe Theological School has introduced a department of practical evangelism under the care of Revs. W. C. Buchanan, S. M. Erickson and C. A. Logan. All students except those of the first year are required to spend three months of each year in field work under these instructors, their graduation being made subject to regular grading and examinations as in the regular work of the seminary.

There are eleven independent churches in the territory occupied by our Mission. Thirty-eight evangelists and nine Bible women are associated with the Mission, working in about fifty churches. A gospel tent has been used by the missionaries at Tokushima, which has been pitched at thirty-seven towns where the name of Christ had not before been named. Meetings were held consecutively for three nights in each town, tracts were distributed and enquirers instructed.

Evangelistic meetings were conducted by Dr. H. W. Myers in the Nagoya Girls' School, at which twenty-four of the pupils made profession of their faith.

The Mission has been encouraged by the coming of several reinforcements during the year and the outlook for the future is rendered brighter thereby.

CHOSEN (KOREA)

The Presbyterian Church in Korea is now an established institution, which has stood the test of persecution and gives evidence of vigorous life by a steady growth and development. There are four Presbyteries, whose boundaries are those of the four Presbyterian Missions, Australian, Canadian, Northern and Southern Presbyterian, organized into a General Assembly without an intervening Synod. There are fifty ordained ruling elders, some of whom exercise the function of rule only and others labor in the word and doctrine. The communing membership totals about 66,000, of whom 7,874 are in churches located within the bounds of our Mission. A native elder was moderator of the last General Assembly and discharged the duties of his office in a manner worthy of the best traditions of the Presbyterian Church in such matters.

The dominating element in the native church courts is still largely foreign. The rapid increase of the native element, however, raises the question whether the missionaries ought not to take time by the forelock and avoid the trouble growing out of the natural resentment against foreign authority that always springs up in the native church so soon as it has grown large enough to have acquired self-consciousness, and provided it has been educated into a proper spirit of independence. It would seem better that the missionaries should take the initiative and voluntarily retire from voting membership in the native church courts than to wait until they are invited to take that course by their native brethren, as has occurred in some other notable instances.

Educational Matters—Mention was made in the last annual report of the organization of the Union Christian College at Seoul under a charter which secured the right of the co-operating Mission Boards to "establish and maintain the college in accordance with Christian principles," and which granted the right to establish a course of instruction in the Bible as literature in the regular curriculum, and to hold religious services for the pupils on the college premises outside of regular school hours and apart from the regular school exercises.

The question has arisen whether it would not be advisable to apply to the educational authorities of the government for the privilege of reopening our school at Soonchun under these conditions, and whether, if this permission is given, it would not be wise to have all our schools which are now operating under the arrangement which allowed them ten years of grace before the government regulation prohibiting religious teaching would apply to them, to conform to the government ordinance as interpreted in the charter of the Seoul Union College, thus securing a permanent right to give that amount of religious instruction in all our schools. None of these matters, however, have as yet been brought to a definite determination.

Medical Work—From the beginning medical work has occupied a large place in the missionary program in Korea. It not only appeals to the non-Christian communities as a manifestation of the true Christian spirit of love and helpfulness, but it is also educating them in a practical method of following Christ in loving service.

All the Missions have experienced great difficulty in maintaining an adequate staff at the Mission hospitals. We have now on the field only four American doctors for our five hospitals, each of which would require two doctors for the proper conduct of its work. To meet this difficulty six of the Missions working in Korea have united in the establishment of a medical school in Seoul, known as the Severance Union Medical College, Hospital, and Nurses' Training School. Our representative on the faculty of this school has retired from the work and another physician capable of teaching medicine as well as doing other hospital work is greatly needed to take his place. It will be several years, however, before we can hope to have graduates from this school capable of filling the places that are now being filled by foreign physicians throughout the country. The institution is up-to-date in its buildings and equipment, and is not only carrying on teaching in medicine, nursing, dentistry and pharmacy, but also has already done commendable work in various lines of research, for which department special funds have recently been donated by members of the family of Mr. Louis Severance, who gave the original endowment for the school.

REINFORCEMENTS AND LOSSES

Congo Mission—Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Longenecker, Miss Mary E. Kirkland.

East Brazil Mission—Mrs. B. H. Hunicutt, Mrs. F. F. Baker.

Cuba Mission—Miss Margaret M. Davis.

Mid-China Mission—Miss Frances Stribling, Miss Lois Young, Rev. and Mrs. Martin A. Hopkins.

North Kiangsu Mission—Rev. and Mrs. Jas. N. Montgomery, Miss Eliza Neville.

Japan Mission—Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Brady, Rev. and Mrs. C. Darby Fulton.

Korean Mission—Rev. and Mrs. J. McL. Rogers, Rev. D. Jas. Cumming.

Rev. W. M. Morrison, D. D., of the Congo Mission, died at Luebo on March 15, 1918.

Rev. T. E. Wilson, of the Korean Mission, died at Hope, Ark., on September 17, 1917.

Dr. and Mrs. T. H. Daniel and Prof. and Mrs. W. A. Venable, of the Korean Mission, and Rev. and Mrs. L. A. DeYampert, of the African Mission, resigned during the year. Our total net gain for the year, therefore, is twelve.

The Committee has pursued the policy of sending out new missionaries only when pledges have been obtained to cover their annual cost fund of $1,200 each, believed to be over and above previous donations of the donors, and when the expense of outfit and travel has been provided in cash.

CALLS FROM THE FIELD

If funds and suitable equipment could be provided, more workers could be fruitfully used in all our fields except Mexico, where conditions have not yet become such as to make it practicable to resume our regular work. Present indications are that our new field in Mexico will soon be open for occupation and then a larger responsibility than we have heretofore had in Mexico will be devolved upon us and we shall need additional workers to meet it properly.

Cuba needs one evangelist worker to take the place of Rev. Juan Orts, who has been assigned to assist in the Literature Department conducted by the Committee on Co-operation in Latin America.

West Brazil repeats for the fourth successive year its call for four additional evangelists and is now also in need of someone to take up the work of Rev. J. Rockwell Smith, D. D., who has been compelled by failing health to give up his chair in the Campinas Theological Seminary.

East Brazil calls earnestly for two additional evangelists and one lady teacher for the Charlotte Kemper Seminary.

North Brazil earnestly calls for four additional evangelists to help in reaching the vast unoccupied fields containing more than one and one-half millions of people included in the boundaries of that Mission.

Korea calls earnestly for two additional physicians and one male educational worker. One of these physicians is especially needed to fill the chair for which we are responsible in the Severance Medical College made vacant by the retirement of Dr. Thos. H. Daniel.

The Japan Mission repeats for the third time its call for nine men and three single ladies at once. This call represents what they consider the immediate urgency of the situation. What they have been asking for in order that the field may be reasonably well occupied is not less than the doubling of their present force. This request of theirs was endorsed and emphasized by the action of the Korean Mission taken at its last meeting, as follows: "With a deep sense of the present opportunity and the great need of our Japan Mission for more workers at once; and believing that the hour is at hand and the Holy Spirit is preparing for a great growth in interest and acceptance of the gospel in Japan, we, as a Mission, join with the Japan Mission in requesting the Executive Committee that the number of workers be doubled as soon as possible. We further assure our brethren of the Japan Mission of our desire to co-operate with them in any way possible to secure the increase of workers and would urge our brethren on furlough to place themselves at the service of the Executive Committee for this work."

The Conference Committee of the two China Missions at its meeting on July 11, 1917, took the following action on the subject of reinforcements:

"Resolved, that in view of the present inadequate support of the existing work and the present urgent need of putting this work on a more adequate financial basis, we recommend to the Executive Committee that no new missionaries, except in the case of actual vacancies through death or removal, be appointed to any of our fields until the work now in existence has been adequately provided for. The vacancies now existing are: one male evangelistic worker, one lady evangelistic worker, three male educational workers, two lady educational workers, one physician, one trained nurse."

As these male educational workers are both needed for work in institutions of the higher education, it is necessary that they should have special training along educational lines to fit them for their work.

The Minutes of the last meeting of the African Mission containing its call for new workers have not yet been received. The wide-open doors there, however, are so many and the readiness of the people to respond to the gospel call is so great that the number of additions to the Church reported this year, large as it is, could probably have been doubled if we had men enough on the field to have visited all the villages accessible in our territory. Under these conditions it would be desirable, if possible, to double our present force in that field. While the Committee does not regard this as practicable at the present time, it is our purpose to continue sending reinforcements to this Mission as suitable men and women are found available and as Providence shall open the way.

FINANCES

The year just closed has broken all Foreign Mission records both in the cost of the work and in the gifts of the people.

Though the total cost of the work has gone beyond our highest forecast and the deficit is enlarged, yet we are grateful to God for the splendid increase in the people's gifts, which, but for abnormal conditions, would have enabled us to pay for the year's work and nearly wipe out the whole debt.

Cost of the Regular Work—We began the year with an initial appropriation of $520,370, to which was added during the year $157,194, making a total cost for the year's regular work of $677,564, being $116,700 more than the total cost of the previous year's regular work, and $136,162 more than the previous year's total receipts for the regular work.

The unprecedented increase in the cost of the work last year was due to war conditions, which seem likely to continue and to raise the cost higher still. (See sub-topic, "A Year of Strain.")

Receipts for the Regular Work—The year's receipts for the regular work, including such legacies and other funds as were so applied, amounted to $620,331. This is $78,729 more than the previous year's similar total, but lacks $57,234 of equaling the immensely increased cost of the year's regular work. This amount added to the deficits of previous years makes the total deficit on April 1, 1918, $128,131.

Receipts for Specials—For special objects outside the regular budget, which are appropriated for only as the money is received, there was received and appropriated $49,957. This represents mainly the erection of sorely needed missionary residences, school buildings, hospitals and other forms of permanent advance work.

Total Receipts—The total receipts for both regular work and specials, including legacies, etc., amounted to $670,287, an increase of $83,743 over the previous year's similar total.

The legacies received during the year amounted to $22,899. Of these and former legacies, designated and undesignated, there were used for the year's regular work $10,675, for specials $16,350.

In addition to the above, the Endowment Funds rose during the year from $299,303 to $304,- 118, an increase of $4,815; the funds on which annuities are paid, including a special contract fund of $3,490, from $88,647 to $100,951, an increase of $12,304.

It is encouraging to note that this entire Annuity Fund has been accumulated since February, 1915, such funds previous to that date having been promptly used in the work and counted in the current receipts.

From Living Donors—The total receipts from living donors three years ago were $527,665, two years ago $570,856, last year $640,709. The successive annual increases were in round numbers $6,500, $43,000, $70,000.

A YEAR OF STRAIN

The year just closed has been to the Foreign Mission Committee, and to every other Foreign Mission Board of America, a year of extreme difficulty and anxiety. The exchange rate of silver in the Orient required some $45,000 extra appropriation. From our African Mission, on the border of the war zone, came unexpected drafts for an extra $35,000. These major increases were further augmented by a larger cost of ocean travel, insurance, hospital supplies, freight, etc., while the world-wide rise in the cost of living is acutely embarrassing many of our missionaries. The furlough travel alone exceeded our initial appropriation by nearly $16,000. The Committee would have the Church realize how greatly the weight of its burden has been increased as a result of the conditions created by the war. It feels its need of divine guidance and most earnestly commends the situation to the careful thought of the Church as a subject of special prayer and sacrificial giving.

THE WAR AND MISSIONS

While the war has greatly increased the material cost and difficulty of conducting Foreign Missions, yet under God's mighty hand it is proving also a powerful promoter of the missionary cause.

It is lifting men's thoughts from petty concerns and forcing them to see that world issues are the dominant questions of humanity. That inveterate foe of missions, the parish-bound outlook, the blight of the provincial mind, is passing, as our eyes strain across the ocean or eagerly scan the daily record of international developments.

Under war's stern tutelage we are seeing that the real problems are universal, that they are not economic but moral. Exposed are the folly and shame of the old materialism and selfishness. We are in the training school of sacrifice. We are learning the lesson of Calvary.

Men now see that the nations are willing to risk all for the sake of ideals, that principals are the main things in life, and that an enterprise dealing not in material commodities but in the spiritually transforming forces of Jesus Christ the Son of God, is the greatest of all enterprises, the one true bond of international brotherhood, the one sure hope for humanity's future.

It is the Church's opportunity; will she rise to it,

"While God is marching on"?

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT

This department has co-operated with the Woman's Auxiliary in fostering missionary education among the women of the Church. There are many evidences of increased interest in mission study, but as the statistical figures are sent in to the Auxiliary office it is not practicable at the time this report is written to give the total number of classes and the total enrollments.

The Foreign Mission study text-books for the year 1918-19 are: "Women Workers of the Orient," by Margaret E. Burton, and "Ancient Workers at a New Task," by Willard Price, editor of "World Outlook." The Junior book is "Stories of Brotherhood," by Harold B. Hunting. No book is specially designated as a Mission Study book for men, but Willard Price's book could profitably be used for this purpose.

Six thousand copies of the Annual Report for 1916-17 were printed. Two thousand copies were bound with the reports from the other Executive Committees and the Auxiliary for ministers' libraries, etc. Something over three thousand copies have been sent out on request.

The Seven-Year Plan of Missionary Education in the Sunday Schools—This plan is now in its fourth year of operation, having been begun in the church year 1915-16 with Japan as the country under consideration. There has been substantial growth in the effectiveness of the plan and in the number of those using it. For the year 1916-17 the country was Brazil, and for the year 1917-18 the country was the Congo.

So far as we have been able to learn it is the unanimous opinion of all those who have tried the plan that it is practicable and worthy of adoption by every Sunday School.

Sunday School Foreign Mission Days, May 26, 1918, and October 27, 1918—These days are definitely set apart by the General Assembly for Foreign Missionary education in the Sunday Schools. The country chosen for the year 1918-19 is China. According to the Seven-Year Plan, all Sunday Schools are asked to study and to pray for and to give to the support of our China Missions this year.

Interesting and varied programs with abundant material to carry them out have been provided and mite boxes and envelopes for gathering the offering. Material will also be supplied to those schools that wish to study our China Missions on other dates of their own choosing. Samples and descriptions of all these supplies have been sent to all of the Sunday Schools whose addresses are known.

Programs and other supplies are sent only to those Sunday Schools that ask for them.

The Sunday Schools are asked to give $35,000 towards the support of our China Missions for the year 1918-19.

Following a part of the plan which has proved attractive, the amount that the Sunday Schools are asked to give this year has been divided into shares of $5.00 each, and certificates of stock are issued to Sunday Schools, Sunday School classes or departments, and to individuals for any number of whole shares.

Effort and pains on the part of teachers and officers will enable scholars in any Sunday School to realize each part of the work of our China Missions as their own work and each missionary as their own worker.

Some Sunday Schools have undertaken definite parts of the foreign work, such as shares in a station, or school, or hospital, or the salary in part or in whole of a particular missionary. It is not intended to interfere in any way with these pledges. The schools that have pledges should, however, use the China literature for their educational profit, and they should pray for the China work definitely and often, their gifts being applied on their own pledges.

Is it possible for every Sunday School to use the plan? Yes, most emphatically. It is true that every school can, because every kind of school has used the plan successfully. There will always be need of adapting details to the special circumstances in each school, but the general principles can be applied everywhere.

There is danger of putting the emphasis on the wrong part of the plan; it is not primarily a money-raising plan, but a plan for missionary education. A part of the plan has to do with giving, because giving has a place in missionary education. There is no permanent impression without opportunity for expression. The place to put the emphasis is on the first two parts of the plan. A large and accurate knowledge of the facts about China and our China Missions, and definite earnest prayer on behalf of these Missions are the things that will count most. If we have this kind of study and prayer the gifts will come as naturally as the flowers and the fruit come after the sunshine and the rain.

Christian Endeavor Societies—Our office is in touch with nearly 1,000 Christian Endeavor societies. In co-operation with the Executive Committee of Home Missions we have furnished three societies programs for each of the six missionary meetings of 1918, as provided in the regular Christian Endeavor schedule. Four of these meetings are Foreign Mission meetings and two are Home Mission meetings.

In addition to Dr. and Mrs. Thos. T. Stixrud, of our Congo Mission at Lucbo, who were appointed Christian Endeavor missionaries last year, the Committee has appointed Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin H. Hunicutt, of our East Brazil Mission at Lavras, as Christian Endeavor missionaries, and unless there are definite instructions to the contrary all pledges and gifts from Christian Endeavor societies are counted on the support of the Christian Endeavor missionaries. The practice of sending quarterly letters from the Christian Endeavor missionaries to all societies is continued and these quarterly letters are sent as regularly as the uncertain conditions of foreign mail will permit.

Blue Ridge Missionary Conference—This missionary conference, which has been conducted under the auspices of the Missionary Education Movement of the United States and Canada for fifteen years, has done for our Church a service that it would be hard to over-estimate. Many of the leaders in missionary work in our various churches have been developed by attending this conference one or more years. The conference for 1918 will be held at Blue Ridge, N. C., June 25th through July 4th, and our Committee is pledged to hearty co-operation and active support.

Montreat Young People's Conference—Under the auspices of the four Executive Committees and the Woman's Auxiliary there was held at Montreat last summer from June 28th to July 8th the first Young People's Conference, at which considerably more than 200 delegates were enrolled. For ten days these young people studied earnestly and diligently the work of our Church in all of its departments.

The second Young People's Conference will be held at Montreat June 27 through July 7, 1918, and our Committee has had a large part in forming the plans for this conference and will actively participate in the conference itself.

Co-operative Support—The Foreign Mission Committee continues to pay, out of the receipts from women's societies, 55½ per cent of the cost of the Assembly branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, and out of its general receipts 40 per cent of the cost of the Assembly's Stewardship Committee, the rest of the cost being paid by the three other Executive Committees. To the four Committees the total cost last year of the two was approximately $12,000, $6,000 for each.

$3,000,000 Drive—The Executive Committee of Foreign Missions has co-operated with the other Executive Committees in promoting the $3,000,000 campaign, offering the services of its officers and appropriating by unanimous vote to the campaign's expenses the $8 000 apportioned to and requested of the Foreign Mission Committee by the Assembly's Committee on Stewardship.

The Foreign Mission Committee desires to put on record its appreciation of the zeal and ability of the campaign's Central Committee and of the scores of co-operating leaders throughout the Church. We would make special mention of the heroic initiative and devotion of the campaign's Chairman, Mr. J. B. Spillman, and of the rare gifts of organization and leadership shown by its Managing Director, Mr. Wade C. Smith.

We believe that the united movement thus inaugurated and led for bringing the benevolences of our Church up to a more nearly adequate figure should be continued along the lines that experience would indicate as most wise and fruitful, and thereto we pledge our hearty co-operation and the active aid of our Secretaries.

APPRECIATION

We most warmly appreciate the cordial and highly efficient aid of the Woman's Auxiliary and societies. To the Auxiliary Superintendent, to the Synodical and Presbyterial leaders, to the officers and members of the local societies, we herewith express our gratitude for timely help.

To the Presbyterial Secretaries of Foreign Missions we are especially indebted for their invaluable and self-denying co-operation with our Committee in the carrying out of its missionary plans.

We warmly appreciate the co-operation of pastors and Synodical Chairmen of Foreign Missions.

We would make special mention of the nobly faithful and efficient aid received from Presbyterial Chairman of Foreign Missions in the promotion of the cause throughout their respective Presbyteries.

To our beloved missionaries on furlough who have so freely given of their time and strength in addressing churches and Presbyterials, and in itinerating through Presbyteries, we express our deep and grateful sense of the value of their services.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That classes be organized in all the churches to study either "Working Women of the Orient," by Margaret E. Burton, or "Ancient Workers at a New Task," by Willard Price, the two adult text-books recommended for the current church year.

2. That the Seven-Year Plan of Missionary Education in the Sunday Schools be again approved, and that pastors and Sessions be urged to throw all the weight of their influence toward securing missionary education in the Sunday Schools according to this plan, and especially toward lining up every Sunday School in the China campaign for this year.

3. That the Assembly again urge upon individuals and upon churches, societies, Sunday Schools and Sunday School classes that each, wherever practicable, assume definite obligation for some definite part of our Foreign Mission work, giving preference to the support of work abroad already undertaken by the Committee and of missionaries already on the field.

4. That the Assembly again appoint at some suitable date in the last quarter of the church year a Foreign Mission season of prayer, preaching and self-denial. The Committee is satisfied that such a season is a vitally important factor in the missionary education and development of our people and in the support of our work.

Not all of October is assigned by the Assembly to Foreign Missions. It seems hardly just that the cause which carries the largest responsibility should be assigned by the Assembly only one month and a part of another. The Committee feels, therefore, that its request for this additional season is a reasonable one.

5. That the General Assembly call the attention of the whole Church to the greatly increased difficulty and cost (due to war conditions) of carrying on the Foreign Mission work and the consequent necessity, at this time, of special prayer and sacrificial giving.

EGBERT W. SMITH,
Executive Secretary.

IV. Report on Home Missions

OPERATIONS OF THE YEAR

Financial Survey—For a period of years the increase invariably over the previous year has been so uniform and remarkable as to attract special attention of the Church and the unqualified commendation of the General Assembly; but the past year breaks all records, showing an increase in contributions from every source—Churches, Sabbath Schools, societies, individuals and legacies. The total amount received for the year was $233,990.73, an advance of $40,627.25 over last year.

Legacies have been unusual and, together with the liberal response of God's people, have enabled the Committee completely to wipe out the indebtedness incurred in 1914, due to the unexpected financial crisis provoked by the sudden European war. This gratifying gain is, however, more than offset by the reduced purchasing power of money. As a consequence, the missionaries, while receiving the full salaries promised according to the schedule of previous years, are nevertheless embarrassed by the high cost of living. It is practically equivalent to reducing their salaries almost 50 per cent, instead of the increase of 25 per cent which the Assembly approved three years ago. Consequently their present salaries are nearly 75 per cent below the judgment of the Assembly in estimating their needs.

For several years in succession the Systematic Beneficence Committee after most painstaking investigation of needs has recommended and the Assembly has called for an amount necessary to carry on the work adequately on its present basis; but the response from the churches has fallen nearly 30 per cent below the estimate. Some, giving the matter but superficial consideration, have concluded the need was overestimated, because the Committee managed to carry on the work without involving the Church in debt; but they have overlooked two factors of the equation—the cost to the missionaries who have sustained the loss, and the cost in the efficiency of service due to the lack of adequate equipment for conserving results.

Specials—A disturbing factor is the persistent and growing tendency, repeatedly discouraged by the Assembly on the part of churches, societies and individuals, requesting that their gift be diverted to some special object outside of the budget of appropriations. In most cases the object is good and worthy, but it constitutes as a committee on appropriations the donors themselves, who from the nature of the cases are unacquainted with the relative and frequently more imperative needs of other places. Those thus favored by "specials" due to suggestions ordinarily from the beneficiaries are given undue and occasionally unjustifiable advantage over their brethren in other spheres of service.

It cultivates a spirit of independency which operates against the regular and systematic work of the Church and embarrasses the Committee in its purpose to equalize salaries and promote the work as one indivisible whole. It occasionally names as a beneficiary some child who has not been in school for several years and in many cases diverts Home Mission funds into channels of purely Christian education. If individuals insist on a special object for their benefactions, the Executive Committee is more than pleased to name a number of alternatives, provided in the budget, for their intelligent choice. Carried to its legitimate consequences, if all churches and societies insist on specific objects even in the budget, it would leave the general work of the Church unprovided with support and would forever stop all advance movements of a general nature.

Distinctive Character—The desire for "specials" involves the whole subject of the distinctive character of the missionary obligation assigned to the Executive Committee. The needy and exceptional classes included in the Assembly's may be similar in some respects to Local Home Missions, but transcends that more restricted sphere. Assembly's Home Missions knows no such boundaries as State lines, but takes into consideration human need anywhere which cannot be provided for by local support. Those therefore who insist upon their benefactions being expended in their own State or Synod have no proper conception of the specific responsibility of Assembly's Home Missions, which exists for the sole purpose of uniting the whole Church in a common fellowship of service. It is more than legitimate, it is pre-eminently praiseworthy to give earnest heed to the need that is nearest our own door in Synod or Presbytery, but it is provincial and unsympathetic not to regard the Church as one indivisible whole and not to be willing for the stronger and more favored sections to respond unreservedly to the Macedonian cry of need in any section of our undivided Church, no matter how remote from our own section. It is this supreme consideration which has called into being the agency of Assembly's Home Missions for specific and fundamental work which cannot be undertaken by any local organization and which is entitled to the loyal support of all the constituent parts.

Indirect Results—The beneficial influence of Assembly's Home Missions does not terminate in the splendid results achieved in its own specific sphere, but serves in a larger work of inspiration and promotion, stimulating the whole life of the Church, manifest in intangible and indirect results. This will appear by taking into consideration the fact that the Executive Committee finances the entire Home Mission responsibility of conducting with the other Executive agencies the Woman's Auxiliary, as well as the whole expense of Home Mission Week, though it does not receive the entire returns from these sources, but instead Local Home Missions and other needs so near to the heart and so vital to the life of the Church come in for a large share of the response to this inspirational campaign of promotion.

Economy of Administration—The demands of the field are so urgent that the Executive Committee is compelled to scrutinize with the utmost care every dollar of expenditure, which necessitates a reduction of the cost of administration to the lowest terms consistent with efficiency; and it challenges comparison with any business corporation or religious agency as to administrative percentage of conducting the work. This is revealed by a comparison of receipts and expenditures in its own specific work; but doubly evident if the additional fact enters into the calculation that a large percentage of its work of promotion does not show up in the receipts reaching its treasury, and the department of Assembly's Home Missions is more than willing to serve the Church in this larger sphere of inspirational service.

The Effect of the War—In common with other nations our country is involved in a world conflict. Unfortunately the chief participants are the Christian nations, which places Christianity on the defensive against the reproaches of sceptics and heathen. Socialism, especially in its avowed opposition to war, plumes itself upon its attitude as occupying superior vantage ground over Christianity. This accentuates anew the supreme task of the Church to-day of christianizing Christendom. It is none too soon to begin the essential work of adequate preparedness for the changed conditions now confronting and to a certain extent endangering the vitality of the Church. Even now, during the conduct of the war, the spiritual character of the Church is being subjected to the acid tests of genuineness. "Those ancient foes"—materialism, commercialism and worldliness—lose nothing of their neutralizing influence, while the Church itself is weakened in its resisting power by the subtle suggestion of the paramount importance of the issues of the day. The Church must steel itself like flint in the steadfastness of its spiritual character and in the fulfilment of its missionary purpose. The exhortation of the apostle, however apt in the early days of Christianity, seems inspired for the present-day crisis: "Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong."

Spiritual Results—Moral values cannot be estimated in numerals, and spiritual dividends cannot be computed by mathematics. They are alike intangible and "of all things least like what men agree to praise." Statistics are so unsatisfactory, attended with such temptation to padding and with such possibility of misleading the unwary by manipulation in the hands of shrewd jugglers of figures, that the Executive Committee does not attach undue importance to this subject; and yet some compilation of facts and figures are essential and demanded by the Church as an exhibit of results for funds expended, and as some indication of the progress of the work.

In response, therefore, to questionnaires sent to Presbyterial Chairmen and Missionaries on the field definite data has been collected, systematized and is hereby tabulated for the study of the discriminating.

SUMMARY FOR 1917

Funds Raised	$233,990.73 from churches, societies, Sabbath Schools and individuals for the various phases of Assembly's Home Missions, as well as promoting other branches of service, whose receipts did not come into our treasury.
Supported (In whole or in Part)	694 missionaries, including their wives, on the frontier, in the mountains, among the negroes, foreigners and other dependent and exceptional classes.
Nationalities Served	10, Mexicans, Cubans, French, Italians, Bohemians, Hungarians, Poles, Syrians, Chinese and Italians.
Colored Aided	33 ordained ministers, serving 71 churches and missions with 2,800 members and a constituency of 5,000.
Mountain Workers	213, including evangelists, pastors, teachers, Bible women, serving 149 stations, with 2,063 pupils, 2,419 Sabbath School scholars, making 5,106 pastoral calls, collecting $1,045 in tuition and $4,930 from friends, and reaching with the gospel message 65,000 people of the mountains.
Mission Schools Conducted	40, for dependent classes taught by 125 teachers with 2,500 scholars having an equipment of 2,000 acres of land and 100 buildings, valued at $400,000 and whose current expenses amount to $75,000.
Institutions Maintained	Theological Seminary for colored ministers at Tuscaloosa, Alabama; College for Indians at Durant, Oklahoma; school for Negroes at Abbeville, South Carolina, and a hospital and an orphanage feature in connection with Highland School at Guerrant, Kentucky.
Aided	By donation and loans 21 churches and schools to the extent of $24,088.84.
Received	5,351 on profession of faith through our missionaries and 2,485 by certificate.
Evangelism	Supported 15 evangelists and aided as many others, assisted in support of superintendent, conducted 40 conferences and held 72 evangelistic meetings.

Co-operated With other agencies in supporting the Campaign Committee, Woman's Auxiliary, Missionary Survey and the Home Missions Council.

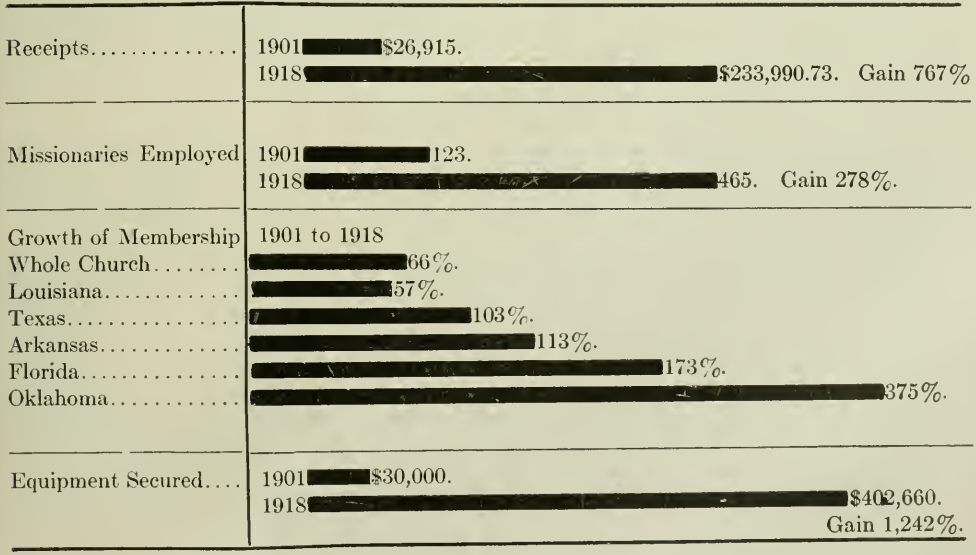
Promoted Home Mission Week by furnishing literature to churches, programs of exercises for societies, and paying all the expense connected therewith.

Sustained in Whole Two entire presbyteries conducted in foreign languages, Indian Presbytery in Oklahoma with 20 missionaries, 22 churches, and 600 communicants, and Texas-Mexican Presbytery with 10 missionaries, 23 churches, and 1,300 communicants, and the Snedecor Memorial Synod for colored people.

Totals (Estimated in Part) 36,000 sermons preached by our missionaries, 25,000 pastoral visits, 665 churches and stations supplied which raised $171,634 for self-support and contributed $41,135 to the benevolences of the church, received 5,351 on profession of faith and instructed 50,000 people each Sabbath of the year.

COMPARATIVE SURVEY

It is sometimes difficult to determine whether an individual, an institution, or even the church itself is making progress or marking time. Standing on the beach and watching the tide ebb and flow, it is impossible to know for the moment whether it is coming in or going out, but given a sufficient lapse of time and the incoming tide will demonstrate the fact by reaching higher marks and show progress on the whole. In like manner it may not always be known by one year's record whether there has been gain or loss in the conduct of the work. For this reason a comparison is hereby instituted which takes account of the years of the Twentieth Century, and this period of only seventeen years shows startling results in the development of Assembly's Home Missions, and in the growth of the Missionary Synods as compared with the whole Church. Nothing else approaches it in comparison.



At the beginning of the present century Assembly's Home Missions was synonymous with the West, Texas being its chief responsibility. At the present time it is conducting on a much larger scale eight distinct Departments, and Texas has so developed under the Assembly's fostering care towards self-support, that the West no longer occupies the supreme place, and the single department of mountain work alone now overshadows amounts expended in Texas. While the Executive Committee still makes large appropriations for the West, the contributions from that source render it almost self-supporting. The East cannot longer complain of the burden of supporting the West, for but a small percentage of Home Mission money now crosses the Mississippi, and that insignificant amount is exceeded many times over by the contributions of Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma and Texas to the general benevolences of the church.

REVIEW OF DEPARTMENTS

Every Synod composing the Assembly is now receiving assistance in some form from Assembly's Home Missions in proportion to the dependent classes within its bounds; but no Synod or Presbytery is receiving aid at all proportioned to its needs. The income of the Executive Committee according to the estimate submitted is not sufficient to meet one-fourth of the demands of the work awaiting development.

EVANGELISTIC

The first service rendered a community, or stated in another form, the initial effort to relieve spiritual destitution, is necessarily in the sphere of evangelism. In practical application to the needs of humanity, it is "the beginning of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of God," in new fields of service. Without this "beginning," sustentation, church erection and other church activities are superlative.

As a constituent factor of Assembly's Home Missions the subject of Evangelism is divided into two parts—General and Special. The former has been carried on by the Assembly from its separate existence as a church fifty-seven years ago, and in relative importance exceeds all the other seven departments combined, both in its fundamental character and in the magnitude of its scope. In prosecuting this phase of the work the Committee maintains evangelists for the frontier, for Foreigners, for Negroes, for Mountaineers and for Indians, these constituting the dependent classes in special need of evangelizing.

An enumeration of them shows a force of three Synodical Evangelists, twelve Presbyterial, in addition to dozens of others, who might with equal propriety be classified in either department of evangelism or sustentation, considering the character of the service rendered. These are the men, "with empires in their brain," who are the builders of the spiritual commonwealth, "of whom the world was not worthy," but who will eventually be crowned "with glory, honor and immortality." Beyond all question their faithful labors account for the largest growth of our Church, which for a period of years has without exception led all denominations.

In addition to this general work which covers every section of the country, nearly four years ago there was inaugurated a special sphere of service for stimulating the spirit of evangelism throughout the Church. Rev. W. H. Miley, D. D. was elected superintendent and hereby presents that phase of the subject.

Special Evangelism—"We are glad to report again this year a growing interest in the cause of Evangelism, and a general awakening to its importance throughout the Church. The Moderator of one of our strongest and most conservative Synods writes: Few reports presented at Synod aroused more lively interest than the one presented by Synod's Committee on Evangelism. Similar testimonies could be given from many Synods and Presbyteries.

"The Department of Evangelism has regarded as its chief work, with the co-operation of committees and pastors, the stimulating of this spirit of evangelism through every organized agency of the Church, by correspondence, the use of literature, educational and inspirational work in Synods, Presbyteries, churches, schools, societies and conferences formal and informal."

Brief Summary of the Work of the Assembly Evangelists—Rev. Dr. J. E. Thacker reports as follows:

422 sermons and addresses.
7,485 professed reconsecration.
420 to unite with the Church by letter.
1,169 to unite with the Church on profession of faith.

32 expressed purpose to study for the ministry.

Rev. G. W. Belk delivered 354 sermons, witnessed 169 professions, 11 letters brought in, and 345 reconsecrations.

Rev. Geo. F. Robertson preached 365 times, held 17 meetings with 168 confessions and 1,065 reconsecrations. He tendered his resignation as a General Assembly Evangelist, in order to accept a pastoral charge.

In addition to the office work and a general oversight of the whole cause, the superintendent has addressed Synods, Presbyteries, churches, conferences, schools and societies 276 times, has received into the Church on profession of faith 214, and by letter 56, and has witnessed 1,573 reconsecrations.

Respectfully submitted,
W. H. MILEY, Superintendent."

SUSTENTATION

The logical result of evangelistic effort is sustentation. The most helpless creature born into the world is a child, and each would perish inevitably but for the nourishing care of parent, which must be continued during a long period of years. It is equally true of an infant church which in most cases is dependent upon the sustaining arms of the mother church during the period of adolescence. Each new organization is subjected to two severe tests. One is the impatience of the mother in her desire to see it stand alone and promptly shift for itself. The other ordeal that tests its new-born life is the difficulty of securing a suitable pastor who has faith in its future and is willing to make personal sacrifices and wait patiently for its development into self support. Always there is the possibility that adverse circumstances may forever dwarf it and final failure overtake it, and its pastor must take the risk of being identified with its misfortunes and adjudge himself a failure according to the human estimate of success as shown in results.

Many of the strongest churches in our communion are the result of such sacrifices on the part of home missionaries, and on the contrary many of the most signal church failures were once bright with promise but lacked the nourishing care of consecrated men and the sustaining arms of the whole Church at the critical moment in their organic life. The object of this argument is to awaken substantial appreciation in behalf of these struggling churches and their devoted pastors during the period of their mutual trial.

THE FRONTIER

Terms change meanings by common usage. Frontier is a state or condition and not a section of country. It may be located in the heart of the mountains or it may exist in the slums of a great city. It is being considered in this connection as equivalent to the West.

Arkansas—From the viewpoint of the Presbyterian Church, U. S., Arkansas is in the West, but geographically it is near to the center of the continent and in the very heart of the great Mississippi valley. In area it covers 52,525 square miles and has an estimated population in 1918 of 1,800,000.

It contains 122 churches of our faith and order with 10,985 communicants, which have made commendable progress, but are an insignificant part comparatively of the religious forces needed for christianizing this splendid commonwealth. It is true there are churches of other Presbyterian bodies, but perhaps not as many as 15 such are fully self-supporting. It is a great field for Home Mission effort.

Louisiana—In area, population, fertility, strength of Presbyterianism, and contributions to the benevolences of the Church, Louisiana is almost an exact duplicate of Arkansas. The religious status in this State is, however, greatly complicated by the strength and activity of Roman Catholicism and a large admixture of foreign speaking people. It contains several whole parishes without a Protestant organization or Missionary. New Orleans alone contains about 200,000 papists, and the Presbyterian Church, the strongest Protestant body in the city, has less than 5,000. From the viewpoint of need, complex situation and difficulties nothing in our bounds exceeds it as a field for Home Mission operations.

Texas—In speaking of the "Empire State of the South," it is scarcely necessary to name Texas. It has no rival claimant in area, population, diversity of climate or crops. Its coal fields, oil and gas lands, untouched forests, cattle ranches, uncultivated virgin soil, vegetable and citrous-fruit industries, extent of railroad mileage and undeveloped resources—all conspire to place it in a class by itself, without any risk of its claims being disputed. Its population is nearing perhaps 5,000,000 and it is capable of supporting 100,000,000. Its present population is not only a conglomerate of all the States in the Union, but it has a rapidly increasing foreign element, containing a half million Mexicans alone in addition to dozens of other nationalities. It is subject in some sections to severe drought, and southwest Texas has just passed through an unprecedented experience. Its cattle have died for lack of pasturage and water. Its farms have not produced the seed that was planted in its arid soil. Its home mission churches have been practically paralyzed and its missionaries have suffered with their people. For years it has been approaching self-support, and will some day repay with compound interest all the investments expended by the Church on this fruitful Home Mission field.

Oklahoma—Everything said of climate, soil, variety of crops, oil, coal and undeveloped resources will apply equally well to Oklahoma with its 70,000 square miles, larger than any State east of the Mississippi. It still bears the unique distinction of leading all States of the Union in the proportion of population out of the church, aggregating 82 per cent.

Our Church in Oklahoma is comparatively weak but an examination of the progress of the Church since the beginning of the Twentieth Century, shown elsewhere, will reveal the fact that Oklahoma has made greater progress than any section of the country. Its total church membership now is approaching 4,000, which was exactly the strength of Florida Synod in 1900. Our Church is greatly needed in that State, if the fact is taken into consideration that the other branch of the Presbyterian Church in the State, while much larger, yet has not made great progress in the past few years, and is burdened with a large number of vacant churches which it is seemingly unable to shepherd. This entails upon us a responsibility for meeting our proportionate share of the spiritual needs of this marvelous State.

Florida—As an illustration of the frontier in the East, Florida will serve the purpose admirably. It contends with Georgia for the place of "largest State east of the Mississippi." The statement is repeatedly appearing in public prints that Florida is growing faster in population than any State in the Union. The estimate of population for present year gives it nearly one million. Over a million tourists go to Florida each year.

MOUNTAIN WORK

Various estimates as to area, population and destitution are given by different parties in the effort to ascertain facts and conditions bearing upon the mountain problem.

The following is the substance of the annual report of Rev. J. W. Tyler, Superintendent:

"Within the bounds of our Assembly and under its Executive Committee, its Synods and Presbyteries, and under more local control we have about 45 mission schools and stations, or centers. These are all missionary in spirit and, while endeavoring to give the best instruction in their class rooms, are designed to be active agents of Christian life and evangelism. All these can claim the personal help and the office service of the superintendent of Mountain Work, who assists them in securing teachers and workers and in interesting the churches and individuals in their support.

"Eleven of the schools and eleven mission centers, without the school feature, are under the immediate personal supervision of the superintendent of Mountain Work. From these, preachers, teachers and Sunday School and community workers go out into the adjoining territory and conduct Sunday School and community work.

"Our schools are generally full of pupils and the Sunday Schools are splendidly attended as a rule. In some of them in propitious weather the buildings are overcrowded and the Sunday School classes are taught in the various rooms of the mission cottages and on the mountain side.

"In the department of the superintendent's personal supervision we have 53 day and high school teachers. These all labor in Sabbath School and church work. Besides these there are 24 who do not conduct day school but are Sabbath School missionaries and community workers. We also have 13 preachers, counting the superintendent. We have had several summer workers temporarily in the places of those who were taking vacation. This gives us about 80 workers on the pay roll, while a number give their services free of charge to us. These workers report 455 additions to the Church, about 90 of these by letter and renewal of confession. The Sabbath School enrollment was 2,649 and the day school enrollment was 951. The workers made 5,106 calls of a pastoral nature during the year. These missions report $887.83 contributed for outside mission work and $2,017.62 for current expenses. We manned 55 mission points, and the gospel was preached to more than 65,000 people. Tuition was collected amounting to $1,045.16."

FOREIGN SPEAKING PEOPLE

It has been customary to speak of the South as the purest Anglo-Saxon section of the world. For many decades the streams of immigration did not flow southward. Soon after the beginning of the twentieth century the invading army reached a million annually and a percentage made its way so gradually and quietly into the South that they had occupied our great cities before the fact was appreciated and their presence began to be felt. Not even then did we awake to the significance of the movement that had almost overnight changed the complexion of our people and modified our claim to Anglo-Saxon exclusiveness. The department of Home Missions for foreigners expanded suddenly into work for twelve nationalities and entitled it to be designated as "Foreign Missions at home." However, it required the entrance of our country into the world war to startle us with facts confronting us.

One illustration is sufficient to emphasize a condition unknown even to the best informed. Camp Gordon at Atlanta, Georgia, contains twenty-six nationalities. A corporal drilling a squad of eleven men found that they spoke nine languages. The Y. M. C. A. secretary sent off one order to the Bible Society for New Testaments in nineteen different tongues. This state of things is not peculiar to this one of our thirty-two camps.

It was reported to the recent meeting of the Home Missions Council in New York that there are about 1,400 Chinese, 100 Japanese, 200 Koreans, 300 Filipino, 150 Indian, 2,000 Latin-American and 200 Armenian young men and women pursuing their studies in the United States for a period of from one to eight years. In addition, there are student representatives from practically all of the European countries who should be brought into contact with their countrymen in the United States. Many of these students are the product of mission schools—others are prejudiced against Christian missionary work—practically all of them have some knowledge of the program, methods and activity of our missionary societies.

Indians—The Indian population of the United States is 335,753. Oklahoma contains more than one-third of the whole, 119,108. The English-speaking Indians are 116,405, and 78,951 are full citizens of the United States. Protestant churches among them number 460, with a communicant roll of 31,665. Their missionaries are 212 white and 221 natives. It is estimated that 100,000 additional are adherents of Christianity, and 49,000 are unprovided with gospel privileges. About 2,500 are now in the army ready to serve their country at the expense of life, if necessary.

The work under the jurisdiction of our Assembly is prospering, as will be seen by the report of Rev. E. Hotchkin, evangelist of Indian Presbytery:

"Active organized churches	19
Unorganized preaching points	5
White missionaries	4
Native missionaries	11
Native licentiates and candidates	4
Communicants	600
Sabbath School enrollment (about)	800
People subject to our ministry	5,000
Church property, value of	$20,000.00
Property of Goodland school	30,000.00
Four manse buildings	9,000.00

"The work of the Presbytery for this year shows an average progress. There have been hindering causes, sickness, death, opposition and indifference. These things have been met heroically and faithfully. All fields have been regularly supplied and practically every church has had a ten-days' meeting."

Oklahoma Presbyterian College—No institution in the Church serves a more useful purpose, and none stands higher in the great State of Oklahoma. It has a plant and equipment valued at $100,000, occupying a commanding position in the suburbs of Durant, where it can be seen for miles in any approach to the town on the various railroads converging at this point. The local friends who made such sacrifices for its erection have again shown their love for it and faith in its future by subscribing over $12,000 for a new dormitory, which would double its capacity, income and usefulness. This amount awaits the action of the Church in raising a similar amount to make it effective.

President W. B. Morrison should be accorded full recognition for his heroic service in standing by this institution, although offered prominent and lucrative positions in the educational world elsewhere. Both he and this institution deserve the sympathies and substantial support of the whole church for their work's sake, evident from this partial report:

"Enrollment to date, 125. Of these students, 82 have been boarders, 21 regular day pupils, and 22 specials in piano, expression, etc., 67 have Indian blood, varying in degree, 51 of the number being Presbyterian by membership or preference. There have been 16 professions of faith among students, most of them joining some church. This means that nearly all the enrollment has been reached in a spiritual way. As usual, the greatest number of girls come from eastern Oklahoma."

Totals—In the Foreign Department there are eighty missionaries, serving eleven nationalities in eighty-five churches and stations, having according to the last report 2,906 members and 3,450 Sabbath school scholars.

COLORED EVANGELIZATION

In the educational sphere the negro has made the greatest attainments and by the greatest number. From 90 per cent illiterate to 30 per cent measures his progress as a race in fifty years, which is far in advance of some other backward people in our country. The private schools, established and maintained for educating negroes, number 625, costing something over $3,000,000 annually, 354 of these being maintained by white denominations.

The chief thing about the negro is his religion. It not only ministers to his spiritual nature, but it furnishes almost the sole means of cultivating his social instincts. Unfortunately, moving pictures and other similar diversions now compete with his church in this respect, much to his disadvantage. Admitted even by himself, his religion is highly emotional and judged by his neighbors is devoid of high moral standards. Nearly 50 per cent (4,700,000) of the entire colored population is connected with some branch of the church.

During the fall of 1916 the most remarkable exodus took place in which hundreds of negroes emigrated North. Inquiry of the Bureau of Information at Washington as to their number brought the reply that the subject was under investigation and no definite answer could be given at present. The general consensus of opinion estimates the number at from 100,000 to 500,000. It has created a scarcity of labor in some sections of the South and interrupted the normal conditions of things at least temporarily. It has likewise created a problem at the North, resulting in mobbing of negroes and murders on a scale never equalled in the South. This exodus will at least give the North opportunity to study the negro at close range and to put in practice theories and advice which they have furnished the South. All sections should unite in the demand that the negro be treated as a man, with liberty to go and come, the right to labor without hindrance, the right to full police protection, and equal justice in the courts, entitled to sympathy in his environments and to help in his necessities and to all the blessings of the gospel of the Son of God.

For Stillman Institute the year now passing has been prosperous in all particulars. In the first place, our dormitories have been crowded. All rooms used last year were soon filled; rooms never before used for students had to be furnished for sleeping rooms. Our capacity is now taxed to the limit.

The new students are in almost all cases of excellent ability and the classes have been doing very good work.

Rev. W. A. Young, Evangelist—For several years the Executive Committee has been employing Rev. W. A. Young an an evangelist, giving all his time and attention to the work of strengthening the colored churches, and his report gives an account of his stewardship:

"I am praying that the great majority of my people may return to the farm and put their foot on the high cost of living, help America, and 'make the world safe for democracy' and help stamp out autocracy. Since the world is awake, may the Church awake to her duty in the great task.

MISSION SCHOOLS

Elsewhere in this report will be found a list of thirty-one mission schools in the mountains, supported in whole or in part by the Executive Committee. Presbyteries or Synods are supporting other such mountain schools, supplementing the Assembly's work. In addition to these, the Executive Committee is assisting several others for foreigners, Indians and negroes, making a total in round numbers of forty mission schools, with 125 teachers, 2,500 scholars, the support of which amounts to $75,000. About $65,000 of this is furnished by the Executive Committee.

In a sense this is a contribution to Christian Education, but it is not intended primarily for that object. Most of this expended by the Home Mission Committee is as a matter of fact in behalf of our Sustentation work. By establishing and maintaining these schools for destitute communities, it is in almost every instance in connection with some struggling church, the chief object of the school being to train a native leadership as the surest and speediest method of bringing the Church to self-support.

CHURCH ERECTION

In this department is included the erection and equipment of houses of worship, manses, dormitories and academies, whether by special donation or loan from the Building and Loan Fund.

Donations—By reason of our indebtedness and the demands for living salaries the Committee has been under necessity of declining all applications for donations except in the cases of a few feeble churches erecting very inexpensive buildings. The preference must always be given promises made for support of the missionaries and their families. In addition to these small donations, the special funds from Home Mission Week for equipment have been used for enlargement, repair or better equipment of our Mission schools.

Loan Funds—By constant circulation our small building funds have rendered valuable service in promoting church buildings. By careful management not a dollar of these trust funds has ever been lost, but on the contrary increased by use. The Moore Fund has grown from $5,000 to $6,910; the Manse Fund, from $4,207 to $6,400; and the Semi-Centennial Fund now aggregates $30,000. Under our supervision and suggestion wills have been written, copies of which are in the office, bequeathing substantial sums for this department, which will be available in the future. One generous friend has promised the last $10,000 of the $100,000 authorized by the Assembly.

Permanent Equipment—Nothing reveals the quiet but substantial growth of Assembly's Home Missions in a more striking way than the accumulation of loan funds, the possession of valuable properties and the better permanent equipment of various important and strategic mission fields throughout the bounds of the whole Church. At the beginning of this twentieth century the possessions of Assembly's Home Missions in the form of funds, buildings and real estate amounted to scarcely $30,000. At the present time, after lapse of seventeen years, the Executive Committee has permanent funds and titles to church properties aggregating $402,660. This amount is distributed as follows:

Permanent Funds	$105,060.00
Church Buildings and Manses	82,500.00
Oklahoma Presbyterian College	100,000.00
Mountain Missions	58,900.00
Stillman Institute	50,000.00
Real Estate	5,200.00
Memorial Bond	1,000.00

CAMPAIGN OF EDUCATION

The marvelous growth of Assembly's Home Missions and the development of the work shown elsewhere, are due largely to the persistent efforts to furnish information to the Church as to the needs of our country and the vast possibilities involved in the opportunities beckoning on every side. This is accomplished by means of the extensive educational campaign conducted by the Secretaries, the patient and intelligent labors of the Presbyterial Secretaries of Assembly's Home Missions in the various Woman's Auxiliaries, discriminating literature, attractive charts, Home Mission pageants and stereopticon lectures.

Missions in Sabbath Schools—This campaign of education must begin with the youth in the Sabbath Schools. The children of to-day are the Church of tomorrow.

Mission Study Classes—No phase of the work has had more rapid growth than Mission Study, especially among the consecrated women of the Church in the various local Auxiliaries. During the past year the mission text-book used almost exclusively was "The Task That Challenges." Its circulation broke all records. The Presbyterian Committee of Publication, owners of the copyright, volunteers the information that more than 6,000 copies were sold in the first few weeks of the Study Period, and it became necessary to issue a second edition to supply the demand.

CO-OPERATION

By direction of the General Assembly the Executive Committee was instructed to join with other agencies in promoting the missionary, educational and benevolent operations of the Church

The Campaign of Stewardship—For the purpose of educating the whole Church as to Christian Stewardship and promoting the Every Member Canvass, the Executive Committee most heartily endorsed the financial plan and policy of the Assembly, has its representative on the Campaign Committee, and pays its proportionate share of the expense. Rev. R. L. Walkup for several years has been the efficient Secretary of this Stewardship Committee and has led the Church to higher sense of responsibility for using possessions for the glory of God and the extension of the Kingdom of Christ.

The $3,000,000 Campaign—After the meeting of the Birmingham Assembly, when the opportunities and responsibilities confronting the Church had been carefully considered, Mr. J. B. Spillman, a consecrated business man of Columbia, S. C., at his own expense in a series of striking advertisements, challenged the Synods to undertake a campaign to finance adequately the missionary and benevolent work of the Church. This amount was estimated at $3,000,000. Fourteen Synods formally accepted their quotas, and the other three have since joined in the movement. A church-wide campaign was planned under the direction of the Assembly's Stewardship Committee. The Committee of Publication generously gave the services of Mr. Wade C. Smith as Campaign Director. The Home Mission Committee bore its part of the expense and had its representative on the Special Committee, giving full time to this work.

Home Mission Week—The most practical outcome of its counsels is the annual observance of Home Mission Week throughout the nation by all denominations, the last of November, to attract the attention of the country to its fundamental needs. By endorsement of the Assembly this occasion has become of vital importance to our cause, being also the season set apart by the women of the Church for seasons of self-denial and thanksgiving. The special offerings are our only means of securing better material equipment for Mission Stations, as the regular contributions scarcely suffice to meet our obligations to men in the fields, and this leaves nothing for adequate equipment, so sorely needed to conserve the results of our missionary operations. Notwithstanding our work and expenditures in financing and advertising this campaign unfortunately the receipts are divided with other benevolences, which leaves this Committee an amount only sufficient to repair our Mission property and practically nothing for enlargement to meet the growing necessities of the mission fields.

THE CALL TO ADVANCE

The growth of Assembly's Home Missions has been steady and substantial. Its relative progress compared with other departments has been exceedingly gratifying; but measured by the needs of the country, the demands for new undertakings, and the opportunities that increasingly challenge, we fall far short of our growing responsibility. Now that our indebtedness has been wiped out, notwithstanding the conflicting cries of warring nations and the consequent appeals of patriotic and benevolent schemes for alleviating human suffering, has not the time come for the Church to see its Home Mission obligation in enlarging perspective and in intensified degree? While our brave boys "go over the top" at the risk of life for their country, we should not be content simply to "keep the home fires burning."

The cry of the "New Home Missions" is ringing in our ears and touching our hearts in behalf of those waving their hands frantically for help in all the spiritual destitutions of our homeland. We have been making investments which yielded rich dividends. Shall we not also respond in the spirit of Christ to the needs of "the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind," who "cannot recompense," in order to obtain the blessing of the Master, and so "be recompensed at the resurrection of the just"?

The battle cry of human liberty is awakening the nations of earth. Do we hear above the din and strife the higher call of the battle cry of righteousness? Shall the call for sacrifice in behalf of patriotism be more appealing than the supreme claims of lost souls?

S. L. MORRIS,
Executive Secretary.

V. Report on Christian Education and Ministerial Relief

(ABSTRACT)

With grateful recognition of the blessing of God upon the work of Christian Education and Ministerial Relief, the Executive Committee presents to the General Assembly this report of its work for the year ending March 31, 1918.

Many evidences of the favor of God have rested upon the work during the past year. On account of the great world war many interruptions have come. Scores of ministers have left their charges to become camp pastors at cantonments, to enter the Y. M. C. A. work in the United States and in the countries of our associates in the war, and to become Chaplains in the United States Army and Navy. Of our candidates for the ministry 73 have already entered the United States Army, 16 the Navy, and 8 have entered Y. M. C. A. work connected with these branches of the National service.

A SERIOUS SITUATION.

A careful study of the Church in the home-land reveals the fact that the financial support of many faithful pastors is inadequate, that we have more than 548 vacant churches, and that we need more than 237 pastors. There is also a growing need for capable men to take the places of those called away from the ranks of our foreign missionaries and to reinforce those who have too long borne the heavy strain on our far flung battle lines. In addition to this many others of our ministers have applied for (and will doubtless be appointed to) Chaplaincies in the National service, and for work in the Y. M. C. A.

Only 66 men will graduate from all of our Theological Seminaries this year. The two lower classes are very much smaller than this, and the prospects are that the first year class next fall will be greatly reduced. In the light of this fact, we are planning to present more faithfully than ever before the claims of Christ on the lives of our boys and girls and young men and young women.

FINANCIAL.

The receipts for all departments of Christian Education and Ministerial Relief to March 31, 1918, were $145,921.84 as against $285,465.57 the previous year, a decrease of $139,543.73.

This is an increase of $39,166.20 for the general fund, and a decrease of $178,709.93 in the receipts for the Endowment Fund. Last year we were in an extensive Campaign to meet the offer of a liberal elder who proposed to add $68,000 to the Endowment Fund of Ministerial Relief on condition that the Church contribute twice that amount during the year.

The following reveals the sources of these funds and furnishes a comparison with the receipts of last year:

I. EDUCATION FOR THE MINISTRY.

A careful survey of all the churches in the United States reveals the fact that in the past four or five years there has been a considerable decline in the number of candidates for the ministry. In some sections of the country this decline is so marked that it has become a matter of serious concern.

Possibly at no other time in the past century was there greater need for trained, consecrated Christian leadership than at the present. The European countries at the outbreak of the war failed to conserve the force of young men who were preparing for the various professions. Thousands of the flower of these lands were ruthlessly cut off. By the wise application of the selective draft, President Woodrow Wilson and the other leaders of our nation have consistently and constantly held that college and professional training shall be interfered with as little as is consistent with the prosecution of the war. On this account candidates for the ministry who were in the theological seminaries when the draft law became effective were exempted, and medical students and the men in technical schools were permitted, and even urged, to finish their course. Inasmuch as other denominations do not so clearly set apart their candidates for the ministry as the Reformed churches, it was thought best to exclude from the draft only the students who were already pursuing their courses in the theological schools.

We have this year, in all of our theological seminaries, 66 men in the third-year class, 45 in the second year, and 40 in the first year. We find that 97 of our candidates who were in college or at work last year have entered the service of the country. Of these, 73 are in the United States Army, 16 are in the United States Navy, and 8 are connected with the Y. M. C. A. work of the Army and Navy.

Our candidates are distributed as follows: 151 in theological seminaries, 87 in colleges, 9 in schools and academies, 3 are studying privately, 9 on account of ill health have discontinued their studies for the present, 29 are teaching and doing other forms of mission work, 36 are at work. We have been unable to secure accurate information concerning 40 others, while 97 are in the National service. This makes a total of 461 candidates on the rolls of the Presbyteries March 31, 1918. In addition to this, we have 14 young ladies in the Training School at Richmond, who are receiving aid from the funds of education for the ministry and mission service.

A CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION.

The Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church was established in 1819. The Executive Committee is planning to make a helpful use of the centennial of this important event. We hope to present to the next General Assembly an attractive and inspiring array of facts which so clearly reveal the rich blessings of God upon this agency of the Church. We ask the General Assembly to call our people to a renewed interest in this important work of raising up a Godly, trained and efficient ministry and missionary force.

LOANS TO CANDIDATES.

Complying with the directions of the last General Assembly, we have increased the amount of credit given on notes from candidates for the ministry and mission service for service rendered the Church. The amount of credit for each year's service is now the difference between the salary received and $1,000 and a manse, or $1,200 without a manse. Your Committee is of the decided opinion that this method of aiding candidates is the wisest and most helpful method of granting assistance to poor and worthy students. It has magnified the importance of the mission fields. It has given to some of the students a clearer conception of the purpose of the Church in providing these student funds. It has provided a clearer idea in the minds of others of the value of money. As authority has been given the Executive Committee, in consultation with the Presbyteries, to cancel notes of candidates where unusual circumstances arise, all danger of working any permanent hardship upon the candidates is removed. It is certainly a thing to be expected that when the Church assists these young people in their preparation for the work of the ministry they give at least a few years of self-denying labor in the mission fields of the Church.

CANDIDATES AIDED.

Applications from the Presbyteries for loans from the funds of education for the ministry and mission service to the number of 228 were received and granted by the Executive Committees The sum of $22,144.05 has been remitted to them. Of the 228 who were aided, 212 are candidate.

for the ministry, two are candidates for medical mission service, and fourteen are young women studying for special mission service.

II. MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

We have the grateful privilege of reporting that during the year just closed we have sent to the homes of our faithful ministers from the funds of Ministerial Relief $61,302.77. This is an increase of $8,528.74 over the amount remitted last year. It is the largest amount ever paid the faithful servants of Christ, who have been forced to retire both from labor and from income, in any year of the history of the Church.

THE ROLL.

We have had on the rolls of Ministerial Relief during the year 94 ministers, 155 widows, 32 afflicted orphans. In these 281 homes there are 76 little fatherless children under 14 years of age.

The 94 ministers have reached the average age of 71 years. The oldest beneficiary is 93 years of age and has been in the service of our Church sixty-five years. The youngest on the roll is 29 years of age and is now an invalid.

Of the 155 widows on the rolls of Ministerial Relief the average age is about 66, and their husbands spent in the service of the Church an average of 29 years.

AVERAGE ASSISTANCE PROVIDED.

The average assistance rendered to the 36 ministers on "The Roll of Honorably Retired Ministers" is $329.24.

The average amount paid the 58 other ministers is $286.45.

The average amount sent each of the 94 ministers is $302.79.

The average amount forwarded to each home of the 155 widows is $193.66.

The average amount furnished each of the 32 orphans is $88.20.

The average assistance to each of the 281 families on the roll is $218.16 per annum, or 60 cents a day per family.

PROMOTIONS DURING THE YEAR.

During the year ending March 31, 1918, seven ministers, seven widows and one orphan were called by the great Head of the Church to his beautiful country.

Each year a large number of our veterans are thus called away. We are forcibly reminded of the fact that what we do for these servants of God we must do quickly.

THE JUSTICE OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

Just two hundred years ago the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America began officially to recognize her responsibility for the faithful ministers who, on account of sickness or old age, were forced to retire from their labors, and of the needy widows and orphans of deceased ministers. "A Pious Fund" was gathered which was very meagre and inadequate, but which revealed the worthy purposes of our fathers. One hundred and ninety-eight years ago at a meeting of the Synod of Philadelphia four pounds sterling were appropriated for the needs of the widow of Rev. John Wilson, and the Committee was authorized during the succeeding year to add not to exceed three pounds if her necessities required it. A year later the Synod authorized its Committee to wisely invest any surplus funds that it might have, using only the income thereof for immediate needs.

Ministerial Relief is an honorable and righteous cause. Its pensioners are worthy of the benefits they receive. In no sense is there any humiliating charity connected with it. The Church owes them every cent they receive. They are in no unworthy sense "objects of charity." The Church is merely meeting its accrued liability that holds because of the fact that it claimed all the time and energies of these devoted men, called upon them to separate themselves from the sources of worldly gain and to labor on insufficient salaries in the mission fields of the Church. There are four basic elements in the office and the service of the ministry that qualify these ministers for annuities from the Church in the days of need: (1) the sacred office of the ministry; (2) the sacred self-sacrificing service of the ministry; (3) they have been underpaid and unpaid men in the ministry; (4) the Church must assume its accrued obligations to such men and meet them cheerfully and fully or stand condemned in the sight of God and man. The church that would fail in this respect makes the saddest possible mistake and must ultimately lose the respect of the world.

PENSIONS OR RELIEF.

A large number of Protestant denominations are now raising large sums of money to enable them to insure the lives of their ministers and provide definite annuities for them at the age of 65 or 70 years, or for their widows and infant children in case of death. The schemes devised are various. Some of them may meet serious difficulties.

It has been clearly demonstrated that no static fund, of moderate proportions, will adequately provide pensions or annuities for an increasing class of annuitants. There must therefore be a contributory plan devised that will induce those who expect to receive the benefits of the fund to make yearly payments to the same. Unless the Church disregards her accrued liability in the cases of the older ministers or imposes an almost prohibitive burden upon the younger men of the ministry, an enormous fund must be provided to guarantee the success of any such scheme. Your Executive Committee has made a careful study of the various plans devised and is continuing to watch the progress made.

We are fully convinced, however, that our Church is doing the right thing in continuing for the present on the old plan of relief rather than of insurance or pension. On account of the impoverished condition of our Church from the stormy days of its inception until within recent years, we have not adequately paid the debt we owe these faithful servants of Christ and our Church. These ministers are faithful, self-denying members of our Presbyterian family. They have made themselves poor for the sake of Christ and our Church. We cannot withhold from them, in the days of their weakness and need, the things that are needful for their bodily support.

INADEQUATE MINISTERIAL SUPPORT.

Some of our ministers are living on the same amount of salary as that received ten or twelve years ago. No words are needed to convince any intelligent man that such a pastor has really suffered a reduction of fifty per cent or more in his means of livelihood. For this reason we feel that the attention of the deacons and elders and the members of the Church should again be called to the solemn obligation that rests upon them.

When the minister was installed pastor of the church the members voted an affirmative answer to this question: "And do you engage to continue to him, while he is your pastor, that competent worldly maintenance which you have promised, and whatever else you may see needful for the honor of religion and his comfort among you?"

No church can prosper that fails to provide adequately for the support of the minister. The Apostle Paul declared: "Even so hath the Lord ordained that they who preach the gospel should live of the gospel."

Many of our pastors to-day are not able to meet the increased cost of living. Some of them are facing obligations that are causing deep sorrow in their hearts and homes and great embarrassment in their relations with their fellowmen. Some of them have even been forced to discontinue payments on meagre life insurance policies upon which, in some instances, they have borrowed to the limit.

These things ought not so to be. Our Committee during the year has co-operated to the fullest extent with many Presbyteries in seeking to remedy the situation. Thousands of copies of an address by Mr. Paul Penick, "The Deacon's First Responsibility," have been sent to elders and deacons. Numerous articles have been prepared for the papers.

III. THE ENDOWMENT FUND OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

The total amount of the Endowment Fund is now $547,088.63. In addition to this, $12,910 are held in "Life Annuity Funds" which, at the death of the annuitants, will be added to the Endowment Fund.

The General Assembly has urged that the Endowment Fund be made at least $1,000,000 as soon as possible, and last year directed the Executive Committee "at such time and by such means as may seem wisest to itself, be encouraged to endeavor to bring the Endowment Fund for Ministerial Relief up to $1,000,000." To meet the accrued liability to our faithful, self-denying and underpaid ministers and needy widows and orphans of the deceased ministers, this amount and more is urgently needed.

Some of the men of our Church of large means are becoming more and more enlisted in the purpose of the Church to deal honorably and honestly with these faithful servants of Christ and our Church, and we have prospects of securing large assistance from some of these. We are fully convinced that within a period of three years or less we will be able to secure this much-needed increase in the fund.

IV. SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES.

Your Committee feels that it is almost impossible to exaggerate the critical situation in which all of our educational institutions are placed at this time.

None of them in the past have been sufficiently equipped and endowed to meet the present demands in the field of education. On account of the war many of the students have been forced to leave the schools and colleges and consequent loss in student fees has resulted. Many of our institutions that have rendered important service to the Church in the past must close their doors unless their tremendous financial needs are provided for.

Some time ago the Assembly's Committee on Systematic Beneficence declared, "the equipment and endowment of the educational institutions are the most important needs of the Church at this hour."

The General Assembly last year took the following action: "That this Assembly urgently lay upon the Synods the imperatively pressing needs of our educational institutions and earnestly entreat them to persevere in measures to provide for these necessities, where measures have been taken, and where not, to inaugurate them with the least possible delay, appealing to all our people to signalize the conclusion of four hundred years of reformed life in the Church by mighty forward strides in our educational equipment."

GRATIFYING PROGRESS.

During the past three years the Presbyterians of the South have awakened to the critical condition of their educational institutions and have loyally rallied to their support.

In this period they have contributed more than $243,750 toward the payment of debts. Of this amount, $9,850 have gone to our theological seminaries, $172,900 to our colleges, and $61,000 to our junior colleges.

They have contributed for equipment and building $317,959, of which $104,755 have been given to theological seminaries, $153,297 to colleges, and $59,907 to junior colleges.

They have added to the Endowment Fund $668,230, of which $169,698 have gone to theological seminaries, and $498,532 to colleges.

This makes a total of $1,129,032 added within the past three years. In addition to this, offers of $415,000 have been made to various institutions on certain conditions that will doubtless be met. Two Bible chairs have been endowed and other colleges are hoping to soon secure full endowment.

A FIELD SECRETARY.

Acting upon the authority given by the General Assembly, the Committee last December called Rev. M. E. Melvin, D. D., of the Synod of Mississippi, to become Field Secretary of the Executive Committee of Christian Education. Dr. Melvin will assist in perfecting the educational work of the Synods and will organize and direct financial campaigns. He is now conducting a campaign for much needed funds for Westminster College in the Synod of Missouri. He will train others in this line of work and will enter other Synods as their plans and needs justify such work. His salary and expenses are borne by the institutions served.

V. THE STUDENT LOAN FUND.

The total amount of the Student Loan Fund is now $28,773.38. The total number of students receiving loans during the year is 45, of whom 23 are boys and 22 are girls. The total number of students securing loans since the founding of the loan fund is 181; of these, 102 are boys and 79 are girls. The most encouraging feature of the fund is the promptness with which the amounts borrowed are being repaid after graduation from college. The money is thus being invested in the life of one after another of the future leaders of Church and State. There is urgent need that this fund be largely and speedily increased.

PRESBYTERIAN STUDENTS AT STATE UNIVERSITIES.

Plans now being formed through the Council of Church Boards of Education with Young Men's Christian Associations and Young Women's Christian Associations and other organizations will enable us to give a more thorough and helpful oversight to students in State Institutions of higher learning.

In our own Church the Synod should be encouraged to take an increasing interest in the Christian culture of these young men and young women who are to have such a large part in shaping the future policies of the Church and of the State.

Unless the local church is fully able to provide facilities for the worship and the Christian instruction of the Presbyterian students gathered at these centers the whole State should contribute promptly and liberally to meet the need. These students are gathered together not from one community or Presbytery, but from all parts of the entire Commonwealth and will carry with them the thoughts, the purposes, and the manner of life that have been developed while in the university community.

A THREE YEARS' PROGRAM.

The Executive Committee, desiring to further the interests committed to it by the General Assembly in the most thorough and systematic way, suggests that the following program for the next three years be approved:

1. That the Executive Committee, through carefully planned and sustained efforts, see that all the youth of the Church are brought face to face with the problem of their life's work, so that they may be able more clearly to discern God's plan for their lives. In order to accomplish this much desired end the Executive Committee is permitted to call into co-operation other agencies of the General Assembly, Synods, Presbyteries and the churches. To this end larger use shall be made of sermons, addresses and literature in churches, Sunday schools, high schools, colleges and universities.

2. That the Student Loan Fund of the Church be increased during this period to at least $250,000. As the purpose of this fund is two fold: to assist our Presbyterian Colleges and to enable the boys and girls from poor homes of our Church to secure a higher education, the fullest co-operation of these institutions should be secured. No investment will yield larger returns than these in the lives of our boys and girls of approved character as they are being prepared for Christian leadership in the coming age.

3. That within this period the Endowment Fund of Ministerial Relief be increased to at least $1,000,000. That the Executive Committee during this time secure from the ministers of the Church and their families data that will furnish the basis for the future statesman-like handling of this sacred and binding obligation of the Church.

4. That within this period the Executive Committee put forth its utmost endeavor to assist the various Synods to perfect their educational policies, and to equip and endow the educational institutions under control of the Synods.

5. That the Executive Committee assist the Synods to arouse the members within their bounds to a full appreciation of the responsibility of the Church for the boys and girls who are attending the State institutions of learning. That the Committee labor together with the Synods to the end that a well equipped church, with an efficient pastor, may be sustained by the side of each of the State institutions of higher learning.

We are glad to report that we closed our year's work with the overdraft of last year, amounting to $12,980.13 paid in full and a balance of $4,697.03 in the treasury. We should have carried over at least $20,000 to meet the payments to candidates for the ministry and the beneficiaries of the Ministerial Relief Fund in the first quarter of the year.

APPRECIATION.

Once more the Executive Committee desires to spread on the records of the General Assembly our sincere appreciation of the efficient and untiring service of Mr. John Stites as Treasurer of the Executive Committee. Mr. Stites is President of the Louisville Trust Company and interested in many of the largest enterprises of the city and State. Although exceedingly busy, he freely gives of his time and energy in the service of the Church. Without any remuneration he opens the mail, endorses the money orders, signs all checks and with the help of the Finance Committee looks after the investments in the Endowment Fund.

HENRY H. SWEETS,
Executive Secretary.

VI. Report on Publication and Sabbath School Work

BUSINESS SUMMARY

Due to war conditions, the public has been forced to economize in many directions and the first commodities to suffer a decreased demand were those classed as luxuries. As books are not regarded as necessities, it has been hard to maintain the usual volume of business and we have deemed it unwise to press sales in the book department with our usual vigor when so many of our patrons are wrestling with the soaring cost of living while their income remained practically stationary.

We suspended the retail book department in Richmond on April 1, 1917, and greatly curtailed our purchases for both Richmond and Texarkana and devoted our energy to clearing accumulated book stocks at both points.

We report a decrease in the sale of miscellaneous books, but our sales in church and Sunday School requisites and in hymn books, Bibles and devotional books made a substantial gain, with the net result that the sales in our book department ran $36,000 ahead of last year. The sales summary is as follows:

Sale of books at Richmond	$ 80,615 34
Sale of periodicals at Richmond	133,094 70
Total sales at Richmond		$ 213,710 04
Sale of books at Texarkana	46,139 05
Sale of periodicals at Texarkana	28,410 40
Total sales at Texarkana		$ 74,549 45
Total sales for the year		$ 288,259 49
Net profit added to capital account	16,511 90

THE TEXARKANA DEPOSITORY

The branch at Texarkana under the direction of our efficient manager, Rev. W. L. Hickman, is rendering a service of increasing value to our constituency in the Southwest. The report for the year indicates an increase in sales in both books and periodicals, and the donation of a large number of books, Bibles, etc. to Sunday Schools, societies and church workers. Their splendid new building is proving to be an asset of growing value, and the two floors of offices are rented at satisfactory rates to desirable tenants, thus providing a fair return on our investment.

LIFE AND SERVICE HYMNS

As authorized and directed by the Assembly of 1916, we completed arrangements for issuing a new hymn book and the first edition of 25,000 copies of "Life and Service Hymns" came from the press on January 1, 1918. The compilation was made after sending tentative list of hymns to about 900 of our active pastors, evangelists, superintendents and Christian workers and the book therefore reflects the taste and meets the needs of our entire church. We count ourselves fortunate in having secured as our musical editor Mr. Bentley D. Ackley, a song writer of national reputation. Mr. Ackley rendered invaluable service in editing and correcting the music plates, and he placed at our disposal his choicest compositions, a number of which appear for the first time in our book. We spared no pains or expense to secure the best of the old and new music and spent about $3,000.00 for copyrights for this book. The work has had a very flattering reception and commendations of the strongest character are reaching us from every quarter. We are receiving orders for sample copies from all over the United States and a few from Canada and the Maritime Provinces. So great was the demand for the book that we were forced to arrange for a second edition of 25,000 copies in March, or a total of 50,000 copies within the first three months of the life of the book, a new record with us for a work of this character.

FRUITAGE OF SUNDAY SCHOOL EXTENSION WORK

It is impossible to express in figures the total results of effort to reach and benefit people morally and spiritually, but a study of the facts below will show that the fifteen years effort our church has made through the Department of Sunday School Extension has been abundantly worth while.

	In 1902	In 1917
Number schools	2,170	3,380
Sunday School Enrollment	170,266	332,420
Scholars Joined Church	5,034	11,268
Benevolent Gifts of Sunday School	$26,166	$180,090
Current Expenses of Sunday School	70,242	181,184
New Schools Organized by our Sunday School Missionaries in fifteen years		647
Schools Reorganized by our Missionaries in fifteen years		230
Churches Organized as Outgrowth of Mission Sunday Schools		120
Number of Pupils Joining Church from Sunday Schools in fifteen years		103,119
Net Gain in Membership of Whole Church in fifteen years		124,193

Surely the small investment our Church has made in Sunday School Extension has paid big dividends.

The details concerning this department will be found in the report of Dr. Glass, Superintendent.

PUBLICATION AND DONATION WORK

The very large output of printed matter issued by the Publication Committee is not realized by the Church, and the far-reaching influence of the messages of vital truth carried by the printed page cannot be measured in terms of statistics.

The Committee now issues twenty-two periodicals with a combined annual circulation of over thirteen million single copies.

Last year the Committee issued about 500,000 books, tracts and leaflets and the total number of pages in all the publications issued ran over one hundred million.

These quiet messengers go to many people who seldom hear the living voice, and in every case the printed page repeats its message many times to hungry and needy souls.

The Publication Committee donated last year periodicals, Bibles, Catechisms, and other supplies to Sunday Schools in which were gathered over 16,000 children. For the perfect recitation of the Shorter Catechism 1,225 Bibles were presented and for recitation of the Young Children's Catechism, 3,300 Testaments were given. Over 600 of these awards were to members of our schools in foreign lands, chiefly in Korea and China. The value of the donations made by the Committee last year reached a total of $31,340.36, or more than double the donation of any previous year. Over 1,000 ministers and more than 1,500 women's societies received gifts of valuable books for their libraries.

COOPERATIVE WORK

It has been a pleasure and a privilege to cooperate with the other Committees of the Assembly in the support of the Woman's Auxiliary and the Stewardship Committee and these agencies have rendered valuable assistance to the causes of the Church.

We also assumed a $1,500.00 share in the expense of the Three Million Dollar Campaign for Benevolences and in addition detailed Mr. Wade C. Smith of our Editorial Staff to act as Campaign Manager for three months, a duty which required that he have absolute release from all other work. We also mailed special appeals to the Sunday Schools for funds for Armenian and Syrian Relief and for the War Work Committee of our Church, but warned our schools not to permit these special appeals to interfere with the schedules and offerings for the regular work of our Church. To aid in the work of the Red Cross we mailed on request pamphlets explaining their work and needs and furnished headquarter space for the organization in our building at Texarkana.

We sent enrollment cards to every Sunday School Superintendent on which to list the men who had gone to war from our churches and Sunday Schools and these cards were returned to the Y. M. C. A.'s where the men were in training, for the guidance of Christian workers who desired to get in personal touch with the men. At the request of the Committee on the Reformation Anniversary we printed in attractive form 7,000 copies of the programs prepared by Drs. Moore and Webb and sent them without cost to all who applied—about 4,500 copies were distributed.

We have continued our co-operation with the Assembly's Committee in the effort to promote the "Family Altar League," and have published 15,000 leaflets and 10,000 pledge cards for this work during the past year. There has been an encouraging addition to the list of members in the League.

FINANCIAL SUMMARY OF OUR BENEVOLENT WORK FOR 1917-18

Total expenditures for the year	$63,312 13
Excess over receipts given by Publication Committee	15,888 07

BUDGET FOR 1918-19 AND 1919-20

The General Assembly at Birmingham approved an appeal to the Church for Sunday School Extension Work for 1918-19 of $52,800, and in the light of the offering for the year just closed we believe this goal can be reached. The Campaign for Three Million Dollars for Benevolences fixes our goal at $75,000, an amount we have frequently reported to the Assembly that could be profitably used in developing the work committed to our hands. We therefore ask approval of this modified budget for the year 1918-19, and that the same goal be fixed for the year 1919-20.

LESSON LITERATURE

Our Graded Series of Uniform Lesson Helps

These are based upon the Improved Uniform Lesson Topics, a cycle of lessons beginning with 1918 and continuing through eight years. Each lesson maintains uniformity by the use of a common title, a common brief lesson text for printing, and a common golden text, with a common selection of Home Daily Bible Readings. These are supplemented by additional material for teachers, which all teachers are encouraged to use; and there are added special memory verses and additional material for the different departments in a well graded school.

These improvements adapt the Uniform Lesson to that idea which is becoming more and more the organizing principle of the best schools, namely, a gradation by departments, which usually fall into six divisions—Beginners, Primary, Junior, Intermediate, Senior, and Adult.

It may well be noted here that the Uniform Lesson treatment which has been given to the Church by our editorial lesson writers for a number of years past has been based upon this idea; so that our Church may be said to have originated, or certainly to have anticipated by several years the most advanced and improved conceptions in the treatment of the Uniform Lessons. We believe that the germinal idea of this advance had its origin in the fertile brain of the lamented A. L. Phillips, and was worked out by our editorial staff and then advocated by him in the International Sunday School Association, of which he was an influential member up to the time of his death.

This careful gradation of the Uniform Lesson forms one of the principal features of our series of quarterlies, from the Primary through the Senior and Adult departments; and the adapted treatment of the Uniform Lesson, selecting from it the topic specially suited to each grade in the school and centering the lesson treatment around that topic with appropriate exposition and illustration, is what has made our series of lesson helps so acceptable to our constituency, and such a valuable adjunct to the thorough grading of our most progressive schools. As this feature of our Uniform Lesson Helps is more and more understood, those of our schools, even, which have been led for a time to use outside lesson literature, will, we are persuaded, come back to the use of those of their own church.

While thus, through this carefully adapted graded treatment, we furnish a series of lesson periodicals which meet the needs of the well graded modern school, we conserve for our schools the undeniable advantages of the Uniform Lesson system. What these advantages are may be briefly repeated. They are found, first, in the very word "Uniform," which implies the study of one and the same scripture lesson in the home, in the Sabbath school, and throughout the entire Christian world. The advantage of centering the mind of the whole world of Christians for that one day upon the same aspect of revealed truth is so great as not to be lightly thrown away.

To this may be added the following, which we believe came from the eloquent pen of Dr. Phillips:

> "The Uniform Lesson System alone has enabled the whole Church of God throughout the earth for a generation to bring into captivity the ripest and most reverent scholarship of the age to discover and proclaim the truth. Theologian and linguist, orientalist and geographer, scientist and artist, poet and philosopher, have rejoiced to make their treasures of truth known to rich and poor alike through the Uniform Lesson. These lessons are designed to acquaint all men with the whole revelation of God, and to bring the whole nature of every man under subjection to God. To impure and enslaved sinners it offers cleansing by the blood of Christ and freedom through his dominion in the soul. To the weak it brings strength. Hungry souls here feed on honey out of the rock and cakes from the finest wheat. Water of life there overflows for souls that are like the dry and barren land where no water is."

One other feature of our series of lesson quarterlies ought also to be kept clearly in view. This is the provision made in each quarterly for Home Work, which is carefully adapted to the grade of pupils using that particular lesson help. This Home Work, if required by the teacher and done by the pupil, with the results noted and approved in the class, is a powerful stimulus to the study of the lesson, and through the intelligent interest of the pupil thus aroused has proved a most effective means in promoting regular and prompt attendance.

Departmental Graded Series

A number of our schools prefer to have a separate Scripture lesson in each department of the school. As such schools in nearly every case follow the six-fold grouping into Beginners, Primary, Junior, Intermediate, Senior, and Adult Departments, we have arranged to meet their preferences by furnishing them the Departmental Graded Series through the same arrangement with other members of the Presbyterian-Reformed Group of Churches which has been made for several years past. We have extended this series this last year through the Intermediate Department; and separate Senior lessons will be available on October 1, 1918. The treatment of these lessons is prepared by the same able editorial writers whose names are given above; and their work passes under the careful inspection of our own editorial staff. The addition of this series of Graded Lesson publications makes it unnecessary for any of our schools to use helps published by other agencies and our sessions should again be warned not to permit the use of outside lesson papers which are becoming increasingly objectionable on account of the liberal, if not radical, views held by the editors of these outside lesson helps.

Like our Uniform Lesson Helps, they are well printed, have attractive illustrations, and carry special suggestions as to Home Work on the part of the pupil. It is to be regretted that these Departmental Lessons, owing to the necessities of syndicate treatment, cannot contain the requirements for Catechism study found in our other lesson helps.

It is again to be noted that this is the only treatment of the International Graded Lessons which is prepared under Presbyterian auspices, the so-called "closely graded" or seventeen-year syndicate treatment having been withdrawn so far as the Presbyterian-Reformed Churches are concerned. It is also to be noted that this series of lessons furnishes an interesting and effective reminder of the tie of common faith and service which binds us to the other members of the great Presbyterian-Reformed family.

Sunday School Extension

The record of the year in this important branch of the church's work for those outside marks an advance on that of any previous year, but is modified during the last six months by war conditions which were far-reaching in their effect. During the year the number of Sunday School Missionaries reached the maximum of 42, and others gave part of their time to field work as shown by the tabulated data below. A few of the fields occupied by these workers have been left vacant by the call to Religious War Work and the inevitable shifting of personnel that has followed in its wake. The great body of our competent and devoted field workers have been steadily and faithfully at their posts through the year, and the places of those called away are being filled as rapidly as possible.

The substantial increase in contributions for the year bears witness to the growing appreciation of this agency for upbuilding the waste places on the part of the church. This year there was received $47,424 as compared to $40,089 last year. Much, however, remains to be done before adequate provision is made to meet the many calls from needy and promising sections for this type of ministry. We are encouraged to hope, in view of this rapid increase in gifts and the awakened sense of stewardship in the church, that the time is near at hand when funds shall be available for a large extension of our forces. Two of our Synods have a Superintendent of Home Missions and Sunday School Extension, following the precedent set by certain Presbyteries that found the combination effective and practicable. The plan offers indisputable advantages, and will be successful where the claims of both causes are carefully conserved.

Outpost Mission Schools

The Outpost Sunday School for reaching outlying communities just beyond the attendance radius of the parent school offers an opportunity for real first hand evangelism that is already rich in actual results, and attractively promising in its double value. It is the most direct and available method for a genuine and permanent missionary service by the local church, and a congenial and fruitful outlet and training ground for the activity of laymen, and the training of their talents in service. Notable work is being done by many of our churches along this line, and certain Presbyteries have developed it to such an extent that almost every church under their control has one or more such missions.

We earnestly urge pastors, superintendents and all workers to look into this form of service and its merits as an agency for "Beginning at Jerusalem."

Standard of Efficiency

We are glad to report marked progress in the adoption and use of the Assembly's Standard of Efficiency throughout the Church. Attention has been repeatedly called to the value of the Wall Chart and leaflet sent to every school in the Church last year, as a guide and incentive to better work. This has been done by correspondence, in the columns of the Church papers, and through the Sunday School Periodicals. The Assembly's Honor Roll of hundred per cent Gold Seal schools appears regularly in the Earnest Worker. This list is growing steadily, schools of every type and circumstance being found on it, and there is every indication of a widespread interest in the Standard and a more general and effective use of the chart.

According to agreement among co-operating Sunday School agencies, which include churches represented in the Sunday School Council, and the Executive Committee of the International Sunday School Association, the present Standard, in its essential requirements, is to be effective as a basis for joint promotion of efficiency until 1924. Our method of presenting the Standard in chart form has been adopted by the Presbyterian Church, North, and the New York State Sunday School Association and hundreds of copies have been called for to be used as models in International Sunday School conventions and institutes.

Again we urge all pastors and superintendents to avail themselves of the inspirational and educational value of the Assembly's Standard, as presented on the Wall Chart and explained in the revised leaflet, and suggest a special concentration of effort on the following features or requirements for the current year: Workers' Conference, Teacher Training, Organized Secondary and Adult Classes, a strong Evangelistic Policy and a more effective Grading and Equipment of the School.

Attention is called through the medium of this report to a projected change in departmental grouping which is being rapidly put into effect throughout the Sunday School world; according to which the Junior Department is to consist of only three years, 9, 10 and 11; the 12 year olds to be placed in the Intermediate Department to consist of 12, 13 and 14; the Senior, 15, 16 and 17; Young People's, 18-24; and Adult, 24 and up.

This grouping is more natural than the one formerly in use, and is in accord with the findings of modern study and experience of the religious development and needs of the various ages, and we recommend its adoption by the schools of our Church.

New Promotion Literature

A vest-pocket hand book for convenient reference and record was prepared and forwarded to all our superintendents for the year 1918. This little booklet is intended for a manual of helpful suggestion and information, and also for a medium of contact between the Department of Sunday Schools and the local school.

Judging from its initial reception, it should have a place of real service in the work and growth of many Sunday Schools throughout the Church, and it is our purpose to send it out from year to year in improved and adapted form.

A revision of the Standard of Efficiency manual and a new leaflet on "The Workers' Conference" are also being distributed.

"Unified Young People's Work" is the title of a revision by Miss Binford of her former leaflet "Our Young People's Work—A Way Out." This leaflet will be a valuable guide for the development of Young People's Work in the local Church along approved lines and according to the Assembly's plan.

Valuable leaflets by Miss Elizabeth McE. Shields are also available for elementary workers as they seek to improve their knowledge and equipment for service.

Every department of Sunday School activity is now adequately covered by the helpful leaflet literature furnished free on request by the Publication Committee, and we would urge a more diligent use of these aids to efficiency on the part of pastors, superintendents and teachers.

Christian Endeavor

Since the endorsement of Christian Endeavor by the General Assembly in 1916 and again in 1917, the growth of societies and development of interest has been such as to attract the attention of Young People's Workers everywhere.

The increase during the past year can be seen in the following figures:

Christian Endeavor Societies, year ending March 31, 1917	650
Christian Endeavor Societies, year ending March 31, 1918	875
Christian Endeavor members, year ending March 31, 1917	20,123
Christian Endeavor members, year ending March 31, 1918	31,050

As headquarters for the Young People's Work of the Church, we have kept in close touch with all societies, fostering their growth and directing their activities through correspondence, conferences and personal visitation and attention whenever possible.

Societies are registered in our office and Certificates of Recognition and a supply of annual topic cards sent with the compliments of the Committee to all societies thus registered.

We lead all denominations in the South in Christian Endeavor work, and while all the societies have not as yet registered in our office, we have information to the effect that there are about 1,100 societies in our churches.

In addition to definite missionary service through the support of Dr. and Mrs. T. Th. Stixrud in Africa, Dr. and Mrs. Hunnicutt in Brazil, and the Beechwood School of Heidleberg, Ky., Rev. A. L. McDuffie, principal, many societies have been doing splendid religious and social war work of various kinds in and around the camps and cantonments of the Southern States and through the Red Cross and other civilian and war relief associations.

Through an arrangement with the American Red Cross, a text-book for the study of Red Cross civilian relief work has been furnished to quite a number of societies by the Committee.

A fine and enthusiastic class of more than sixty young people was conducted during the Montreat Young People's Conference last summer under the leadership of Professor James Lewis Howe, of Washington and Lee University, the text-book used being "Expert Endeavor," by Amos R. Wells.

Organized Sunday-School Classes

There has been a steady increase in the number of Organized Classes, both Secondary and Adult, during the year, the figures being as follows:

Adult Organized Classes	65	126
Membership	1,293	2,289
Secondary Organized Classes	45	109
Membership	510	1,207

While all the Organized Classes and departments have not received enrollment certificates from our office, the reports from the schools show that over 1,600 of our schools have departmental organizations.

The well-rounded program of study and activity provided for the Secondary Organized Sunday School Class offers such an attractive and effective plan for the four-fold development of young people in our churches, and has been so uniformly successful in building up the Sunday School and in holding the loyalty and training the talents of older boys and girls for Christian service as to commend itself to all careful and earnest students of Young People's Work.

The advantages of having this vigorous expressional activity linked to an already existing and comprehensive organization makes this plan appeal to many leaders of church work and goes far to explain its steady growth in favor.

Various other forms of organization for young people continue to hold their own here and there in the Church, though their number is slowly diminishing, comparatively, under the pressure of an obvious necessity for standardization and unity.

The figures are as follows:

Westminster League	106
Covenanters	53
Miriams	109

The interests of our Young People's Work would be conserved and forwarded by the general adoption as rapidly as is practicable of either or both of the approved Assembly's plans, namely, the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, and the Organized Sunday School Class or Department.

Both of these plans offer complete and effective programs of study and activity and sustain an organic connection with world-wide movements while preserving denominational control and loyalty, and can be happily correlated when both are desired.

We strongly urge that all churches fall into line with the General Assembly's plans.

GILBERT GLASS,
Superintendent S. S. and Y. P. Department.

VII. Report on the Sabbath and Family Religion

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

Your Permanent Committee on the Sabbath and Family Religion would respectfully present the following report:

We are very glad to be able to say that more progress has been made this year than in any year since the present campaign which was ordered by the Assembly of 1914 began.

The very definite questions in the sessional narratives ought to make it possible for us to say in figures just what we are doing and would do so if our sessions were diligent and particular in securing the information. Question No. 2 reads, "Give proportion of families in church that observe family worship." And question No. 3, "How many families are enrolled in the Family Altar League of our Assembly?" These are so worded as to call for actual figures, and many Sessions reply in a very definite and satisfactory way in figures, while others are unsatisfactory, hazy, or beside the mark.

There have come into our hands more than 2,200 sessional narratives of last year from seventy Presbyteries, representing all our Synods. We have gone over all of these with care so as to be able to make to the Assembly the most exact and accurate report on the conditions. From these we learn that there are 1,558 families enrolled in the Family Altar League in these Presbyteries. From sixteen Presbyteries we have no narratives, but from other information we learn that these have 127 families enrolled. From one Presbytery there is no information whatever. The total enrollment as reported is 1,685 families. This is encouraging. But on the other hand we learn from these seventy Presbyteries that there are 1,936 churches who have not a single family enrolled. Counting all our Presbyteries, the best information we have is that there are more than 2,500 churches in which the Family Altar League is not known. That is, there are more churches who know nothing about it than there are families enrolled, and this after all the hard work that has been done; for there is not a minister in our Church and not a Presbyterial Chairman who has not been directly and repeatedly addressed upon this subject.

Again, we greatly regret to report that of the more than 2,200 narratives before us, not over a score of Sessions give a favorable answer to question No. 2. Over and over again such phrases as "greatly neglected," "observed by very few," appear, and hundreds of times the simple answer is "None." Indeed but for the slight ray of hope noticed above, one reading the narratives would easily conclude that we were fast becoming a church of careless and prayerless homes.

According to the reports in our hands, the following Presbyteries have not a single family enrolled in the Family Altar League: Athens, Ebenezer, Mississippi, New Orleans, North Mississippi, Paducah, Palmyra, Tygarts Valley, Washburn, West Hanover, Ethel, St. Louis, Columbia and Brownwood. These Presbyteries represent 383 churches and 32,750 communicants. The Central Church, Atlanta, with seventy-one families enrolled, leads the Assembly.

From all the foregoing only one conclusion can be drawn; the conditions are alarming and call for far greater effort than has yet been put forth. The slight improvement this last year is due in some measure to the fact that for the first time the Assembly placed at our disposal a small fund of $100. But this did not go very far, since it costs about $40 to send a single letter to our ministers. And one circular does not make a campaign. We have to again thank the Committee of Publication for generous aid.

We respectfully ask the Assembly to allow us $200 for the expenses of the campaign this year. This is only for stationery, printing, postage, etc. The Committee will be very glad to do all the necessary work gratis. When we pause a moment to ponder over the possible relationship between prayerless homes and empty churches; between prayerless homes and lack of ministerial candidates; between prayerless homes and insufficient funds to carry on the enterprises of the Church; industrial unrest; wrong social conditions; and the present world tragedy, we feel justified in regarding this cause as of sufficient importance to call for a much larger place in our prayers and a larger claim upon our purses.

For three years the Assembly has directed that all Presbyteries appoint corresponding committees. A few have not yet complied.

In conclusion we wish to say that we are being encouraged from many sides to press the work diligently, and we believe God is blessing our efforts.

ROBERT HILL,
Chairman.

VIII. Report of the Permanent Committee on the Bible Cause

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

The Report of your Ad-Interim Committee on the American Bible Society is before us as we prepare this report. It covers in such a comprehensive way the work which has been done and is being done by the American Bible Society that it makes it unnecessary for us to traverse this same ground again. We will, therefore, confine our report largely to supplementary statements which are not found in their report.

1. The American Bible Society has in the past year done a remarkable work among the men of our army and navy. From April 6, 1917, to April 5, 1918, the Society issued 2,231,831 Bibles, Testaments and portions in special khaki and navy blue bindings for the men of the army and navy. Practically one-half of these have been outright gifts. All have been issued at or below cost. It is necessary for one to pause and to think carefully over these figures to comprehend their full meaning. The number of our soldiers is increasing very rapidly and it will tax the Society to its utmost to keep up with the great task of placing a copy of the word of God in the hands of every soldier on the land and on the sea and in the air. Surely this is a cause which must appeal to every one who is interested in Christianity and to every one who is interested in the welfare of our soldiers. The appeal to us must be all the greater when we remember that thousands upon thousands of our soldiers are located in cantonments which are within the bounds of our own Southern Presbyterian Church and that we are in a very special sense responsible for their religious welfare.

2. The American Bible Society continues to do a great work in foreign mission fields. The aim of the Society is expressed in the motto: "The whole Bible for the whole world." During the past year the Society has done work on five continents and on the islands of seven seas. The foreign work of the Society is carried on by eleven foreign agencies with headquarters at Constantinople, Buenos Aires, Yokohama, Shanghai, Rio de Janeiro, Mexico, Havana, Seoul, Bankok, Cristobal and Manila. It has missionary correspondents in all fields not covered by agencies. This Society is the friend and helper of every missionary in the world.

3. The Society does a large Home Missionary work in America among the people right at our own doors. This phase of the work has been so fully covered by the report of the Ad-Interim Committee that we need only mention it here. The Society is a co-worker with every home missionary in America. It is already helping many of the home missionaries of our own Church.

4. The Permanent Committee on the Bible Cause asked the Assembly of 1917 to define the duties of this Committee and also to define the relation of this Committee to the American Bible Society on the one hand and its relation to the General Assembly on the other hand. The Assembly must have misunderstood our request and appointed an Ad-Interim Committee "to study the whole question of our Assembly's relation to the American Bible Society." As can be seen at a glance this misses the whole point of our request. The Permanent Committee was appointed in 1908, but its duties were not defined and never have been defined. We are really at a loss to know what the Assembly expects us to do. There ought to be a large field of usefulness for such a Committee if its duties and powers were clearly defined and if there were a modest amount of money at the disposal of the Committee for an expense account. We again respectfully prefer our request that the Assembly will define the duties of the Permanent Committee on the Bible Cause and at the same time define the relation of the Committee to the American Bible Society and the relation of the Committee to the General Assembly.

RECOMMENDATIONS

We make the following recommendations:

1. That the Assembly again commend most cordially and earnestly to our people the great work of the American Bible Society and urge our people to make the most liberal contributions possible to the work of the Society.

2. That the Assembly call the attention of our people to the special emergency war fund which is needed by the Society to carry on its work among the soldiers and urge our people to be as liberal as possible in their contributions to this fund.

3. That the Assembly, at the request of the American Bible Society, appoint a representative man from our Church to be a member of an Advisory Council, to meet with the Board of Managers of the American Bible Society, at the expense of the Society, at that meeting of the Society at which the annual budget of the Society is fixed. We suggest that this member of the Advisory Council be a member of the Assembly's Permanent Committee on the Bible Cause.

4. That Sunday evening of the next Assembly be set apart especially for the Bible Cause and that the Permanent Committee be authorized to secure a suitable speaker and arrange a program, all of which is to be without expense to the Assembly.

Respectfully submitted,
WALTER L. LINGLE, Chairman.

IX. Report of Permanent Committee on Systematic Beneficence

We hereby respectfully submit the following report:

Your Committee has met twice since the last meeting of the General Assembly in Birmingham, Ala., namely, in Richmond, Va., January 22-23, 1918, and in Durant, Okla., May 14-16, 1918.

The following members were present, and those who were absent were excused by the Committee for satisfactory reasons:

Richmond	Synod	Durant
J. S. Foster	Alabama	J. S. Foster
E. W. King	Appalachia
	Arkansas	T. C. McRae
	Florida
A. A. Little	Georgia	A. E. Little
J. T. Thomas	Kentucky	J. T. Thomas
J. A. Lyon	Louisiana
J. B. Hutton	Mississippi
C. R. Nisbet	Missouri

R. A. Brand	North Carolina
A. F. Davidson	Oklahoma	A. H. Ferguson
A. D. P. Gilmour	South Carolina
W. H. Raymond	Tennessee	W. H. Raymond
	Texas
J. W. Friend	Virginia
Ernest Thompson	West Virginia	Ernest Thompson

ORGANIZATION

Rev. John S. Foster was elected Chairman; Judge T. C. McRae, Vice-Chairman; Rev. A. A. Little, Secretary and Treasurer.

COMMITTEES

Committees were appointed on Scope and Method, on Education and Publicity, on Administration, on Assembly's Budget, and on Assembly's Minutes.

The Committee has had before it printed reports of the four Executive Committees, the report on the Assembly's Stewardship Committee, a report from the Woman's Auxiliary, and other papers. It has held careful and exhaustive conferences with your Secretaries, with Mrs. W. C. Winsborough, and by invitation with the authorities of the Training School for Lay Workers, at both of these meetings.

The reports and conferences have been referred to the proper Committees and carefully considered by them. We are convinced from their examination, and also from personal examination of the Publication Office, that your Committees are doing a great and successful work along approved business principles, and at a minimum of cost. Every department is making gratifying progress under the trying circumstances.

We present in detail our conclusions in regard to each Committee with recommendations.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

This Committee has had an exceedingly difficult situation to face on account of the conditions brought about by the war. All the expenses of missionary work have increased greatly, due to many causes. This has increased the cost of the work until it reached the sum of $677,564. The receipts increased $78,729, so that the deficit at the end of the year is $128,131.

It is imperative that this great cause have an income of at least $1,100,000 to conduct this work in accordance with the indication of the Divine pointing.

There has been a steady increase along all lines, but the increase ought to be at a faster rate. The business is handled in a conservative way, and the results show that the work is in a most encouraging condition.

We recommend—

(1) That Rev. A. B. Curry, S. H. Chester, Jas. I. Vance, Messrs. M. G. Buckner and W. H. Raymond be re-elected for a term of three years on this Committee.

That the following amount be apportioned to this cause, namely, $1,100,000 for 1919-20.

HOME MISSIONS

This Committee has had a very prosperous year, as the large increase of receipts shows. The treasury of the Committee has received over $40,000 more than for the previous year. There has been a steady and gratifying increase each year.

This does not include the large sum received by the War Work Committee, which was handled through the Treasury of the Home Mission Committee.

The number of additions to the Churches shows an increase and the whole work is in a healthy and growing condition, which indicates that it is being conducted on a business-like and safe basis and is meeting the favor of God and man.

The debt that has harassed the Committee has been paid and a balance appears in the Treasury, yet so great are the demands of our rapidly growing Southland that the full amount asked of the Church could be used.

We recommend—

(1) That J. H. Patton, E. L. Hill, A. A. Little, J. S. Lyons and Homer McMillan be elected to succeed themselves for a term of three years, and that John S. Foster be elected to fill out the unexpired term of John J. Eagan.

That $550,000 be apportioned to this cause for the year 1919-20.

That Rev. S. L. Morris, D. D., be re-elected Executive Secretary for three years.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION AND MINISTERIAL RELIEF

This Committee has had a prosperous year from the standpoint of funds secured. It has paid off the debt brought over from last year and has a balance in the treasury. The problem of securing young men for the Gospel ministry is giving the Committee anxious thought, as no less than 98 of our candidates have entered some branch of the national service.

It has studied the situation with admirable care and wisdom and has presented a three-year program, which the Systematic Beneficence Committee endorses and approves most heartily and recommends to the Assembly. It is found on page 13 of the Annual Report of the Executive Committee of Christian Education and Ministerial Relief.

We further recommend—

(1) That Rev. Henry H. Sweets, D. D., be re-elected Executive Secretary for a term of three years.

(2) That Messrs. Brainard Lemon and Jas. Quarles be re-elected to succeed themselves on the Executive Committee.

(3) That the sum of $280,000 be apportioned to this cause for the year 1919-20.

PUBLICATION AND SUNDAY SCHOOL EXTENSION

Your Committee unanimously adopted this as a part of its report based upon an examination of the office in Richmond in January, 1918.

(1) The building, a large five-story, modern fire-proof structure, centrally located and splendidly adapted for the intended purposes. The offices are commodious, well lighted, heated and ventilated. The building represents an investment of $80,000 and is insured for $60,000, at a rate of 26 cents per 100. This owing to the fact that it is of the latest type of fire-proof construction. The thirty or more employees seem to work under ideal conditions. The scale of wages paid is in keeping with Christian principles and modern demands. Your Committee is advised that the employees seek for the positions afforded by the various departments and seem to be unusually intelligent and sympathetic. "We all love it; we are like one big family," was the comment of one departmental clerk. Many of the employees have been in their positions for years.

Your Committee examined the plan of recording receipts and disbursements and the general system of bookkeeping. A three-fold check is kept on all accounts. It appears to your Committee that the business is in splendid hands, that the methods used are in keeping with the highest business principles, accurate, thorough and comprehensive.

This Committee has nearly reached the goal set some years ago, but at this time needs not less than $75,000 to do most efficient work. The increase in Sabbath School work is especially gratifying, as shown in the exhibit of growth for 15 years.

We recommend—

(2) That Rev. F. T. McFaden and Rev. W. L. Lingle be elected to succeed themselves for a period of three years, and that Rev. E. C. Caldwell and Rev. O. E. Buchholz be added to the Committee, the class to be determined by the Executive Committee.

(3) That $75,000 be apportioned to this cause for the year 1919-20.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

Again the reports from the Woman's Societies of the Church show a gratifying increase for all causes. The Auxiliary has put special stress on the literature for Missionary meetings during this year and issues literature that is equaled by no other Church for spiritual power and up-to-date information.

It is well to remind the church that the entire support of this Auxiliary comes from the four Executive Committees, though the benefits accrue to all branches of the Church's work. The meagre amount of $6,000 is hardly sufficient to pay the small salary of the Superintendent and her assistants and the other expenses of the office. The Auxiliary is under the control of the Supervisory Committee selected from the four Executive Committees, and through the Auxiliary the women are leading in the fulfillment of the high and holy ideals of our Church.

Under the energetic leadership of Mrs. W. C. Winsborough and her helpers the number of Mission study classes is rapidly increasing and new fields of usefulness are being opened, notably the work for negro women.

We recommend that the General Assembly emphasize the importance of having every society in the Church aligned with the Auxiliary, and call upon the Synods and Presbyteries to use the valuable services of this office for their Synodical and Presbyterial work.

GENERAL

The Committee endorses the program of the "War Work Council" of the Presbyterian Church U. S., and recommends that the Assembly commend the work to the liberality of the Church to the extent of $100,000, to cover the work of the Council for the ensuing year.

That the Assembly make up one budget for Benevolences, covering the need of all the Executive Committees, to be distributed according to the percentage plan already adopted.

That the Assembly direct the Secretaries in their visits to the Churches to present not only their own special cause, but also the relation between it and the other causes.

That the week preceding and including the 3rd Sunday of February be fixed as a special week of self-denial for the cause of Foreign Missions.

Your Committee would recommend that the Assembly appoint an Ad Interim Committee to consider and report on the following motion:

1. That the Assembly takes steps to secure a building in one of our cities, said building shall house the Executive Committees, Woman's Auxiliary, and all other agencies of the General Assembly, as the Assembly shall decide.

2. That the work as now done by the four Executive Committees of the General Assembly shall be in the hands of one Executive Committee who shall take full charge of all branches of the Assembly's work as now conducted, with their respective secretaries, or may hereafter be conducted or ordered by the Assembly.

This Committee shall be constituted as follows: Each Synod shall be entitled to one member, to be elected by the Synod, and approved by the General Assembly subsequently. Where a Synod has 15,000 to 25,000 members it shall be entitled to two members. Synods having over 25,000 members shall be entitled to three members each.

This Committee shall meet not less than twice a year, and all its expenses shall be paid out of the funds of the Committee.

In addition, there shall be an Advisory Committee of seven, who shall meet at such times as may be needed. The members of this Committee shall consist of ministers and ruling elders residing in or near the city in which the Executive Committee shall meet. The powers of this Committee shall be entirely advisory to the Secretaries in the interim of the meeting of the Executive Committee.

The following members of the Committee have been appointed to represent this Committee before the Assembly and its Committees, namely, Rev. Ernest Thompson, D. D., and Rev. A. D. P. Gilmour, D. D.

The accounts of the Secretary have been admitted and found correct.

Concerning membership on the Permanent Committee on Systematic Beneficence:

The second term of the following members expires at this meeting of the Assembly. They are not eligible to re-election.

Principals—A. A. Little, of the Synod of Georgia; J. A. Lyon, of the Synod of Louisiana; John W. Friend, of the Synod of Virginia; and Ernest Thompson, of the Synod of West Virginia.

Alternates, respectively—J. G. Patton, John S. Talmage, J. W. Sinton and D. P. McGeachey.

The minutes of these Synods will show the nominees to the Assembly.

The first term of the following members expires at this meeting of the Assembly, namely:

Principals—John T. Thomas, of the Synod of Kentucky; W. H. Raymond, of the Synod of Tennessee.

The Rev. J. Layton Mauze, from the Synod of Missouri, having removed from the bounds of the Synod, Rev. C. R. Nisbet took his place on the Committee. He is eligible for re-election as Principal. The position of Alternates in the Synods of Kentucky, Missouri and Alabama are vacant by removal of the incumbents of their Synods.

The position of Principal in the Synod of Alabama is vacant by the removal of Rev. John S. Foster to the Synod of South Carolina.

The Rev. David Park has been nominated by the Synod of Alabama for Principal and the Rev. S. E. Hodges as Alternate.

The Synod of Kentucky has neither Principal or Alternate, due to their removal from the Synod.

We recommend that the following amounts be apportioned for the Assembly Causes for 1919-20:

Foreign Missions	$1,100,000
Home Missions	550,000
Christian Education and Ministerial Relief	280,000
Publication and Sunday School Extension	75,000
Bible Cause	20,000
	$2,025,000

We recommend that the following percentages apply to any undesignated gifts to be distributed among the Assembly's Causes as a guide to our people:

Foreign Missions	55½%
Home Missions	27 %
Christian Education and Ministerial Relief	12½%
Sunday School Extension and Publication	4 %
Bible Cause	1 %

The Committee approves the proposed plan of raising $12,000,000 for Beneficencies in the three years beginning 1919-1920, and recommends the same to the General Assembly.

We recommend that all the Executive Committees be instructed to have a special and thorough and efficient survey made by an experienced firm of auditors who shall examine carefully and thoroughly into their business methods and accounting systems.

Said auditors should report fully and in detail in reference to all the business transactions of the Committee showing efficieney of employees in the various departments, items of expense properly chargeable to each department, make recommendations which would insure greater efficiency, promptness and accuracy in the conduct of the business, and suggest changes.

The reports of said auditor should be presented to Committee on Systematic Beneficence at its mid-winter meeting.

We also recommend that the financial heads of the Executive Committees be instructed to hold a conference, consult with an auditor and recommend a uniform method of making their reports to the Assembly.

We recommend that the Assembly appropriate the sum of $250 or so much as may be needed thereof for such expenses of the Committee over and above the expenses of members attending the meeting of the Committee.

JOHN S. FOSTER, Chairman.
A. A. LITTLE, Secretary.

X. Report of Assembly's Committee on Stewardship.

To the General Assembly in Session, Durant, Okla.:

The following is the report of the Assembly's Stewardship Committee for the year ending March 31, 1918.

THE CHARACTER OF THE WORK

The two outstanding phases of the work have to do with (1) the Principles of Christian Stewardship; (2) the application of these principles in the Every Member Canvass for life and substance. These phases, however, are essentially one, as they are so interlinked that it is impossible to advance the one without carrying on the other. Principles must be known before they are applied. Some knowledge of Stewardship must be clear before the Every Member Canvass can do its highest and noblest work.

It is the mission of the Stewardship Committee to present a clear, convincing message on the Bible principles of Stewardship, and unceasingly urge the application of these principles, thus adequately supporting every cause through a thoroughly prepared and faithfully carried out Every Member Canvass.

The Committee is glad to report a growing spirit of interest and a desire generally of the congregations and their officers to co-operate with the Committee in carrying out the plans of the Assembly. We are pleased to report a widespread purpose to provide the funds needed on a maximum rather than on a minimum basis for the coming year. We are gratified at the deepening interest of the principles of Stewardship and the increased number of proportionate givers. The Church's plan of finance has not only been introduced into hundreds of churches for the first time, but has been strengthened in hundreds of others. Never before has the Church been so thoroughly and effectively organized as it has been this year, and never before has such a rich harvest been gathered.

REVIEW OF THE YEAR'S WORK

Conferences—Through church visitation by the secretary and others a large number of conferences has been held, setting forth both principles and application. The response was most encouraging. Stewardship Institutes, Group and Presbyterial Conferences have been held in many of our Presbyteries.

Synod's Conferences—Complying with the recommendation of the General Assembly most of the Synods conducted conferences in the interest of Christian Stewardship and the Assembly's causes. Unlike the course pursued in former years, only one secretary attended a Synod. Instead of being responsible for his cause alone, he represented the five-fold work. Much favorable comment has been made on this change. This is believed to be the entering wedge for the great drive which has arrested the attention of thousands this winter. Be it said to the credit and honor of the secretaries that their presentation was so clear and impartial a stranger could not have told what cause they represented.

General Conferences—From July 22-27 there was held in Montreat, N. C., a Stewardship Conference. Both the principles and applications were presented by able men. It was a strong program and much good was accomplished.

Literature—There are two direct ways of propagating the gospel—preaching and printing. We have endeavored to send out the truth through the printed pages of the following literature: Stewardship Catechism, A Man and His Money, A Christian's Financial Creed, Nuggets of Truth, The Church's Plan of Finance, Stewardship Enlistment Card, Graded Lessons on Stewardship, Stewardship of Property, Stewardship Plus, The Tithe, Necessary Steps in the Every Member Canvass.

There is now in course of preparation a Deacon's Training Course. The Committee is happy to announce that Dr. Walter L. Lingle, D. D., of Union Seminary, is the author of this course and that the manuscript will be ready for the printer at an early date. Believing that at this point special effort is needed, the Committee plans to push with all vigor the training course during the coming year.

The Pastor—Realizing him to be the key to the situation, the pastor's full co-operation has been sought. Where earnest devotion and untiring service have been rendered, large and influential gains have been made. Much credit is due to the faithful pastors for the success of the past year.

Sunday Schools—Hundreds of Sunday Schools have been induced to use Stewardship literature as supplemental work. The Stewardship Committee offered its literature free to any school on the condition that it would be used for as many as six Sundays, embracing as many as ten minutes each Sunday. Over 200 schools availed themselves of this offer.

Women's Societies—Through this well organized company of workers the Stewardship Committee has received a hearty response in the education of the Church in the principles of Christian Stewardship. This subject has occupied a chief place on the program of all the Synodicals, the majority of the Presbyterials and in many of the local Societies. The ladies also in many instances have rendered splendid service in preparing for and carrying out the Every Member Canvass.

The Three Million Dollar Drive—Conceived in prayer, born of faith and designed for service, the Three Million Dollar Drive has taken shape through the combined effort of devoted men whose only motive has been to advance the Kingdom in this hour of unparalleled needs.

It was an earnest effort on the part of the combined forces of the Church to make actual the Moderator's prayer that God would make willing His people to give the amount needed for the carrying on of His work in every department of the Church.

The challenge which has taken hold of the Church and gripped the hearts of thousands for the past few months, took form in the mind of Mr. J. B. Spillman, of Columbia, S. C. In some well chosen advertisements and personal appeals to ministers and laymen he summoned the Church to this heroic task.

The Church was not disobedient to the call for larger things. Fourteen Synods immediately and enthusiastically accepted their quotas, on a Three Million Dollar basis. The two remaining Synods soon came into line.

On December 4th the Assembly's Stewardship Committee met in Asheville, N. C., and, after two days' deliberation and prayer assumed the responsibility for the entire campaign. At this meeting a Central Committee was appointed to have direct charge of the work. The following men constituted this Committee: J. B. Spillman, Chairman; Wade C. Smith; H. H. Sweets; C. A. Rowland; Homer McMillan and R. L. Walkup.

On December 12th another meeting was held in Atlanta, where there were assembled about thirty-five ministers and laymen representing fifteen Synods. It was the unanimous judgment that God had opened the way for this enlarged campaign. The proposed Campaign was heartily endorsed by this Conference, and Mr. Wade C. Smith was appointed General Manager for the Committee. Mr. Smith was released for three months for this service by the Publication Committee and in addition to this contribution of Mr. Smith's time a generous share of the expenses of the Campaign was assumed by the Publication Committee.

On January 3rd a meeting of the Central Committee was held in Atlanta. A Set-Up of the Campaign was prepared, which is as follows:

Purpose

(1) To intensify the growing spirit of Stewardship of Life and Substance.

(2) To arouse the whole Church to a better performance of its benevolent work. To raise in pledges for 1918-19, $3,000,000.00.

Through conferences, church paper advertising, study classes and the distribution of the best literature, to bring our people to recognize the world-wide responsibilities and opportunities of the Church at this time.

(3) To hold throughout the Church in March simultaneous meetings, three, bearing directly upon the objects of this Campaign, using the regular morning church service hour on the first, second and third Sundays in March. To do this will require the drafting of at least 1,900 laymen to conduct services in what would be otherwise vacant pulpits.

Specially prepared and printed programs will be supplied for these services so that no layman will be without ample aid in the way of subject material and order of service, should he desire it. These programs will be designed for use by all as to the general outline.

Plan

The Assembly's Stewardship Committee, responsible for and having general oversight of the Campaign, appointed a Central Committee of six to have charge of the various departments of the work.

The Central Committee, in conference with Synod's Committee on Systematic Beneficence, selected a Campaign Manager for each Synod. The responsibility of raising the Synod's quota was centered in the hands of the Manager, he to give his entire time to the work until April 1st.

The Manager of Synod, in conference with Presbytery's Committee, selected a Manager for each Presbytery, and upon him was placed the responsibility of raising the Presbytery's quota.

The Manager of Presbytery, in conference with Presbytery's Committee, selected a Manager for groups of churches, and upon him was placed the responsibility of raising the churches' quotas.

The Group Manager, with the Session's approval, appointed a Manager for the local congregation, and upon him was placed the responsibility of raising the church's quota.

This organization proved to be most efficient. From the Synod to the Congregation Manager splendid work was accomplished. To these faithful men, together with hundreds of others who willingly gave of their time for the carrying out of the Campaign, much credit is due for the success. Without this self-sacrificing effort and unrelenting zeal these results could not have been achieved.

RECOMMENDATIONS

"Believing that the Spirit of God has graciously led the Church to a deeper appreciation of its mission and inspired her forces to undertake greater things for the advancement of the Kingdom of God, we would recommend:

1. That the Church's goal for the present year be Three Million Dollars for the benevolent work of the Assembly, Synod and Presbytery, and that the immediate task be the bringing of every local congregation, Presbytery and Synod up to this standard.

2. That such assistance as may be necessary be employed for the carrying out and completion of this program.

3. That each Synod, Presbytery and Church be asked to maintain the organization which has so successfully carried forward the recent Campaign, and that this splendid force of workers be used in completing the Three Million Dollar task.

4. That uniform report blanks of funds pledged, paid and remitted be prepared to be used by the local churches in making reports at least quarterly to Synod's Manager through the Manager of Presbytery, all reports to be finally sent to the office of the Stewardship Committee, Montreat, N. C.

5. The General Assembly, recognizing the place of free-will offering and the thank-offering in the economy of God, urges that, at suitable seasons, all Sessions give opportunity for those who have not been reached by the Every Member Canvass, and those who have been especially prospered of God to exercise this privilege.

6. That the Stewardship Committee be urged to continue its emphasis on the cultivation of Christian Stewardship ideals throughout the Church, and to seek ways and means to lead our people to a clearer recognition and a fuller practice of the Christian's obligation of Stewardship toward God in possessions, personality and prayer.

7. That through Conferences and Institutes and every other available means the Church be urged to study efficiency in all lines of service, that she may more and more show herself "Approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed."

8. That during January, February and March of 1919 a Campaign similar to the one of the past year be conducted, and that all congregations be urged to participate in both the preparation and the actual carrying out of two by two, house to house, personal visitation canvass for pledges both for congregational and beneficent causes.

While the immediate task is immense and calls for heroic service of the combined forces of the Church, yet we cannot accept this as the ultimate goal to which our Lord is calling us at this time.

In this time of world-wide undertakings, of unparalleled opportunities and unheard of sacrifices we believe there comes a clear and ringing call from God for an advancement in keeping with the time in which we live. The Church is not only called upon to enlarge her program to meet the emergencies of the war, but also to meet the enlarged problems which shall press upon her from all sides after the close of the war. We would therefore recommend:

(a) That God's challenge of a yet larger program be accepted.

(b) That this program embrace all departments of the Church's work.

(c) A part of this program be the raising of twelve million dollars for benevolences in a period of three years, beginning April 1, 1919, and that this part of the task be committed to the Assembly's Stewardship Committee.

(d) While the program is to embrace a number of years, there shall be an annual goal prepared and endorsed by the courts of the Church one year in advance as now."

Submitted by order of the Committee,

R. L. WALKUP, Secretary.

REPORT ON "THE $3,000,000 DRIVE" FOR BENEVOLENCES

The results of "The $3,000,000 Drive" for Benevolences, as far as reports from Synodical Managers give totals, are as follows:

Synod	Gave in 1916-17	Quota for this "Drive"	Pledges Received to April 13
Alabama	$ 63,006	$ 100,000	$ 104,136
Appalachia	139,528	160,000	111,417
Arkansas	49,768	80,000	66,769
Florida	46,776	80,000	44,901
Georgia	152,186	240,000	198,654
Kentucky	93,248	150,000	111,067
Louisiana	62,462	100,000	50,290
Mississippi	65,355	100,000	96,733
Missouri	94,146	150,000	111,984
North Carolina	498,808	650,000	450,271
Oklahoma	8,450	15,000	19,323
Snedecor Memorial	484	5,000	600
South Carolina	143,178	225,000	202,287
Tennessee	81,202	130,000	77,791
Texas	172,448	270,000	140,819
Virginia	298,829	465,000	405,518
West Virginia	42,211	80,000	63,134
Total	$2,012,085	$3,000,000	$2,255,694

There may be some disappointment at first upon seeing the above figures, but we believe they fairly point to gifts of benevolence this year of fully $3,000,000. In analyzing these funds there are several things to be remembered.

In the first place they do not include more than two-thirds of the churches of the Assembly, and of the churches reporting a great many have not completed their canvass.

In the second place, the report dates within two weeks of the beginning of the church year. It is extremely doubtful that in any previous year during the first month as much as 50 per cent. of the year's gifts have been pledged. The total gifts of a year are the result of a twelve-month process of exhortation and solicitation, and as a rule the greater part is a result of the finish drives of the last three months. Somewhat offsetting that, however, may be regarded the usual effort to secure pledges this year.

In the third place, there are a few Synods, a number of Presbyteries and hundreds of churches that have definitely shown pledges, as a result of this drive, totaling anywhere from 50 per cent. to 100 per cent. above the gifts of 1916-1917. Some Presbyteries report more than 100 per cent. over, and many churches, medium to small size, have gone from 100 per cent. to 200 per cent. over former gifts.

Actual gains in pledges received amount to an increase of approximately $400,000 above 1916-1917 and would seem to justify fully the expectation that the entire Church will go "over the top" before the year passes. The gain of $400,000 is shown by adding together the gains in the accompanying table and leaving out of the count those Synods whose reports appear to show a loss as compared with 1916-1917. It is hardly conceivable that one of the latter will give less than they did in 1916-1917. They show a loss here because their reports are incomplete. It is more than probable that every one of them will show good gains and it is also certain that all the Synods showing gains here will record further gains.

These statements, in so far as they are predictions, are based upon the very evident determination of all the Managers of Synods and most of the Managers of Presbyteries to continue pushing their Campaign until every church in their respective Synods and Presbyteries has been effectively reached. Through their continued and persistent efforts hundreds of churches will be coming into the "every member plan" column during the summer and fall months.

Without exception the Managers testify to the wisdom of "The $3,000,000 Drive." Every one of them is enthusiastic over the results as they are shown in greater interest in the causes, greater liberality, a higher conception of Christian Stewardship and a deepened spiritual life throughout the Church.

Subject of lectures on Smyth Foundation delivered at the Columbia Theological Seminary October 4-10, 1917, by Dr. Benjamin B. Warfield, of Princeton, N. J., was Counterfeit Miracles.

It is with profound gratitude to the Great Head of the Church that we can report that, notwithstanding the unusual conditions now existing throughout the world, the year just closed has been one of the most successful in the history of the institution. The number of students enrolled exceeds the enrollment of last year and is the largest in the life of the Seminary. The work accomplished has been of a high order.

Respectfully submitted,
W. J. McKAY,
President Board of Directors.

W. H. TOWNSEND, Secretary.

Disbursements for the year	29,253 79

NOTE:—The expenses for the year have been unusually heavy, and plans are on foot for meeting the deficiency.

V. Library

The Library received valuable books and pamphlets from the family of the late Hon. E. W. C. Humphrey during the year, and also from Mrs. W. T. McElroy, both of Louisville. It now contains over 20,000 volumes.

VI. General

During almost the entire session, Rev. French W. Thompson labored as Extension Secretary, presenting the call to the ministry to students in schools and colleges, as well as presenting the financial needs of the institution to churches and individuals. He severed his connection with the Seminary in April to engage in war work.

At the commencement of the Seminary recognition was made of twenty-five years of continuous service by Profs. Hemphill and Hawes, and of the founding twenty-five years ago of Louisville Seminary, one of the constituents of the present institution.

PEYTON H. HOGE, Secretary. W. A. GANFIELD, President.

The Seminary has this year added to its corps of instructors Rev. M. Ryerson Turnbull, A. B., B. D., a gentleman of personal charm, ample culture, and proved power as a teacher.

III. Courses of Study

Five distinct courses of study are offered as follows:

1. The regular course, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Divinity.
2. A special course in English, leading to diploma without degree.
3. A post-graduate course.
4. A special mid-winter course for pastors and missionaries wishing to freshen up on theological questions of living interest and on modern methods of practical work.
5. A course of advanced studies leading to the degree of Doctor of Divinity. The Seminary confers this degree, not as an honorary title, but in recognition of proved attainments and eminent scholarship as evinced by the successful completion of prescribed courses of advanced post-graduate study.

IV. Special Lectures and Addresses

The Society of Missionary Inquiry celebrated the one hundredth anniversary of its organization with a four days' program in January, and appropriate addresses were made by Rev. Messrs. W. W. Moore, of Richmond, William E. Hill, of Fayetteville, Charles R. Erdman, of Princeton, Egbert W. Smith, of Nashville, S. L. Morris, of Atlanta, J. M. Wells, of Wilmington, Robert King, of Kingsport, Tenn., D. P. McGeachy, of Lewisburg, W. Va., J. W. Orr, of Charlotte, N. C., and Dr. Robert E. Speer, of New York.

The James Sprunt Lectures for 1918 were delivered in January by Rev. A. H. McKinney, Ph. D., D. D., of New York City, a series of studies in boyhood entitled "Guiding the Boy Over Fool Hill." Other special addresses were made to the students by various speakers such as Rev. Messrs J. H. Mills, D. D., of Clemson, S. C., Andrew R. Bird, of Washington, D. C., Lowry Davis, of Kashing, China, Juan Orts Gonzales, of Nashville, Tenn., and Dr. James B. Woods, of Tsing-kiangpu, China, and Pres. William J. Martin, of Davidson College, N. C.

V. Students

1. Number of students enrolled for the scholastic year, 101, as follows:
   a. Undergraduates—(1) Seniors, 28; (2) Middlers, 18; (3); Juniors, 22.

Diplomas without the degree of B. D. were awarded to the following members of the Senior Class, who have taken the regular course.

William Henry Foard ..... Prospect, Va.
David McLean McGeachy ..... St. Pauls, N. C.

William Garfield Greenlees ..... Houston, Texas.
George Washington Taylor, A. B. ..... Greenville, S. C.
Erwin Beveridge Thompson ..... Smithville, Ga.
William Carlyle Williams ..... Matthews, N. C.

VII. Gifts and Subscriptions

The year has been marked by very large donations to our funds. The net additions to endowment and equipment during the year amounted to $142,719.07. All the funds required for the erection, equipment, and maintainance of the model Sunday School building referred to in our report of last year, have been secured. It is our aim to make this building a pedagogical laboratory for the whole Church, where the best expert training in all phases of Sunday School organization, equipment and instruction will be furnished all the year round.

VIII. Finances

1. Total amount of endowments:
Scholarship endowments	$ 151,149	74
Lectureship, Fellowship and other special funds	55,651	00
General endowments	488,478	66
	$ 695,279	40
2. Value of buildings and grounds (cost)	$ 302,640	49
3. Net additions to endowment and equipment during year	142,719	07
4. Total annual income from all sources	47,067	99
5. Total annual expenditures	47,881	58

IX. Library

1. Whole number of volumes in the Library:
(1) Bound volumes	29,770	00
(2) Pamphlets, unbound	7,507	00
2. Number added during the year:
(1) Bound volumes	2,467	00

X. Needs

The most urgent need of the institution at the present time is the establishment of five adtional fellowships of post-graduate study, with an endowment of $10,000 each. This would not only enable the institution to offer facilities for advanced work to a larger number of exceptionally promising men, but it would also enable us to employ them to a limited extent in the work of instruction to the great relief of an over-burdened faculty.

Report of Austin Seminary.

The Board of Trustees of Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary would report to the Assembly that it has carried on its work during the last year amid many difficulties, some of them due to the extraordinarily distressing war conditions, which have affected the student attendance and the obtaining of means for the work. In spite of these obstacles, we have had thirty-two students under our directions, eight regular students, one post graduate, two from other denominations taking a part in the regular course, and twenty-one special students in the Bible courses. Three students, Messrs. H. G. Anderson, J. H. Wheeler, and H. F. Wager, have been graduated with a degree of B. D. In spite of the difficulties, financial and otherwise, the Board sees its way clear to continue this school of the Prophets, but owing to the small number of students in prospect, and present financial conditions, the teaching force will be reduced. Adequate arrangements will be made, however, to provide instruction in all departments for the students who attend.

XII. Report of the Board of Managers of the Assembly's Training School for Lay Workers.

The Board of Managers of the General Assembly's Training School for Lay Workers respectfully submits to the General Assembly the following report:

I. Board of Managers—Rev. F. T. McFaden, D. D., President; Mr. R. E. Magill, Treasurer; Mr. Robert M. Friend, Secretary; Rev. H. H. Sweets, D. D., Rev. S. H. Chester, D. D.,

Rev. Homer McMillan, D. D., Rev. William Megginson, Prof. J. L. Howe, Ph. D., Rev. S. Nye Hutchison, D. D., Rev. J. S. Lyons, D. D., Rev. Walter L. Lingle, D. D., and Dr. W. B. Lorraine. According to the charter of the institution all these members hold office for one year and their terms of office expire with the meeting of this Assembly.

II. Faculty—The following persons have been elected by the Board of Managers to constitute the faculty of the Training School for the session 1918-1919:

Rev. Walter L. Lingle, D. D., Acting Dean, Sunday School Pedagogy and Church History.
Rev. Walter W. Moore, D. D., LL. D., English Bible, Old Testament.
Rev. Edward Mack, D. D., English Bible, Old Testament.
Rev. W. B. McIlwaine, B. D., English Bible, Old Testament.
Rev. Eugene Caldwell, D. D., English Bible, New Testament.
Rev. M. Ryerson Turnbull, B. D., English Bible, New Testament.
Rev. Charles L. King, B. D., Christian Doctrine.
Rev. O. E. Buchholz, B. D., Christian Missions.
Mr. Wade C. Smith, Personal Evangelism and Stewardship.
Miss Anna Branch Binford, Sunday School Pedagogy, Teen Age Specialist.
Miss Elizabeth McE. Shields, Sunday School Pedagogy, Elementary Division.
Miss Pauline Williamson Grant, Organized Women's Work.
W. B. Lorraine, M. D., Director of Medical Course.
Mr. Owsley Sanders, Business Manager.

It has been the custom of the Assembly to approve the Faculty selected by the Board of Managers.

III. Courses of Study—The Course of Study at the Training School covers a period of two years, known as the Junior and Senior years. The comprehensiveness of this course can be seen by referring to the list of the Faculty given above and by noting the subjects taught by each member of the Faculty. Great emphasis is laid upon the study of the English Bible. It can be truly said that the course is Biblio-centric. But emphasis is also laid on other subjects, such as Christian Doctrine, Missions, various phases of Sunday School work, Organized Women's Work, Personal Work, Stewardship, First Aid Treatment, and other practical methods of Christian work.

IV. Students—The number of students enrolled for the year has been thirty-five. Thirty of these have taken the full regular course. These students represent the majority of the Synods in our General Assembly.

Diplomas were awarded to the following full graduates at commencement on May 9, 1918:

Miss Vereda Zoulean Anderson.....Florence, S. C.
Miss Jessamine Roberts Booth.....Birmingham, Ala.
Miss Irene Hudson.....Verona, Ky.
Miss Agnes Junkin Irwin.....Lexington, Va.
Miss Elizabeth C. Leyburn.....Lynchburg, Va.
Miss Annie Orene McIlwaine.....Greenwood, S. C.
Miss Eliza Atkinson Perry.....Charles Town, W. Va.
Miss Elizabeth Johnson Phillips.....Waterford, Va.
Miss Earlene White.....Meridian, Miss.
Miss Gay V. Wilson.....Richmond, Va.
Miss Elizabeth Bell Wood.....Lost River, W. Va.

Certificates were awarded to the following students for having completed successfully the large majority of the courses taught in the school:

Miss Katharyn Eunice Bridgman.....Greensboro, N. C.
Mrs. Ora C. Huston.....Newport News, Va.
Miss Mamie Duncan Smith.....Petersburg, Va.

V. Location of Graduates—There has been a large demand for the graduates of the Training School as teachers of the Bible in schools and colleges for women, assistants to pastors, Sunday School and Home Mission workers, as settlement workers in mill districts, and as foreign missionaries. Practically all the members of this year's graduating class had been located before commencement and there was demand for others.

The Training School is now four years old and has twenty-four full graduates and ten who have taken special courses out on the field at work. They are distributed as follows: Four are on the foreign field and two expect to go in the near future, five are pastors' assistants, one a Sunday School missionary, three are Bible teachers in schools and colleges for women, and nine are engaged in some form of Home Mission work.

VI. Finances—The Training School was located in Richmond with the understanding that the people of Richmond would provide all necessary funds for the school for the first three years of its existence. The people of Richmond kept their part of the contract. That contract expired June 1, 1917. During the past year the Board of Managers had to raise money for the school as best they could. The General Assembly of 1917 very generously commended the school to the liberality of all our people, but did not provide any systematic way of reaching the people. Some churches, some individuals, and some societies have responded to our appeals, but there has not really been an adequate support for a work of such far-reaching importance, and this notwithstanding the fact that there were only two paid workers in the Faculty, all the other members of the Faculty having generously given of their time and energy as a pure work of love.

The statement of the Treasurer of the Assembly's Training School, made on May 10, 1918, is as follows:

June 12, 1917—Balance on hand at end of school year	$ 837 84
Received from churches and individuals	3,907 68
Money borrowed	600 00
		$ 5,345 52

Disbursements—General Expense Fund

Salary of Dean	$ 2,300 00
Salary of Matron	400 00
Rent of two dormitories	1,262 50
Repairs and incidentals	1,263 20
		$ 5,225 70
Cash balance May 10, 1918		$ 119 82

We have in hand, in addition to our current expense cash balance, the Phillips Memorial Fund, which now amounts to $2,693.51.

This report indicates a deficit in running expenses of $480.18. There are still bills payable which will carry the deficit up to about $750.00 for the session.

The management has included this deficit in next year's budget and is taking active measures to raise the budget. It may be well to explain that the deficit was caused by a large and unforeseen bill for repairs to plumbing caused by the freezing of the water and heating systems in the buildings occupied by the school during the unprecedented cold weather last winter.

VII. Retirement of the Dean—It is proper that special note should be made of the fact that the Rev. William Megginson, who has been Dean of the Training School since it was founded four years ago, has accepted the superintendency of the Presbyterian Orphanage of the Synod of Virginia, located at Lynchburg, Va.

This means his retirement from the deanship of the Training School. Mr. Megginson has won a large place for himself in the hearts of the people of Richmond and they are reluctant to see him go to another city. The Board of Managers put on record in their Minutes a suitable resolution of appreciation for the faithful services which Mr. Megginson has rendered the school. We feel that the whole Church is indebted to him for the work he has done.

Rev. Walter L. Lingle, D. D., has been asked to act as Dean until such time as the finances of the school will justify the securing of a Dean for his whole time.

VIII. The Needs of the Training School—

1. It needs an adequate support for running expenses. Practically all the teachers connected with the school have given their services absolutely free of charge for four years. The Church should not expect them to continue to do this forever. There ought to be at least a nominal compensation given for services rendered. It is our hope that this Assembly will provide an adequate and systematic support for the school. It is doing a great work and has a great field of service and is the Assembly's own school.

2. It needs buildings and equipment. One hundred thousand dollars could be wisely spent at once in providing the necessary buildings for the school. If some member, or group of members of our Church could provide this sum in the near future they would be making a rich investment for the Kingdom. The school cannot reach its very best in rented buildings.

IX. Recommendations—The last General Assembly directed the Board of Managers of the Training School and the General Assembly's four Executive Committees to devise a form of government and a plan for the support of the Training School. The Board of Managers would respectfully report that they have had numerous conferences in person and by correspondence with representatives of the Assembly's four Executive Committees with a view to carrying out these instructions of the Assembly. New plans for the support and government of the Training School were devised and laid before the Executive Committees for their approval, but none of these plans met the approval of the majority of the Executive Committees. Having failed to devise plans for the government and support of the school on which all the Committees could agree, the Board of Managers of the Training School would make the following recommendations to the Assembly:

1. That the General Assembly's Training School for Lay Workers continue to work under its present charter and plan of government which have been fully approved by previous Assemblies.

2. Inasmuch as the large majority of the students of the Training School will always be women, we recommend that women be elected to fill three places out of the twelve on the Board of Managers of the Training School.

3. That the General Assembly place the Training School on its list of Benevolent Causes and ask the Church to raise at least $8,000 annually for its running expenses, and that the Treasurer of the Board of Managers of the Training School be placed in the Assembly's Minutes along with the names of the Treasurers of the Assembly's Benevolent Causes.

Respectfully submitted,

F. T. McFADEN, President Board of Managers.

R. E. MAGILL, Secretary.

XIII. Conference Committee on Union and Federation.

I. The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., in session in Dallas, Tex., on May 21, 1917, adopted the following report from its Committee on Polity:

"Whereas, one hundred and ninety-five Presbyteries have taken action on our Overture looking to organic union between the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. and the Presbyterian Church, United States;

Therefore, be it

Resolved 1. That this Assembly has for many years stood ready and is now ready to enter into negotiations with a view to organic union with the Presbyterian Church, U. S.

Resolved 2. That this matter be committed to the General Assembly's Committee on Church Co-operation and Union with instruction to enter into negotiations with the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., through a Committee appointed by the General Assembly of that Church, if it should deem it advisable to do so.

Resolved 3. That these resolutions, together with the Overture, be telegraphed to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U. S., in session at Birmingham, Ala."

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, U. S., on receipt of the above resolutions adopted the following answer:

"While this Assembly does not regard organic union as practicable at this time, yet it hereby appoints the Committee of Conference on Union asked for by the Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and recommends to the proposed Conference the consideration of the federation of all the Presbyterian Churches of our country upon some practical and effective basis."

The Assembly U. S. appointed the following as its Committee on Conference: Rev. John M. Wells, D. D., Chairman; Rev. Thornton Whaling, D. D., Rev. W. R. Dobyns, D. D., Rev. J. B. Hutton, D. D., Rev. A. B. Curry, D. D., Rev. Homer McMillan, D. D., Rev. A. M. Fraser, D. D.

Alternates: Ruling Elders, Attorney General T. W. Gregory, Judge S. D. Weakley, General Bennett H. Young.

The Committee on Church Co-operation and Union of the Presbyterian Church U. S. A., which served as its Committee on Conference, consists of: Rev. Wm. H. Roberts, D. D., Chairman; Rev. Reuben H. Hartley, D. D., Rev. William McKibbin, D. D., Rev. Charles R. Erdman, D. D., Rev. Edgar P. Hill, D. D., Rev. Robert Mackenzie, D. D., Rev. Wm. H. Black, D. D., Rev. Wm. J. Darby, D. D., Rev. Edgar A. Elmore, D. D., Rev. J. Ross Stevenson, D. D., Rev. George Reynolds, D. D., Rev. Charles Little, D. D., Rev. John F. Carson, D. D., Rev. James H. Snowden, D. D., Rev. Wm. P. Merrill, D. D., Rev. Harlan G. Mendenhall, D. D., Rev. John A. Marquis, D. D. Ruling Elders: General George H. Shields, Judge Jno. A. McIlvaine, Henry W. Jessup, Esq., Hon. Edward E. Beard, Robert S. Fulton, Esq., Prof. J. J. McConnell, Mr. A. R. Nicol.

II. Your Committee held a preliminary meeting at Montreat on August 14, 1917

At this meeting an effort was made to ascertain what each member of the Committee had found out, through correspondence and inquiry, as to the sentiment of our Church on the question of Union and Federation.

The matter of Federation, which under the direction of our Assembly we were to present to the Conference, was fully considered; a consensus of opinion from each of our Committee secured; and Dr. Whaling was requested to prepare a plan embodying the main features agreed upon for our next meeting.

The minutes of this meeting are submitted with this report.

III. The Conference Committee held three meetings. At these meetings the most thorough consideration was given to the great problems before them. The finest spirit and the truest fraternity characterized every session. The full minutes of all three of these meetings are submitted with this report.

1. The first meeting was held at Atlantic City, N. J., on September 27, 1917.

At this meeting the following paper touching the jurisdiction of our Committee was adopted:

"The jurisdiction of this Committee is to deliberate and reach conclusions as to any recommendations to be made to our General Assembly upon the whole subject of Organic Union and all phases of Federation."

A proposition for the organic union of the two churches was presented by the Committee of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.

The following answer was given by the Committee of the Presbyterian Church U. S.:

STATEMENT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON UNION AND FEDERATION TOUCHING ORGANIC UNION

Our Committee appreciates highly the Christian courtesy and fraternal affection displayed by your Committee. We fully recognize the precious heritage of Presbyterian truth and order which our fathers held, and very much of which we hold in common. And we rejoice that our conference is the easier and more pleasant because all those things said and done in times of great excitement in the past have been regretted and withdrawn and all imputations disapproved. As forward-looking men, we can take our eyes off the bitterness of the past and consider the questions before us as they concern the present and as they face the future.

Before the last meeting of our General Assembly, your Presbytery of New York adopted an overture looking to organic union of our two bodies, and the Moderator sent a copy of that overture to every Presbytery. As a result of this action, eleven of our Presbyteries sent up overtures asking for the appointment of a Committee on Conference.

There came also to our Assembly a telegram from your Assembly telling of your readiness "to enter into negotiations with a view to organic union," and that your Committee had "instructions to enter into negotiations with the Presbyterian Church U. S. through a Committee appointed by its General Assembly, if it should deem it advisable to do so."

Our Assembly, by a vote of 141 to 42, adopted this answer to your telegram:

"While this Assembly does not regard organic union as practicable at this time, yet it hereby appoints the Committee of Conference on Union asked for by the Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and recommends to the proposed conference the consideration of the federation of all the Presbyterian Churches of our country upon some practical and effective basis."

In accordance with that action, our Committee was appointed, and is here for this conference with you. When our Committee organized the question was raised whether the action of our Assembly under which we were appointed would permit us to go into the natter of organic union. We decided to hear and consider any statements you might have to make.

And now, having heard with interest and profound respect your statements, we beg leave to state the position of our Committee, which we believe is the position of our Church.

It is our judgment that to press the matter of organic union at this time would cause a split in our own Church, bringing disunion and discord instead of union and harmony. This result we do not, on either side, want. The sad result of the Cumberland union, with its bitterness, litigation and strife, is an object lesson we cannot fail to remember. There must be unity of heart before there can be true union. As one of the Committees of your Church in a former conference once finely said: "We do not believe that such reunion is desirable, or could ever be effective in the great work of the Master, unless it be consummated with the fullest confidence in the Christian character and doctrinal soundness of each other, upon terms of perfect equality and reciprocity, with an earnest and sincere desire to maintain the unity of the Church and our common faith, and on the basis of a candid and sincere acceptance of our common Standards." With the voice of the Assembly in mind, and with letters from about three hundred of our leading men in our hands, we do not regard organic union as practicable at this time.

That we may clear away all mists and if possible all misunderstandings, we will state frankly and fully the objections to union we find in the minds of many in our Church, influencing them so strongly as to mean a rupture in our Church if union should now be insisted upon.

First. There is a feeling on the part of many that there are doctrinal differences between the two Churches.

This does not mean that your ministers are regarded as doctrinally unsound, for we are prepared to accept the statement that a large proportion of your ministry is sound.

Nor does it mean that we assert that all our ministers are sound in the faith; for we fear this is not the case.

This does not mean that many among us charge that your revision has lowered the Calvinism of your Confession; though there are those even in your own Church who claim that the revision has revised unconditional election, limited atonement and irresistible grace.

It rather means that they feel that there is a difference in the attitude of the two Churches toward cases of unsoundness in doctrine. We refer:

(1) To the fact that it is alleged that in your Church professors who do not themselves believe in the plenary inspiration of the Scriptures or in the vicarious atonement of Christ, are permitted to teach in your Theological Seminaries and to propagate these errors there.

(2) To the fact that it is reported that candidates for the ministry are licensed and ordained by some of your Presbyteries who declare that they have not formed definite opinions as to the inspiration of the Scriptures or as to the virgin birth, the miracles or the physical and literal resurrection of Jesus. Being admitted to the ministry with such questions left unsettled, the way is open for the subsequent adoption by these men of a positive denial of these doctrines without challenge.

(3) To the fact that we regard these doctrines, mentioned above, as essential to the Christian faith, while many in your Church do not seem to so regard them. Our view of that "System of doctrine" to which a minister is required to subscribe at ordination is that it contains all that is essential to Christianity plus all that is essential to Calvinism.

That a man may be permitted to preach the gospel in the name of the Presbyterian Church, merely because he holds to those things which distinguish Calvinism from other evangelical creeds, while we may deny what Calvinism in common with all other evangelical creeds holds to be essential to Christianity, is a position to which our Church would not be willing to commit itself, either directly or constructively.

There are many among us who feel this further fact keenly: That although the above-mentioned position of our Church is, they think, widely known, yet in face of that, our Church should be invited to union now at the instance of that Presbytery which has been most conspicuous in its neglect to guard the ministry against such invasion of error, has not only produced marked opposition to union, but considerable sensitiveness.

These men feel that this disregard of our profession of loyalty to doctrine is so pronounced as to imply a want of confidence in our sincerity in making these professions. We trust that this implication was entirely unintentional on the part of that Presbytery, and we feel assured that it was altogether overlooked by your Assembly in taking its action at the suggestion of that Presbytery. Nevertheless the feeling is prevalent that if our Church under these circumstances were now to accept the invitation to unite it would have the effect of a conscious sanction of this implication.

Second. There is a widespread feeling of disappointment in our Church growing out of certain questions of comity that have arisen between the two Churches. In the city of New Orleans, in the city of El Paso, and in the town of Springdale, Ark., certain acute differences had arisen between the two Churches. Certain memorials, protests and overtures touching these differences were presented to the Assembly of our Church at Newport News, Va. They were duly considered and ordered forwarded tc the Assembly of your Church sitting at Rochester, N. Y., by a special commissioner. Your Assembly most graciously received our commissioner and all the matters involved were referred to your Committee on Bills and Overtures.

Upon the recommendation of that Committee the memorial and all the issues involved were referred to your Executive Commission with power, directing them to confer with any committee appointed by the General Assembly of the U. S. This action being telegraphed to our Assembly, a committee was appointed by our Assembly to meet with a similar one appointed by your Executive Commission. These able committees gave careful consideration to all the issues involved. With unanimity they agreed upon a report that was a model of fraternal Christian courtesy. This report thus agreed upon was approved by your Executive Commission and our Committee, as a final settlement of the cases involved, and was transmitted to the two Assemblies. It was received by our Assembly and heartily approved. It was presented to your Assembly, but with a supplementary statement attached. This supplementary statement, as one of your leading Church papers remarked, "drew the teeth" of your Assembly's action. The fact remains that whether because of that supplementary statement, or for some other reason, this treaty or agreement has not been carried out by your Church in a single one of the cases.

And the same action of our last Assembly that appoints us to confer with you contains this statement: "As a matter of fact, the findings of our Joint Committee in the specific case giving rise to their appointment have not been carried out. This failure on the part of the subordinate courts under the jurisdiction of your Assembly to carry out the findings of your Executive Commission is a matter of deep regret to us, and we bring it to your attention in a spirit of frank Christian courtesy, asking that you give it the careful consideration that it deserves. We can but feel that the surest road to a more perfect comity lies through the proper adjustment of such cases and the removal of friction."

Third. There is a feeling with many that our differences as to the handling of the negro question, whether from a social or religious point of view, are fundamental.

We are all agreed as to the need and desire of bringing the colored race to a saving knowledge of God's truth, and securing for it the best practicable development of Christian life and effort. But all thoughtful men feel deeply the difficulties lying in the way. With you the social side of the problem has largely an academic interest, for they are in the main very far from you. With us it is an all-important matter, for they are very near us.

We have determined as a matter of racial preservation that there shall be no social intermingling. We desire to aid in every way the intellectual, moral, social, and religious development of the race. But that aid must stop at the line of social intermingling.

In view of that position, it can readily be seen how numerous and difficult would be the problems that would confront us in a united Church. The incident of the banquet at your Dallas Assembly would be a constantly recurring difficulty. And should we hear a prominent man in the united Church say in a religious paper of the united Church, as was recently said by one of your men in one of your papers, that "race prejudice is one of the darkest sins that ever cursed either Christian or secular society. And the social side of this sin is the most important by far, for it is essentially a more serious matter to refuse to break bread with my neighbor than to refuse him the ballot," you can readily see how much of discord there would be.

Our Church has adopted definitely the policy of entire independence for the colored people in their church organizations, coupled with the largest measure of aid, both spiritual and material. Your Church, on the other hand, has pronounced itself as not in favor of setting off its colored members into a separate independent organization. (See Minutes of the Northern Assembly.)

Because your practical relation, due to geographical position, is different from ours; because your point of view and ours we fear are different; because your ecclesiastical policy in dealing with the Negro and ours are different; many feel that the differences are fundamental, and fearing that union would mean discord, are opposed to union.

Fourth. There are many of our strongest men who feel that we hold essentially different views as to the spirituality of the Church. They feel that we look upon the relation of the Church to the State differently from the way in which you look on that relation. And that your understanding of what makes a deliverance of a Church court a political deliverance is different from ours.

They recognize that our official standard is the same. That the rule that governs us both is: "Synods and Councils are to handle and conclude nothing but that which is ecclesiastical, and are not to intermeddle with civil affairs which concern the Commonwealth unless by way of humble petition in cases extraordinary." But they do not feel that we interpret that alike.

Our Church interprets it to mean this:

The Church is a spiritual body, seeking spiritual ends, and using spiritual means to accomplish them. Her allegiance is given to Christ, her Spiritual Head. She has no lawful union with any civil government, has no commission to endorse any, nor to support any, nor to destroy any, but is enjoined to teach submission to such as God may set up wherever Christian people live. That the right of humble petition does not give us the right nor warrant to make political deliverances; but is only intended for those extraordinary cases in which the liberties or privileges of the Church are threatened or invaded. And that if any deliverances have been made by any of our own Church courts that conflict with this interpretation, such deliverances are wrong.

They feel that your Church has interpreted this section of the Confession differently, in a continuous series of deliverances and actions, beginning with the Spring Resolutions that caused our separate existence as a Church and continuing down to your last Assembly's deliverance on Woman Suffrage.

Now if our interpretation of our Confession is right, yours is wrong. If your interpretation is right, ours is wrong. But the point at issue is that there is a difference in our interpretations. A difference it is that exists down to this hour. And many feel that this difference is a great barrier against the organic union of our two Churches.

Fifth. There are others who are influenced in their strong stand against union by their fear of the unwieldiness of the united Church.

They fear that in such a large and unwieldy Assembly there might be a disregard of constitutional law. They fear that too much power would inevitably come to be lodged in the Boards of the Church. They fear that so large a body as the General Assembly would cease to be a deliberative body, and there would be the danger of the assumption of power on the part of the Moderator, and a growing disregard for the rights of the minority. They feel that the great efficiency of our smaller body would be lost through its being merged in the larger body. And that the great increase in soul-winning and the grace of giving that has come to us in recent years would be lost or at least diminished.

Thus fearing the dangers of an unwieldy Church they are unwilling to be absorbed into your already large body.

These are among the reasons that we find are controlling that large part of our Church that would be unwilling to go into such a union.

These men are unwilling to surrender into other hands the power to discipline or not in doctrinal cases.

These men are unwilling to hand over to others, however fraternal and wise they may be, the solution for us of the vexed race problem.

These men feel keenly the treatment received in the cases of comity mentioned and on that account are unwilling to enter into organic union.

These men feel that our Church is called upon to testify to the spirituality of the Church; and that were our Church swallowed up in yours, that power to witness would be lost.

These men fear the unwieldiness of one great Assembly.

Therefore they oppose organic union. And our Committee, feeling that it would mean the rending of our Church in twain, if pressed now, do not regard organic union as practicable at this time.

It is the judgment, however, of our Committee, that a federative union that would preserve to our Church its autonomy, viz.: the right of discipline in doctrinal cases; the right of settling for itself the race question; the right to witness clearly as to the spirituality of the Church; that would so shape our polity as to prevent one unwieldy Assembly; and that would preferably take into it all branches of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches of our land; would be acceptable to our Church. We have formulated a plan for such a federative union; and have requested Rev. Thornton Whaling, D. D., to present it to you, at the proper time, for your consideration.

I thank you for your patient hearing.

A proposition for the federal union of all the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in the United States was presented by the Committee of the Presbyterian Church U. S.

This proposition was received and placed upon the docket for future consideration.

This paper asking for the continuation of the Conference was presented by the Committee of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.:

"Having heard with pleasure and deep interest the members of the Committee of Conference on Union of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., we respectfully ask that the Conference on Union be continued, and that another meeting be held, preferably in some Southern city, to consider the definite proposal that steps be taken with a view to the organic union of the two Churches at as early a date as possible, on the general basis of the standards of doctrine, government and worship as they to-day exist in the two Churches, the details of the Plan of Union to be adjusted in due time."

This paper was received; the proposition for a further meeting approved, and the subject of union docketed for the next meeting.

2. The second meeting was held at Richmond, Va. At this meeting the plans for federal union and organic union docketed at Atlantic City were fully discussed.

Neither plan proving acceptable, a Sub-Committee, consisting of Rev. W. H. Roberts, D. D., Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D. D., and Rev. C. R. Erdman, D. D., of the Committee of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., and Rev. Jno. M. Wells, D. D., Rev. J. B. Hutton, D. D., and Rev. Thornton Whaling, D. D., of the Committee of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., was appointed to present a report to the final meeting.

3. The final meeting was held at Atlantic City, N. J., on March 13, 1918.

The Sub-Committee presented the following report:

"Your Sub-Committee would report that they have met and carefully considered the matters referred to them and would report to you for your consideration, without recommendation, a paper on Plan of Reunion and also a paper on Plan of Federal Union."

The Plan of Reunion is as follows:

PLAN OF REUNION OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES AND THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

It is proposed to submit the following plan to the Assemblies of both Churches in May, 1918, for their information and as outlining a possible basis for action by the Assemblies of some subsequent year.

Preamble

Believing that the interests of the Redeemer's Kingdom in the United States and in the world would be promoted by the removal of our divisions, and that the two bodies bearing substantially the same name and having practically the same Constitution, cannot be justified in maintaining separate and, in some respects, rival organizations by any but most imperative reasons; we are now clearly of the opinion that the reunion of these bodies ought to be accomplished.

Article 1. The two Presbyterian Churches in the United States of America, namely, the one whose General Assembly convened in the Central Presbyterian Church in the city of Dallas, Texas, on the 17th day of May, 1917, and the one whose General Assembly met in the South Highlands Presbyterian Church in the city of Birmingham, Ala., on the same day, shall be reunited as one Church, under its original name, and possessing all the legal and corporate rights and powers pertaining to the Church previous to the division in 1861, and all the legal and corporate rights and powers which the separate Churches have possessed and exercised since 1861 and do now possess and exercise.

Article 2. The reunion shall be effected on the doctrinal and ecclesiastical basis of the Standards of the two Churches; and the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments shall be acknowledged to be the inspired Word of God, and the only infallible rule of faith and practice; and the Confessions of Faith shall continue to be sincerely received and adopted as containing the system of doctrine taught in the Holy Scriptures.

Article 3. Subscription to the Standards—All candidates for ordination to the ministry must subscribe to the Westminster Standards as containing the System of Doctrine taught in the Holy Scriptures, which are still the terms of subscription as required by the Standards prior to 1861 and which were judiciously interpreted by the Assembly of 1910 as including acceptance of the Confessional Doctrines of the inspiration and inerrancy of the Scriptures, the Virgin birth, the Miracles, the atoning work and bodily resurrection of the Lord Jesus Christ, a deliverance which was reaffirmed by the Assembly of 1916.

Article 4. The Assembly—As provided in the Westminster Standards, the Assembly shall have final authority in all questions affecting the Doctrine and Constitution of the Church and shall exercise direct ecclesiastical control over the combined missionary and benevolent Committees and Boards of the Reunited Church.

The several Boards and Agencies of the two Churches shall be continued in the Reunited Churches in such a manner as to provide in equitable ways for the persons now employed thereby and interests now represented therein.

Article 5. The Synods—The powers of Synods shall be so defined and exercised, and Synods may be so combined geographically as to secure the largest possible degree of constitutional, local self-government. Educational institutions shall remain as they now are so far as jurisdiction over them by ecclesiastical judicatories is concerned.

Article 6. Colored Presbyteries and Synods—As already arranged by the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., separate colored Presbyteries and Synods may be continued or erected.

Article 7. Missions—Money raised by specific requests of any judicatory of the reunited Church for mission work within its own bounds shall be expended only as directed by said judicatory. This includes the action of Sessions, Presbyteries, Synods and the General Assembly.

Article 8. Church and State—While commending to all its members devoted loyalty to the nation and maintaining its duty of moral leadership the reunited Church will continue to recognize the principle of the separation of Church and State, as first announced by the General Synod of the Presbyterian Church in 1729, and should maintain the spiritual character of the Church as separated from the kingdom of this world and having no other head than the Lord Jesus Christ.

To this Plan of Reunion the Committee of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. gave the following answer:

"After having carefully considered the report of the Sub-Committee of the U. S. A. Church on the Plan of Reunion of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. and the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., we do not see our way clear to approve that plan."

The plan of Federal Union is as follows:

PLAN OF FEDERAL UNION

We recommend:

1. That we seek to secure a Federal Union of all the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in the United States.

2. That we recommend to the two General Assemblies represented here that they continue committees to consider further and perfect such a Plan of Federal Union.

3. That these two Assemblies invite:

The Reformed Church in the United States of America,
The United Presbyterian Church of North America,
The Reformed Church in America,
The Associate Reformed Presbyterian Synod,
The Christian Reformed Church in North America,
The Welsh Calvinistic Methodist or Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.,
The Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America,
The General Synod of the Reformed Presbyterian Church,
The Cumberland Presbyterian Church,
The Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored, through their highest courts, to appoint similar committees to join in the consideration and perfecting of such a plan of Federal Union.

4. That the Council of the Reformed Churches holding the Presbyterian System at their meeting March 19th be informed by representatives of this Joint Committee of the plan of union herein proposed.

5. That we propose as a tentative plan to be submitted to our General Assemblies and the highest courts of the Churches mentioned above for their information and action the following

PLAN OF FEDERAL UNION

First, A Federal Union shall be formed, into which all the various Presbyterian and Reformed Churches of our country shall be invited.

Second. This Federal Union shall become effective when three or more of the Presbyterian or Reformed Churches shall adopt the plan of union proposed.

Third. These Churches as at present existing shall constitute General or Provincial Assemblies upon the basis of Ecclesiastical Affinity.

Fourth. A Federal Assembly shall be constituted which shall possess the following ecclesiastical powers:

(a) It shall be the highest court of the Church, and shall represent in one body all the Churches federated therein.

(b) It shall have the title, "The Federal Assembly of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in the United States of America," and shall constitute the bond of union, peace and correspondence among all its congregations and courts.

(c) Its powers shall be those expressly provided in the articles of agreement entered into by the Churches; they shall be those delegated to it by a majority of the Presbyteries or classes of the constituent Churches; they shall be specifically set forth in a Constitution, and they shall not be altered except by consent of all the constituent Churches, each Church acting according to its own Constitution.

Fifth. The powers to be delegated to the Federal Assembly shall be in substance these:

(a) To receive under its jurisdiction, with the consent of each constituent Church, other ecclesiastical bodies whose organization is conformed to the doctrine and order of this Church, and to authorize General Assemblies, Synods and Presbyteries to exercise similar powers in receiving, as provided in the Constitution hereafter to be adopted, bodies suited to become constituents of those courts.

(b) To superintend the affairs of the federated Churches and in general to recommend measures for the promotion of charity, truth and holiness through all the Churches under its care.

(c) To correspond with other Churches.

(d) To administer for the entire Church the work of foreign missions, publication, ministerial relief, schools and colleges, home missions in colored work, evangelism, stewardship, and such other causes as may be delegated to it; provided that in the administration of the various home mission causes the Federal Assembly shall act through the lower courts in accordance with the Constitutions of the several constituent Churches.

(e) To receive reports of all administrative matters reserved by the constituent General Assemblies, and to seek to inspire the whole Church on all matters pertaining to the advancement of the Kingdom of Christ.

(f) To enforce the agreements reached by the constituent Churches, and to settle all questions of comity arising between said Churches.

Sixth. This Federal Assembly shall consist of two commissioners from each Synod of each of the constituent Churches, and two additional commissioners for each additional twenty-five thousand communicants or major fraction thereof, after the first twenty-five thousand; said commissioners to be Ministers and Ruling Elders in equal numbers from each Synod.

Said Assembly shall meet bi-ennially.

Seventh. The General Assemblies or General Synods of the constituent Churches shall remain as at present constituted except for the powers delegated and granted to the Federal Assembly.

(a) The powers of said General Assemblies or Synods shall be supreme in all matters of doctrine and discipline.

(b) All administrative powers not specifically delegated to the Federal Assembly shall be retained by the General Assembly or General Synod.

Eighth. Each constituent Church entering into the Federal Union shall preserve its autonomy, constitution, charters issued by the authority of the State, and all of its distinctive methods of work. All of its property rights shall remain as at present vested and shall not be changed or disturbed, except by the constitutional procedure of the respective constituent Churches.

And it shall be distinctly understood and agreed upon by the constituent Churches entering into said Federal Union that the Provincial or General Assembly is the Supreme Court as respects property rights of the respective constituent Churches, and the Federal Assembly is not given either property rights or final control over any property belonging to any of the constituent Churches, which are not expressly granted or given by said Church to said Federal Assembly in accordance with the Constitution of said Church.

Ninth. That we leave the question of the formation of an African-American Church to the several constituent Churches.

Tenth. It is the purpose of this Federal Union to unite all holding our like precious faith and order, into one Church, presenting a unity to the world, and enjoying all the blessings of union, while at the same time preserving all those distinctive principles, rights, customs and powers that the constituent Churches regard as precious and are unwilling to give up or modify.

To this Plan the Committee of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. gave the following answer:

"That the U. S. A. Committee cannot see its way clear to approve the Plan in its present form."

In view of the foregoing facts, your Committee respectfully and unanimously reports:

"Having had three conferences with the Committee of the U. S. A. Church, in which the differences between the two Churches have been faithfully considered and the difficulties in the way of union and federation have been honestly and frankly faced, it is the judgment of your Committee that neither Organic Union nor Federal Union at present can be effected.

"We would recommend, however, that the Assembly accede to the request of the Committee of the U. S. A. Church that your Committee be continued another year to receive any added light that may be had, and make final report to the Assembly of 1919."

XIV. Report of Ad-Interim Committee on Change in Book of Church Order.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, in Session at Durant, Okla., May 16, 1918.

The General Assembly at its sessions in Birmingham, Ala., in 1917 appointed "an Ad-Interim Committee to be composed of the professors of Church Polity in our Theological Seminaries with Rev. C. R. Hemphill, D. D., as Chairman," to which were referred three papers, namely: a Report of an Ad-Interim Committee appointed by the General Assembly of 1916 to propose a Section of the Book of Church Order defining how candidates for the ministry are to be received, etc., which Report is printed in the Appendix to the Assembly's Minutes for 1917; an Overture from the Synod of South Carolina relating to licensure and ordination of probationers for the ministry; and a Resolution by the Rev. J. L. Mauze, D. D., proposing to change the Assembly's Standing Committee on Judicial Business into a Judicial Commission.

The Committee held a meeting at Montreat, North Carolina, in August, 1917, to consider the several matters referred to it. Three members of the Committee, Professors Hemphill, Lingle, and Reed, were present. Professors Currie and Shaw were prevented by providential reasons from attending the meeting, but they have expressed concurrence in the conclusions reached by the Committee.

The Committee begs leave to submit the following Report:

1. The Report of the Ad-Interim Committee placed in our hands has been carefully considered, and while its order and general statements have been in the main followed, the Committee has made changes and additions, and makes recommendation as follows:

That the General Assembly take the constitutional steps for the amendment of Chapter VI of the Form of Government by adding the following provisions, which shall constitute Section VII of the Chapter:

OF CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY

I. A candidate for the ministry is a member of the church in full communion who believing himself to be called to preach the Gospel enters on a course of study and of practical training to prepare himself for this office.

II. It is recommended that every candidate for the ministry should put himself under the care of a Presbytery, which should ordinarily be the Presbytery that has jurisdiction of the church of which he is a member. He should be encouraged by the session to do this; and upon his request the session should furnish him with a certificate of his membership, and with testimonials of its judgment regarding his Christian character and promise of usefulness in the ministry, to be laid before the Presbytery.

III. In making application to be taken under the care of Presbytery, the candidate for the ministry, in addition to presenting testimonials from his church session, shall be examined by the Presbytery on experimental religion and on his motives for seeking the ministry.

Should the testimonials and the examination be satisfactory, the Presbytery should receive him under its care after the following manner:

The moderator shall propose to the candidate these questions:

1. Do you promise in reliance upon the grace of God to maintain a becoming Christian character, and to be diligent and faithful in making full preparation for the sacred ministry?

2. Do you promise to submit yourself to the proper supervision of the Presbytery in matters that concern your preparation for the ministry?

If these questions be answered in the affirmative, the moderator, or someone appointed by him, shall give the candidate a brief charge; and the proceedings shall close with prayer. The name of the candidate is then to be recorded on the Presbytery's Roll of Candidates for the Ministry.

IV. The candidate continues to be a private member of the church and subject to the jurisdiction of the session, but as respects his preparatory training for the ministry he is under the oversight of the Presbytery. It shall be the duty of the Presbytery to show a kindly and sympathetic interest in him, and to give him counsel and guidance in regard to his studies, his practical training, and the institutions of learning he should attend. In no case must a candidate omit any of the subjects prescribed in the Form of Government as tests for licensure and ordination without obtaining the consent of Presbytery; and where such consent is given the Presbytery shall record the fact and its reasons.

V. For the development of his Christian character, for the service he can render, and for his more effective training, the candidate when entering on his theological studies should be authorized and encouraged by the Presbytery to conduct public worship, to expound the Scriptures to the people, and to engage in other forms of Christian work. These forms of service should be rendered under the direction of Presbytery, and also with the sanction and under the guidance of the candidate's instructors during the time of his being under their instruction. A candidate should not undertake to serve statedly a church which is without a pastor unless he has the approval of the Presbytery having jurisdiction of the church.

VI. The Presbytery shall require every candidate for the ministry under its care to make a report to it at least once a year; and it shall secure from his instructors an annual report upon his deportment, diligence, and progress in study.

VII. The Presbytery may upon the application of the candidate give him a certificate of dismission to another Presbytery; and a candidate may at his request be allowed to withdraw from the care of the Presbytery. The Presbytery may also for sufficient reasons remove the name of a candidate from its roll of candidates; but in such a case it shall report its action and the reasons therefor to the candidate and to the session of his church.

Should the Assembly adopt the recommendation providing for the new Section, the Committee would further recommend,

(1) That the Assembly take proper steps to amend paragraph 77 of the Form of Government by inserting in the sixth line, immediately after the word "jurisdiction," the following words: "to receive under its care candidates for the ministry"; and

(2) That the paragraphs of the new Section be numbered 140 A-I, 140 A-II, etc.

2. The Overture of the Synod of South Carolina requests "that an Ad-Interim Committee be appointed to study the whole matter of licensure and ordination of probationers, looking to a change of our Book of Church Order so that a candidate for licensure may be licensed upon the conclusion of his first year's work in an approved theological seminary—this examination to be upon his collegiate course and the cardinal doctrines of salvation, and the crucial and full examination upon ordination."

The Committee recommends that the General Assembly decline to appoint the Committee requested in the Overture, for the reasons:

(1) The action contemplated in the Overture would seriously modify the idea of licensure set forth in our Form of Government and involve a change which appears to the Committee unwise.

(2) The end sought by the Overture will be best served by the adoption of the Section on candidates for the ministry recommended by this Committee.

3. The Resolution of the Rev. J. L. Mauze, D. D., presented to the Assembly in 1916 and placed on the docket for consideration by the Assembly of 1917, proposes to abolish the Assembly's Standing Committee on Judicial Business and in its place to "create a Standing Judicial Commission to be appointed by the moderator from the members of the Assembly at the time he appoints the Standing Committee, which Commission shall discharge the duties hitherto committed to the Standing Committee on Judicial Business, and shall also try all cases committed to it, which it shall find in order, except those which it is required to refer for trial to the General Assembly by Form of Government, Chapter V, Section VII. The Commission shall ordinarily consist of at least one commissioner from each Synod. No commissioner shall actively serve on this Judicial Commission in any case coming from a lower court of which he is a member or under the jurisdiction of which at the time he is living, nor shall he sit as a judge in any such case tried by the General Assembly, as provided by the Form of Government as cited above."

The Committee is in sympathy with the general purpose of the Resolution, and is of the opinion that the judicial business of the church courts above the session would be conducted more satisfactorily by making certain changes in the provisions relating to the Judicial Commission.

The change proposed by the Resolution does not, however, seem to promise an improvement sufficient to warrant the amendment of the Assembly's Standing Rules, and the Committee therefore recommends that the Resolution be not adopted.

In concluding this Report the Committee ventures the opinion that, before the publication of another edition of the Book of Church Order, it might be of advantage for the Assembly to appoint an Ad-Interim Committee to review the Book and to recommend any changes that would effect a better arrangement of the matter, remove apparent inconsistencies of statement, clear up ambiguities, and improve the phraseology.

Respectfully submitted,

C. R. HEMPHILL,
T. W. CURRIE,
W. L. LINGLE,
R. C. REED,
A. R. SHAW.

XV. Report of the Ad-Interim Committee of the American Bible Society.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

1. The origin and service record of the American Bible Society are too well known to require elaborate repetition in this report. Two years ago the Society rounded out its centenary of service. In these 102 years of its existence it has distributed more than 120,000,000 copies of the Scriptures in this country and abroad in more than 150 languages and types. Besides its main offices and agencies in this country, it is represented in foreign lands by eleven agencies, reaching around the globe. "Together with European Societies, it has made the Bible the cheapest and most ubiquitous book in the world."

2. In the course of the past one hundred or more years local Bible Societies, reaching the number of hundreds, have been organized in America. Most of these have been merged or coordinated with the American Bible Society, because of the difficulty, expense and other complications attending efforts at local administration and operation. This is true of many such societies in the South. The question has been raised if the larger Society has met the needs and discharged the functions of the former local societies.

3. The General Assembly has given answer to this question by establishing and maintaining a close relation with the American Bible Society and by appropriating through the Committee on Systematic Beneficence one per cent of our contributions for benevolences. On the initiative of Dr. Thomas H. Law, our esteemed Stated Clerk, who was at that time District Superintendent of the American Bible Society for the Carolinas, the Assembly of 1890 at Asheville, N. C., endorsed the work of the Society and commended it warmly to our churches for their contributions.

In 1908 the Assembly, at Lexington, Va., in answer to overtures from Synods and Presbyteries, appointed a Permanent Committee on Bible Cause, through which in all succeeding years it has kept in touch with and given endorsement to the Society.

4. Your Committee was appointed to define the relationship existing between this Society and the General Assembly, and to make recommendations in harmony therewith.

While the Society is not bound to our Church by organization or control, but is an independent and self-governing body, yet its unselfish service and its direct benefits to our Church are so great as to make the relationship both intimate and vital. Formerly the work of the American Bible Society was conducted through local auxiliaries, such as State Bible Societies; but the direction of the work through these proved to be cumbersome, and most of them have been merged with the Society itself.

5. In the territory covered by our Church the American Bible Society operates through four agencies, each with its agency secretary. These are the South Atlantic, Central, Southwestern and Colored agencies. Two of these agents are Presbyterian ministers, one now in our Assembly, the other formerly a minister of our Church.

6. During the year 1916 the four agencies distributed in the South 423,208 copies of the Scriptures.

In fifteen years of service (that is, since 1901), the colored agency has distributed a half million copies of the Scriptures among the people of its own race. The four agencies have distributed in the aggregate, since their erection, two and a half million copies of the Scriptures in the Southland. It can hardly be supposed that the local societies could ever have achieved such results.

7. So early as December, 1917, 100,000 New Testaments had already been distributed among our soldiers in the camps, one-half of these in the Southern camps. One hundred thousand also were distributed among the soldiers on the Mexican border. Altogether a million copies are to be distributed to soldiers through the Y. M. C. A., at a cost of $200,000—a great work of faith and love, since the American Bible Society had not a dollar in hand for it at the time when it determined that this work should be undertaken.

8. The wide and effective service of the Society in foreign lands must also be considered. To whom shall our missionaries turn for help in supplying the Bibles in their fields, and for the printing of native versions which they have made? Local societies might meet in a measure local needs, but would leave the missionary helpless. The debt of our Church to the American Bible Society in this particular is beyond estimate.

9. The contributions of our churches to the Society's work fall far below the actual gifts made in their own fields. And the contributions of all the denominations of the South come far short of the actual cost of the service rendered in their territories by the Society. Its endowments and its receipts from other sources have availed for our local needs out of all proportion to our gifts and service to it.

10. In the list of the officers of the Society will be found the names of three elders in our Church who serve as vice-presidents, namely: Mr. W. T. Hardie, of New Orleans; Mr. George W. Watts, of Durham, N. C.; and Mr. Christopher Mathewson, of Florida.

11. We find after correspondence and conferences that the affairs of the Society are being wisely and economically administered. Efficient men are in charge of the agencies which cover the territory of our own Church.

12. In view of these clear evidences of the great service which the American Bible Society is rendering, of our need of its organized and equipped facilities, and of our enthusiasm as a Church for the dissemination of the Scriptures in all the world, we recommend the following action:

(1) That the Assembly again give its hearty endorsement to the work of the American Bible Society, with expression of its gratitude to God for an organization so loyal and so effective in so great a cause.

(2) That the Permanent Committee on Bible Cause be continued as at present, not with a view to its having any voice in the management of the affairs of the Bible Society or conducting any vigorous campaign of advertising or promoting its work, but simply as a connecting link between our Assembly and this Society, which have so great interests in common.

(3) That the Permanent Committee be authorized, in its wisdom, to supply information to our churches, by mail or otherwise, without expense to the General Assembly, in order that our churches may be informed about the great work of the Society and its need of our liberal help.

(4) That subscriptions to the Bible Society Record, which is the official organ of the Society, be encouraged among our churches.

XVI. Report of the Council of the Reformed Churches in America Holding the Presbyterian System

Dear Brethren: The Council of the Reformed Churches in America holding the Presbyterian System respectfully reports to its constituent Churches for the year ending March 31, 1918.

The constituent Churches in the Council are the same as heretofore reported, and the names appear later in this report.

I. Meetings—The regular biennial meeting of the Council was held on March 19-20, 1918, in the Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia, Pa.

II. Officers—The officers of the Council for the biennial term of services ending March, 1920, are as follows: President, Rev. Thomas H. MacKenzie, D. D.; Vice-President, Rev. J. Ross Stevenson, D. D.; Stated Clerk, Rev. William H. Roberts, D. D.; Permanent Clerk, Rev. Rufus W. Miller, D. D.; Treasurer, Rev. David F. McGill, D. D.

III. Executive Committee—The Executive Committee of the Council which transacts the business in the intervals between the regular meetings is composed of the officers above named, along with the Chairmen of the standing committees for the next year, Rev. George Alexander, D. D., Foreign Missions; Rev. J. S. Lyons, D. D., Home Missions; Rev. Huber Ferguson, Work Among Colored People; Rev. J. W. Beardslee, D. D., Christian Education and Literature; Rev. James Meminger, Ministerial Relief; Rev. William P. Fulton, D. D., Correspondence; and Silas F. Hallock, M. D., Finance.

IV. Closer Relations—The subject of closer relations was carefully considered by the Council upon the report of its Executive Committee. It is to be noted that the supreme judicatories of the constituent Churches consented to the presentation to them by the Council of such changes in the plans of the body as should bring into more practical form the whole matter of closer relations between the Churches and their organized agencies. The Churches agreeing to this method of procedure were the Reformed Church in America, the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., the United Presbyterian Church, and the Reformed Church in the U. S. The Council respectfully submits the plan of Federal Union appended hereto, drawing specific attention to the fact that it contains a Preamble, a Basis of Union, and, in addition, Amendments and Additions to the Articles which established the Council in 1906. The Churches are requested to take action thereupon in such manner as to each of the supreme judicatories may appear to be at once appropriate and constitutional. The text of the Plan is appended to this Report.

V. Members Present—There were present at the meeting of the Council representatives from all the constituent Churches, with the exception of the Associate Reformed Synod of the South and the Cumberland Presbyterian Church (Colored). The members of Council present numbered thirty, and the Boards were represented in every case, except from the Churches whose members were all absent as above stated.

VI. Conferences—The Conferences of the Council with the representatives of the Boards and Agencies were held on the evening of Tuesday, March 19th, and the morning of Wednesday, March 20th. These Conferences were frank, fraternal and fruitful of fellowship and harmony.

VII. Home Missions—The Home Mission Work of the Constituent Churches of the Council becomes more complex and perplexing as our polyglot population increases. There are no frontiers to be occupied within the territory of the United States, and the cities, with their diversified peoples, raise issues which are difficult to solve. The Council had presented to it a summarized statement of a report on Home Missions presented at the recent meeting of the Western Section of the World Alliance of Presbyterian and Reformed Churches, by Dr. McElroy of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. The table prepared by Dr. McElroy is printed in the Report of the Western Section.

One of the most hopeful and encouraging features of Home Mission work is the growing recognition on the part of the Churches of the principles of Christian comity, and a more cordial cooperation in the prosecution of Home Mission work. The Council gave deep attention to the problems created by the war situation and the following recommendations were adopted:

In view of conditions which have developed in this country by the war and other contributing causes, it is recommended that the Home Mission forces of the constituent bodies plan, in a statesman-like way, to do positive, constructive, co-operative work in such new centers as are rapidly developing through the readjustment of our population in munition plants and other industrial centers; and it is recommended, further, that we seek to co-operate in religious work in the camps, cantonments and naval stations so that there may be no duplication of effort in ministering to our soldiers and sailors in the National Service.

VIII. Foreign Missions—The two years since the last Council have been years of uncertainty, stress and peril. The financial unsettlement has compelled all the foreign mission agencies to meet unexpected charges for the maintenance of their regular work. The enforced suspension of work by German Societies, and the exigencies of French Societies have constrained American missionaries to shepherd flocks numbering hundreds of thousands. This has caused an increase of financial responsibility. Every Church in America should think upon what its missionaries have been facing in the Turkish Empire, in Persia, in parts of Africa, and elsewhere.

Union efforts in foreign mission fields continue to be conducted. A woman's Christian College has been established recently in Tokio, Japan, and is supported not only by Presbyterians and the Reformed, but also by Methodists and Baptists. In Korea the several Presbyterian Churches are giving their support to the Union College at Pyeng Yang and Seoul. In the Severance Medical College practically all Protestant missions in Korea co-operate. In China the same general course is being pursued, notably at Shan Tung University, at Nanking Theological Seminary, and the Union Girls' School at Heng Chow. In Mexico and in Brazil co-operative work is being carried forward effectively, and the last proposal is for a great Protestant University. It seems that the necessity for union in our foreign mission work is urgent to the point of desperation.

The proposal that there should be organic union of the Boards while their respective Churches can keep apart is to be very carefully considered. Experiments in the past with such Union Boards have not been successful. The demand for united effort is much stronger now than it was then. Any Union Board which is simply a federated body might be helpful as a temporary measure pending union of the Churches and the formation of a Union Administrative Board, but such a Board could only have advisory relationships to the denominational Boards, with no power to do anything without their consent.

It is recommended that the Boards of Foreign Missions of the Churches represented in this Council be advised to hold Conferences as soon as possible, in order to consider measures to promote closer relation between the Boards at home in such matters as the cultivation of the Home Church, the increase of missionary interest, giving and prayer, the finding and qualification of candidates for missionary appointment, unity in policies and methods, and such other measures as they may find practicable.

IX. Work Among Colored People—Considerable advance has been made in the Freedmen's Work which the Council reviews, and both along numerical lines and methods of management. The following statistics are of value in this connection:

Name of Church	No. of Ministers	No. of Churches or Stations
Reformed Church in America	2	2
Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A	253	446
Presbyterian Church in the U. S	33	35
Reformed Church in the U. S	(Co-operation only)
United Presbyterian Church	16
Associate Reformed Presbyterian Synod	2	3

A very notable advance has been made in Sabbath-school lines by the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. This work reports 28,400 colored communicants, 25,100 Sabbath-school scholars, and 18,700 pupils in the day schools.

The Presbyterian Church in the U. S. has organized its colored ministers and churches into four Presbyteries wherever practicable. The outlying churches remain a constituent part of white Presbyteries.

The United Presbyterian Church discontinued its schools at Norfolk, Va., Bristol, Tenn., and Cleveland, Tenn. The churches at those places are continued. The reason for the discontinuance of the school work was because the State, in each of those communities, provided equal facilities for the colored as for the white pupils in the public schools.

The Council reports that its Committee on this form of work deems it advisable for the Boards to seek to create a co-operative, controlling agency. It is, also, the judgment of the Council that conferences of all the Boards and Agencies for Colored Work in the constituent Churches of the Council be held at an early date to consider questions connected with unification of administration.

X. Christian Education and Literature—There have been great changes in this field since the report to the Council of 1916. Some of these changes have come suddenly owing to the great world war which, for the United States, began April 6, 1917.

General conditions are dealt with first. The feeling that education of the young cannot be safely separated from some religious as well as ethical training is deepening in the minds and hearts of the people. Those who are familiar with public instruction in the State schools affirm this positively and also, with equal distinctness, that the only book fitted to achieve this result is the Bible. The qualities of the sacred volume are such as to conserve not only religious but likewise important literary, social and educational interests. In this connection, it is proper to remember that the laws of many States provide for reading a portion of Scripture in the schools every day, and that other States leave the matter to the local Boards of Education. It is important that a proper public sentiment upon this matter should be cultivated. We know that the Public and Sabbath School Boards are working together in a satisfactory manner, that in our colleges there is a steadily increasing number of Bible Chairs, and that in the Sabbath Schools the departmental graded lessons are received with favor.

The withdrawal of students from colleges and universities to enlist in the Army and Navy is noted with satisfaction from the side of patriotism. It is important, however, to bear in mind that the denominational colleges, in consequence, suffer financial stress owing to the withdrawal of one-fourth of their young men students to enter the war, and, also, to increased cost of living.

The action of the Public Safety Committee of Pennsylvania in inaugurating a campaign for recruiting the depleted ranks of the colleges of the State from the high schools and academies is worthy of hearty support. The shortage in the number of ministerial students, not due entirely to the war, needs very serious attention from the supreme judicatories, and special appeals should be made to the students in colleges to consider the claims of the ministry. At least 4,000 Protestant ministers a year are needed to maintain the present total of 170,000, and the seminaries usually supply about one-half of these. There are, however, 800 men less than usual now in our seminaries.

In connection with this shortage of ministers and candidates for the ministry, we call the attention of our Churches to the fact that elders and deacons are recognized, under the Constitutions of the Churches, as authorized to conduct religious services in our Churches, and it is suggested that they be more largely used than hitherto in the supply of vacant churches. The following resolutions are submitted:

(1) That a conference of the representatives of the several Boards and Agencies having to do with Christian Education and Literature be held at an early date, and that the convener be the Rev. Rufus W. Miller, D. D., of the Reformed Church in the U. S.

(2) That the Council's Committee act in co-operation with the Commission on Education of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

XI. Ministerial Relief—Inquiry into the plans, methods and conditions under which ministerial relief is granted indicates that in every one of the constituent Churches there is an affectionate consideration of the beneficiary as a brother in Christ and esteemed for his work's sake. The Boards of Relief in the several Churches are a constant inspiration to each other and have shown a fine spirit of co-operation. Their work is now standardized in the following particulars:

(1) The same general form of application for relief is in use.

(2) The same sort of consideration is given to all applications.

(3) Appropriations are made on the same plan, the amount being determined by relative need and service and the funds at the disposal of the Board.

The Council respectfully recommends to the supreme judicatories the reciprocal recognition by each of the Boards of the constituent Churches, of full credit in each for the years of service rendered in any one of them, where a minister is transferred from one Church to another.

XII. Complaint Under Article Six—A complaint contained in a communication from the General Synod of the Reformed Church in the U. S., was duly filed and considered. This complaint touched upon comity within the jurisdiction of the Classis of Illinois connected with said General Synod. Inasmuch as Article 6 of the Articles of Agreement constituting the Council requires that such a complaint shall be brought to the attention of the Council by the supreme judicatories of all the parties thereto, and inasmuch as only one party has given the Council notice, the following course of action was decided upon.

The Stated Clerk of Council was directed to inform the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. of this case and to secure on its part the necessary action for the hearing of the same with due regard to the rights of all parties thereto, the decision of the Council to be accepted as final by both churches, a report of said decision to be made by the Stated Clerk of Council to both of the supreme judicatories interested.

XIII. Length of Service of Members of Council, Etc.—The question of the length of service of Standing Committees of Council and questions connected with the membership and officers of the Council were considered by the Council, and as a result the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, 1. That members of the Council duly enrolled at a biennial session, unless a special meeting of the Council be held in the interim between biennial meetings and new members are duly certified thereto, are to be recognized as the regular members until the next biennial session.

Resolved, 2. That members of Committees appointed at a biennial session of the Council are the members of the committees to which they are appointed until the next biennial session. This rule shall also apply to officers of the Council, elected at a biennial session.

Resolved, 3. That when through an inadvertency a supreme judicatory of a constituent Church of the Council omits to elect or appoint its members, that the persons elected by said supreme judicatory at its meeting immediately prior to such omission are hereby recognized as members of the Council until their successors are elected.

Resolved, 4. That the Clerks of the Council, in the discretion of the Council, may be elected from the general constituency of the Churches of the Council.

XIV. Representative of Agencies—The Council asks the consent of the supreme judicatories to the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the supreme judicatories authorize their Executive Agencies to appoint representatives to be present at future meetings of the Council.

Resolved, 2. That each of the supreme judicatories appoint standing committees to report upon the minutes and recommendations of the Council.

XV. Elections—The supreme judicatories are also respectfully requested to elect at their next meetings the members to represent them in the Council for the next two years or for such other periods as to the judicatories may seem proper. The total membership of the Council is as follows:

Reformed Church in America	8
Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.	32
United Presbyterian Church	8
Presbyterian Church in the U. S.	12
Reformed Church in the U. S.	12
Associate Reformed Presbyterian Synod	4
Cumberland Presbyterian Church (Colored)	4
Total	80

XVII. Expenses—The supreme judicatories are requested to pay apportionments for the current expenses of the Council in the following annual amounts:

Reformed Church in America	$ 50 00
Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.	200 00
United Presbyterian Church	50 00
Presbyterian Church in the U. S.	75 00
Reformed Church in the U. S.	75 00
Associate Reformed Presbyterian Synod	25 00
Cumberland Presbyterian Church (Colored)	25 00
Total	$ 500 00

XVIII. Finances—The Treasurer of the Council, the Rev. David F. McGill, reports that the payments during the year amounted to $900.00, one or two of the constituent Churches having made good, back payments. The disbursements for the year were $515.87; the balance from the preceding year was $1,311.95, and the balance in the treasury March 19, 1918, was $2,211.95. It is to be borne in mind that all the officers of the Council serve without salary. Should the Plan of Federal Union be adopted, the balance now in the treasury will prove a decided help in putting such a plan into operation. The address of the Treasurer is Ben Avon, Pa.

XIX. Delegates—Delegates to the supreme judicatories of the constituent Churches were appointed as follows:

Reformed Church in America—Rev. J. Preston Searle, D. D.
Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.—Rev. Wm. H. Roberts, D. D., LL. D.
Presbyterian Church in the U. S.—Mr. J. Lewis Thompson.
Reformed Church in the U. S.—Rev. A. S. Weber, D. D.
United Presbyterian Church—Rev. J. Alvin Orr, D. D.
Associate Reformed Presbyterian Synod—Rev. G. R. White, D. D.
Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored—Rev. J. M. W. Deshong.

The Minutes of the Council are herewith submitted to you for your consideration, the above compendium of the work of the Council being for general distribution through inclusion in the Minutes of the respective supreme judicatories.

With sincere respect,

Yours fraternally,
THOMAS H. McKENZIE, President,
WILLIAM H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.:

The Council of the Reformed Churches in America holding the Presbyterian System herewith submits to your venerable body for consideration and such action as to you may seem proper a Plan of Federal Union which was adopted at the recent meeting of the Council in Philadelphia, Pa., March 19-20, 1918.

It is respectfully requested that you report your answer on this Overture as to the above named Plan at an early date to Rev. Wm. H. Roberts, D. D., Stated Clerk of Council.

The Plan reads as follows:

PLAN OF FEDERAL UNION

The Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in America, desiring to evince and develop their spiritual unity and to promote closer relations and more effective administrative co-operation among these Churches, hereby adopt a Preamble, a Basis of Federal Union, and also the following *amended Articles of Agreement in furtherance of these purposes:

PREAMBLE (NEW)

The Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in the United States of America represent the same type of evangelical Protestant Christianity, commonly known as Reformed or Calvinistic. The Churches of the Reformation in Europe, to which they are historically related, originated in different lands and passed through different experiences, which differences by reason of nationality and language appear in the forms of the original standards of the several Churches. We, therefore, with clear understanding of the nature of such differences, hereby declare our conviction that the Westminster Confession of Faith and Catechisms, the Belgic Confession, the Heidelberg Catechism and the Canons of the Synod of Dort are in essential agreement, and are different expressions of one and the same system of doctrine. This doctrinal agreement appears in the recognition, in all the symbols, of the fundamental doctrines of evangelical Christianity as held by the Reformed or Calvinistic Churches, and also in the use made of the Apostles' Creed, the Ten Commandments, the Lord's Prayer, and the Catechisms of the several Churches, for the instruction of the youth of their congregations.

---

BASIS OF UNION (NEW)

1. The Doctrinal Basis of the General Council shall be the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments acknowledged as the inspired Word of God and the only infallible rule of faith and practice, with the common system of doctrine as set forth in the existing Standards of the constituent Churches.

2. The principles of the Forms of Government and the Constitutions including the terms of doctrinal subscription of the several Churches uniting, are recognized as a part of the Basis of Union.

3. The Directories for Worship of the several Churches shall be a part of the basis of union to the extent that congregations shall have the same freedom of worship, both as to forms and usages, under the General Council, as they had before the federation.

*ARTICLES OF AGREEMENT

1. For the prosecution of work under this Federal Union an Ecclesiastical Council is hereby established, which shall be known by the name and style of "The General Council of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches in America."

2. The General Council shall consist of at least eight representatives, ministers or ruling elders, from each of the constituent Churches, for each one hundred thousand communicants or fraction thereof up to three hundred thousand; and where a Church has more than three hundred thousand communicants, then eight representatives, ministers or elders, for each additional two hundred thousand communicants or fraction thereof. These persons shall be chosen with their alternates under the direction of their respective supreme judicatories, in such manner as those judicatories shall respectively determine.

3. Every Church entering into this Agreement retains its distinct individuality, its own creed, government and worship, as well as every power, jurisdiction and right, which is not by these Articles expressly and exclusively delegated to the body hereby constituted.

4. The General Council shall exercise only such powers as are conferred upon it by these Articles, or such as may hereafter be conferred upon it by the constituent Churches. All acts of the Council affecting the interests of any of the constituent Churches shall have only advisory authority, except in matters covered by Articles 5, 6, 7 and 8.

5. The General Council shall have power to promote the co-operation of the constituent Churches in their Foreign Missionary work, and also in their general work in the United States of America, so far as denominationally organized, in connection with Home Missions, Evangelism, Work among the Colored People, Church Erection, Sabbath Schools, Publications, Education, Ministerial Relief and Comity, and shall exercise this power in the establishing and appointing of administrative agencies to maintain and conduct the work representative of any one or more of the causes mentioned, as consented to by the several supreme judicatories concerned. The Council may advise and recommend in other matters pertaining to the general welfare of the kingdom of Christ.

6. The General Council shall have power to deal with questions which may arise between the constituent Churches, in regard to matters within the jurisdiction of the Council, which the constituted agencies of the Churches concerned have been unable to settle, and which may be brought to the attention of the Council by the supreme judicatories of the parties thereto; and such differences shall thereupon be determined by the Council or by such agencies as it may appoint. If determined by an agency, such as a Committee or Commission, there shall be the right of appeal to the Council for final decision. The representatives in the Council, of Churches which are parties to questions at issue, shall be excluded from voting upon such questions. Every final decision shall be transmitted by the Council to the supreme judicatories of the Churches concerned, which shall take such steps as are necessary to carry the decision into effect.

7. The General Council shall have power to deal with any other matters of interest common to any two or more of the constituent Churches, which may be referred to it by the supreme judicatories of the Churches concerned for its action, with such authority in the premises and under such conditions as may be agreed upon by the Churches which make the reference. It may also initiate movements having co-operation and union in view, subject to the approval of the Churches concerned, and may, if necessary, conduct a survey of particular fields or causes.

---

8. The General Council shall have power to open and maintain a friendly correspondence with Presbyterian and other Evangelical Churches for the purpose of promoting concert of action in matters of common interest; but nothing in this article shall be construed as affecting the present rights of correspondence of the constituent Churches.

9. The General Council shall give full faith and credit to the acts, proceedings and records of the duly constituted authorities of the several constituent Churches.

10. The officers of the General Council shall be a President, Vice-President, Stated Clerk, Treasurer, and such other subordinate officers as may be necessary. The General Council may also appoint an Executive Committee with such authority as the Council may vote, to act in the intervals between the meetings of Council.

11. (New.) Any Boards or other administrative agencies which the General Council may appoint with the approval of the Churches concerned shall be composed of representatives of the constituent Churches, each Church being represented thereon by at least one member. When the number is more than one for each Church, then the increase shall be in proportion to the volume of work as represented by the annual investment of each Church. All members shall be nominated by the supreme judicatories directly interested or by their Boards or Agencies as the judicatories may determine. Each judicatory shall nominate one or more persons for each vacancy and the term of office shall be four years, the members being divided into two classes, one of which, in the first election, shall be elected for two years only.

12. The General Council shall meet in regular session at least biennially, and on its own adjournment, at such time and place as may be determined. In the conduct of its meetings it shall respect the conscientious views of its constituent members. The President shall call special meetings at any time when requested so to do by a majority of the representatives of each of two or more of the constituent bodies; thirty days' notice of such meetings shall be given to all the members, and only such business may be transacted as is specified in the notice.

13. The expenses of the General Council shall be met by a fund to be provided by a pro rata apportionment on the basis of the representation of each Church in the Council. The expenses of the representatives shall be paid by their respective Churches. All the expenses involved in the settlement of any question between the Churches shall be borne equally by the Churches concerned.

14. When the representatives of three of the Churches, at a meeting of either the General Council or its Agencies, request a unit vote by Churches upon a pending motion, the vote shall be so taken.

15. The General Council shall have power to make such regulations and by-laws as shall be deemed necessary for the conduct of its business.

16. Any Church holding the Reformed Faith and Presbyterian Polity may be received into the General Council by a majority of the representatives of the Churches, voting by the unit rule, and upon its adoption of the Plan of Federal Union, these Articles of Agreement included.

17. Any Church in the General Council may withdraw therefrom on notice officially given, and on its observance of the same constitutional steps as were followed in its adoption of these Articles.

18. Any amendment to these Articles proposed to the General Council shall before its adoption be approved by the Council, and receive the consent of two-thirds of the constituent Churches acting in accordance with their respective Constitutions. When the General Council shall have been notified of such consent it shall declare the amendment to be a part of the Articles of Agreement.

HISTORICAL NOTE

The Articles of Agreement given above in their original form went into effect in 1907, having been adopted by the Reformed Church in America, the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., the United Presbyterian Church of North America, and the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. The first Council met in New York City, in the Collegiate Reformed Church, 29th street and Fifth avenue, December 3rd and 4th, 1907. The Reformed Church in the U. S. was represented in this First Council by three delegates, although the Articles of Agreement were not adopted by it until 1908. The Associate Reformed Presbyterian Synod was received into the Council in 1910, and Colored Cumberland Presbyterian Church in 1912.

In the list of original Articles No. 18 appeared, reading:

18. These Articles of Agreement shall go into effect when any two or more Churches shall adopt the same by proper action and elect their representatives in the manner herein provided.

This Article having served its purposes is printed as part of this Note.

XVII. Report of the Executive Commission of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches Throughout the World Holding the Presbyterian System, Western Section, for the Year Ending March 31, 1918.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S.

Dear Brethren: The Western (American) Section of the Executive Commission of the Alliance of the Reformed Churches throughout the World holding the Presbyterian System, respectfully presents its Annual Report for the year 1917-18, under the following heads:

I. Meeting—The Western Section, during the year 1917-18, held one meeting, the place being Princeton, N. J., and the time February 27th and 28th, 1918. The Rev. John Somerville, D. D., President, presided and the Section was most comfortably and generously entertained by the faculty of Princeton Theological Seminary and the churches of Princeton. The edifice in which the Section assembled was the historic Miller Chapel.

II. Officers—The officers for the present year are: Chairman, Rev. George W. Richards, D. D.; Vice-Chairmen, Rev. D. F. McGill, D. D., and Rev. Ame Vennema, D. D.; Recording Secretary, Rev. J. C. Scouller, D. D. The Rev. Wm. H. Roberts, D. D., is the Secretary of the Western Section by virtue of his position as American Secretary of the General Council, and the Treasurer of the Council, Mr. Philip E. Howard, is the Treasurer of the Section.

III. Necrology—The members of the Section who departed this life during the past year were two in number, both connected with the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.; the Rev. James A. Worden, D. D., LL. D., and Mr. Edward W. C. Humphrey. These brethren were worthy co-laborers in every good work, and Dr. Worden in particular was one of the great leaders in the notable progress made during the past forty years in connection with Sabbath School work.

IV. Work in Europe. Bohemia—The Rev. Dr. Dusek, Superintendent of the Bohemian Reformed Church, has been in prison, Protestant literature is being confiscated, and the sympathies of all our Churches should go out heartily to the Bohemian, Moravian, and other Churches which are suffering for the faith within the bounds of the Austro-Hungarian Empire.

France—The Reformed Churches are suffering greatly from the war. Twenty of the pastors have fallen in battle, three of them foreign missionaries, thirty-one students of Theology have died in the war, and one hundred and seventy Huguenots in service have had marks of distinction for notable bravery. Because of the scarcity of pastors, it is stated in the reports that women pastors are being placed in some of the congregations, and that not only where pastors have died, but where they have enlisted as chaplains. Army Chaplains of the French Church, Professor Monod of Paris, and the Rev. Georges Lauga, recently visited the United States and were welcomed in a number of our congregations.

Italy—The Waldensian Church at the beginning of the war had three army chaplains and now has eight. They are rendering most valuable service, and the Italian Government gives them recognition and effective support.

Russia—Russia is being overturned not only politically, but religiously. Since the Revolution a number of the bishops have been elected by popular vote instead of by appointment of the Czar. The Bolscheviki have taken possession of the churches, have cut off the salaries of the priests and secularized marriage. Some of the leaders of the Bolscheviki are enemies of Christianity. There is, however, one hope, the Russian Church encourages the circulation of the Bible. Help is a decided need of the evangelical forces in this country.

The Armies—The greatest of Continental problems is the religious condition of the British, Canadian, American, French, Italian and other troops at the front. There are hundreds of thousands of them who come from Churches of our faith and order. It is a subject of rejoicing that work is being done for them by Christian chaplains, by Y. M. C. A. huts, by the Red Cross, and by other religious agencies. The United States, we are informed, has chosen as the American center for rest and convalescence the beautiful district of Aix-la-Bains, south of Geneva, far from the temptations of a large city. It is recommended that action be taken to express to the United States Government appreciation of its efforts in this direction.

One notable fact connected with the religious conditions of the soldiers in Europe is the definite report that they are not atheistic. Chaplains and others who have worked among them say that in the armies in France they have never met an avowed atheist. To put it concisely, "Some of the soldiers are not satisfied with the Churches, but they are all satisfied with Christ." Many of the soldiers have little use for denominationalism. They do not, however, appear to have faith in undenominationalism, in Churches with creeds broad enough to receive everybody. The broad spirit prevalent in the armies may be regarded as a solemn call of God to the Churches generally to get closer together.

V. Church History—It is now assured that the translation of the Latin works of Zwingli, the first founder of our family of Churches, will be published by the Reformed Church in the United States. The first volume was issued in 1912, and the second and third volumes will be issued from the Heidelberg Press of Philadelphia. It is respectfully requested that the several supreme judicatories authorize the payment of their due proportion of a subscription of $1,000.00 to the cost of this publication, according to the percentage of membership.

The Western Section, in view of the entrance of the United States into the present terrible conflict with the Central Powers of Europe, recommends that each of the constituent Churches take diligent care to secure all the data possible touching upon the participation of its ministers and members in the present war.

VI. Home Missions—The report of the Committee on Home Missions is most instructive, and brings out clearly the fact that the greatest work in connection with it is the extension of the Church among our native population, because this is the foundation and the support of all work. Each one of the constituent Churches of the Alliance in North America reports the trying conditions owing to the war, and also the considerable progress made in all lines of work. It should be understood that Home Missions really include evangelism, also such an impressive movement as that which deals with the efficiency of the country church, and likewise the building of church edifices. It is in addition noteworthy that during the past year there has been increasing interdenominational co-operation in most of the Home Mission fields. The following figures will help to an understanding of the situation of this work:

	Missionaries Employed	Churches and Missions Aided	Receipts
Presbyterian Church in Canada	1,098	1,100	$ 540,000
Presbyterian Church in U. S. A.	1,881	1,934	2,590,920
Presbyterian Church in U. S.	432	600	684,418
United Presbyterian Church	290	255	586,841
Reformed Presbyterian Church in America	222	250	218,183
Reformed Presbyterian Church in the U. S.	210	242	170,000
Synod Reformed Presbyterian Church	75	45	54,911
General Synod Reformed Presbyterian Church	1	7	2,000
Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church	20	40	24,747
Welsh Presbyterian Church	11	35	8,013

VII. American and European Residents in Foreign Seaports—The union churches in foreign seaports have been seriously affected by war conditions, especially those in Pekin, Tokio and Rio Janeiro. The pastor of the Pekin Church, Rev. Charles F. Hubbard, D. D., has returned to the United States after three years' service. He reports that the opportunity for reaching the English-speaking Chinese and Japanese is great. These peoples need suitable buildings for their services.

The Union Church at Manila, P. I., is becoming a large, aggressive and self-supporting institution. It has three hundred and forty-five members and secured by an every-member canvass recently, a subscription of $6,000 for the churches' annual budget. There are also union churches in the Canal Zone and at Mexico City, and at the latter place there are still ninety-six members on the ground, of whom thirty were added during the year. The influence of this church in maintaining good relations between the government of Mexico and the United States is important.

Work in these foreign seaports is supported by a committee of the Foreign Mission Conference of the United States and Canada, and disbursed in the past year something over $8,000, of which more than half was contributed by Presbyterian Mission Agencies.

VIII. Sabbath-school and Young People's Work—The reports from seven of the constituent Churches of the Western Section on this subject show a healthy and progressive spirit all along the line. Four interesting facts indicative of the progress are noted:

1. Evangelistic Effort—In all the schools the supreme objective is increasingly the bringing of the children, and also the adult scholars in organized Bible classes, to decisions for Christ.

2. Educational Work—There is marked progress in systematic educational work, as to the doctrines of the Bible, the facts of history and biography, and the history of the particular denomination to which a school or society may be related. Teacher classes are being multiplied, and instructive, up-to-date literature is being circulated by all the Sabbath School Boards and Committees.

3. Missionary Activity—Missionary study classes are being organized among all the scholars, whatever their age. The world fields of missionary endeavor have been intelligently presented and studied, with the result that there has been increased consecrated giving. Special Sabbath School mission work, it is noted, has gained much by the larger vision of the work of the whole Kingdom of God.

4. War Service—The adult departments of Sabbath Schools and Young People's Societies have been greatly affected by the call to the colors of so many of the membership. There is not a school nor a society which has not furnished its quota, the numbers in the larger churches often running up to 50 or 100. The letters which come back from the men in the Army and the Navy evidence that these young men from the Sabbath Schools are doing their duty as Christians to a great extent. The reflex influence of this upon the schools and societies at home will lead, it is believed, to an increased earnestness in prayer, and a general toning-up of the spiritual life.

IX. Foreign Missions—There are at present 412 societies directing work in the world foreign mission field, 98 independent societies aiding, and 189 allied societies reporting through the 412 societies first named. The total contributions for the last fiscal year were $38,922,822. These 699 societies have 24,039 missionaries, 109,099 members of the native staff, 26,210 organized churches, and 30,752 other places where services are regularly conducted. There are 406 theological colleges and Bible Schools, with 105,881 students, 703 hospitals, 1,234 dispensaries, 1,052 foreign and 233 native physicians, and, in addition, 2,114 high schools and 36,478 elementary schools.

India—This country is in a state of great intellectual unrest. Many are turning from heathenism. Amongst the lower classes there are mass movements towards Christianity. It is said that one mission refused baptism to 52,000 candidates because of an insufficient staff to shepherd them. One of the great restrictions upon the development of the country is still the question of caste.

Japan—Only 8 per cent. of the adult male population in this country have electoral rights. The people generally are still in the bonds of heathenism. Christian forces, however, are actively at work, including, along with the churches, the Y. M. C. A., and the Y. W. C. A. The three-year national evangelistic campaign which was completed in July, 1917, had important results; for 800,000 persons are said to have been reached, and 27,000 persons professed Christ.

China—The history of China of late has been characterized by far-reaching revolutions. In 1905 the old system of education was succeeded by a new one, which provides education for forty-five millions of children of school age. The opium traffic ceased on March 31, 1917, and the production of the drug in China is now entirely discontinued. Provincial Assemblies were first elected in all the provinces of China in 1909, and continue from that time. Liberty of conscience has also been generally assured. The growth of missions in China has been phenomenal. In 1842 there were but thirteen Christians in the country. At present there are more than half a million. A five-year evangelistic campaign has been begun, and has had already far-reaching results in many provinces, especially along the line of voluntary or personal evangelism. In Manchuria alone 6,000 voluntary workers were reported. There is close friendship between the different missions and churches.

As to other lands, it is sufficient to say that everywhere there are evident the stirrings of a new life. The world war instead of lessening has increased devotion and zeal. Of course, there are disheartening facts in the outlook for the future. The work of German missionaries in all parts of the world has been terminated, and more than 2,000 of the missionaries of the Central European nations have been interned or exiled from their fields. Nearly all French missionaries and many British, American, Canadian and Australian missionaries have responded to their country's call, and to add to the seriousness of the situation, hundreds of thousands of the best of the young men of all nationalities are dead, and, in addition, millions are in the trenches. The destruction of resources in young men and money is terrible. Dr. R. P. Mackay, in his report to the Western Section draws attention, however, to certain results whose influence for good cannot be measured. There is the suppression of the liquor traffic in all lands; the emancipation of many millions from the oppression of despotism; the growing conviction that the hope of the world does not lie in armies and navies, or in commercial prosperity; a new conception of self-sacrifice in service; a new impulse to the spirit of co-operation, and a new emphasis upon salvation through Christ.

X. The Quarterly Register—The Quarterly Register, the organ of the Alliance, continues, as in former years, to supply the various constituent Churches of the Alliance with information relative to their varied interests. Owing to the continuance of the war, there has been no significant change either of the name, the manner of gathering and editing the news, or in the manner of circulation. Persons desiring to subscribe should write to Rev. R. Dykes Shaw, D. D., General Secretary, 122 George Street, Edinburgh, Scotland.

XI. Education—The sphere of Christian education has not escaped the distracting influences of these troubled times. Our institutions of learning have been hampered and often crippled. Many of our educators have joined the army, and the under graduate classes have been severely reduced in numbers.

In view of the situation the Secretary of War of the United States has officially spoken urging our young men below draft age to go on uninterruptedly with their educational work. The effect of the situation upon the support and supply of ministers is serious. Concerning the policy of the Government in exempting the actual theological students there has been a decided difference in opinion. Some Church Boards of Education have counseled the students under their care to waive the examination and go directly to the front. It is the judgment of the Council's Committee on Education that actual students should feel that the position taken by the United States Government is not to be regarded as an empty courtesy, but as the wisest course to be taken for conserving and promoting the morale and indirectly the economic and moral resources of the people. This action of the Government is in line with President Wilson's suggestion that the great work of the Churches to-day is to sustain themselves and maintain their work, and for this an educated and ordained minister is a necessity. Owing to results of the present war situation, it is safe to say that Germany will not in the future be regarded as in any sense or degree the oracle of American theological work. The German assumption that "might makes right" cannot be accepted as a rule of life. The Christian religion in its letter and in its spirit insists that "only right makes might."

XII. Evangelistic Work—The Presbyterian Churches have always been evangelistic, but not confined to any one method in connection with the work. In some of the Churches there are separate committees on evangelism, distinct from other agencies, while in some cases evangelistic work is intrusted to Boards of Home Missions. The program for the conducting of evangelistic work in Presbyteries, which is both a natural and a preferred method, and has been in use recently, can be outlined as follows:

a. Choosing the Presbyterial leaders.
b. Inspiring and educating the leaders.
c. Setting before the leaders an example.
d. Keeping the local churches at work on their evangelistic task.

Commenting on this program, it is emphasized that only capable and efficient men should be put in the position of evangelistic leaders; that institutions and conferences have proven to be admirable ways of educating such leaders; that the denominational committees on evangelism should also conduct sample campaigns in a number of the Presbyteries, and last of all, that every effort should be made, after the close of an evangelistic campaign, to maintain a living evangelistic interest in each of the congregations. This work should not be stressed for a few weeks, and afterwards forgotten for many years. In this connection it is important to note that the Western Section commends the organizing of a Central Evangelistic Committee composed of representatives of all the constituent Churches of the Alliance in the United States and Canada. It is believed that such a Central Committee can do effective work, secure far more extensive co-operation than would otherwise be possible, and ensure more satisfactory and permanent results.

XIII. Finances—The receipts from the apportionments of the Churches during the year ending February 1, 1918, were $3,524.93, of which sum $38.52 was interest. The disbursements were as follows: Alliance expenses, general office (Edinburgh), $2,117.10; expenses annual meeting, Columbia, S. C., $1,624.04; printing and miscellaneous expenses, $232.90; total, $3,974.04.

It is respectfully requested that the apportionment from your Church be forwarded not later than October 1, 1918, to the American Treasurer, Mr. Philip E. Howard, 1031 Walnut St., Philadelphia, Pa. The financial provisions of the Alliance include the salary and expenses of the General Secretary, Rev. R. Dykes Shaw, D. D., of Edinburgh, Scotland, and the current expenses of the Western Section. The American Secretary and the American Treasurer continue to serve without pay.

XIV. The Eleventh Council—The continuation of the war in Europe has necessitated delaying the meeting of the Eleventh Council to some date later than 1919. Both the Eastern and Western Sections of the Alliance agree upon the necessity of the postponement.

XV. Apportionments for Expenses and Representatives in the Eleventh Council—The Eleventh Council of the Alliance will consist of 350 members, 150 from the Eastern and 200 from the Western Section. The distribution of members to the constituent Churches, and the annual apportionment of the Churches for the expenses of the Alliance are as given below. The rate of apportionment is $20 per representative per annum.

	Number Representatives	Annual Payments
Presbyterian Church in Canada	21	$ 420 00

XVI. Fraternal Delegates—The Western Section has appointed the following delegates from the Alliance to the supreme judicatories:

Presbyterian Church in Canada—Rev. John Somerville, D. D.
Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.—Rev. Wm. H. Roberts, D. D.
United Presbyterian Church—Rev. W. I. Wishart, D. D.
Reformed Church in America—Rev. Ame Vennema, D. D.
Reformed Church in the U. S.—(No meeting until 1920.)
Synod, Reformed Presbyterian Church—Rev. S. G. Shaw.
General Synod, Reformed Presbyterian Church—Rev. F. Y. Pressly, D. D.

XVII. Next Meeting—The Western Section will meet in February or March, 1919, in Chambersburg, Pennsylvania, the host being Wilson College, and the date to be fixed by the Executive Committee.

XVIII. Consecration—The one great need of the hour in all the Churches is definite consecration of all that we are and have to God in Christ, and through God to the progress of humanity. This consecration involves everything of which the word sacrifice is significant in a religious sense. In relation to the great world war now being waged, there is everywhere abundant evidence of unselfish devotion, of unstinted expenditure of treasure, and of the consecration of men, women and children, with their every resource to the securing of real liberty for the world, and the establishment of the rule of righteousness as between nations. Has not the time come when the emphasis which under the guidance of divine providence has been placed upon the progress of the world from the secular side, should also be placed upon that supreme cause for which Jesus Christ stands? First things should be first. The world's security from war is attainable through the world's redemption by Christ. We should realize that it is the Church's opportunity to minister to the enlargement and world-wide extension of the Kingdom of God. There should come, further, the manifestation of an increasing spirit of co-operation, in particular between Churches of a like faith and order. If the Master's commission is as important as we profess to believe it to be, is it not time that differences and prejudices be laid aside and a united front be presented that with one heart and with one accord we may strive for the winning of the world for Christ?

GEORGE W. RICHARDS, Chairman.

Are Requested

In making their Annual Reports to the Assembly to use blanks provided by the Secretary of Publication; always procuring new ones.

1. To make their reports in fair, distinct writing, especially the columns of names and figures in the Statistical Tables. Add all the columns and report no fractions in the money columns—using machine if practicable.

2. To make them as accurate and as full as possible. When Churches do not report to Presbyteries, let the numbers of their communicants, elders and deacons in their last reports be inserted.

3. To append to the statistics of Presbyteries a brief account of the changes which have occurred during the year, such as the number of licensures, ordinations, installations, dissolution of pastorates, organization and dissolution of Churches, and the names of ministers deceased. Place a star after name of Church if manse is furnished. Discard the use of "W. C." after names of ministers without charges.

4. To transmit their Statistical and other Reports to the Stated Clerk of the Assembly as soon as they are prepared. If Statistical Reports are not received before the Assembly meets, it will occasion embarrassing delay in the publication of the Minutes.

Blank forms for Sessional or Presbyterian Reports are not furnished by the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly, but by the Executive Committee of Publication, at cost price, by order of the Assemblies of 1867 and 1878; and Stated Clerks are earnestly urged to supply themselves with the latest blanks for all Reports. Get new blanks each year and thereby avoid confusion.

The Assembly instructs Stated Clerks to send up no overture, except when it is written upon a separate sheet of its own.

Notify the Stated Clerk of General Assembly when a change is made in the clerkship of your Presbytery.

TO THE STATED CLERKS OF SYNODS

It is the duty of these officers promptly to notify the approaching General Assembly through its Stated Clerk (1) of the formation or dissolution of Presbyteries within the bounds of their respective Synods, and (2) of the times and places of the next ensuing meetings of these bodies. It is not required that Synodical Narratives or statistical reports prepared by Synod be sent to the Assembly. They are simply for Synodical record. (3) Notify the Stated Clerk of the Assembly when change is made in the clerkship of Synod. Attend to these three things immediately on the adjournment of Synod, that the Assembly's Clerk may begin that early the preparation of his schedules and blanks for the next Assembly. To do this he needs a complete roll of Presbyteries.

PRAYER FOR THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Whereas, The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States fully recognizes the efficacy of the prayers of God's people, and the necessity of divine guidance in its own deliberations; therefore—

Resolved, First, That the General Assembly recommend to all the Churches under its care to offer special prayer during the devotions of the Sabbath preceding the meeting of the General Assembly in each year, that God would of His great mercy so give the General Assembly the wisdom that cometh from above, and so direct all its plans, discussions and decisions as to promote His own glory and to advance the kingdom of Jesus on earth.

Resolved, Second, That the above preamble and resolution be printed annually in the Appendix to the Minutes of the Assembly.
